NEW WUNS AFFILIATES

Three new organizations have recently been admitted to the WORLD UNION OF NATIONAL SOCIALISTS. They are the following: Anglo-Nordic Union (South Africa); Belgian National Socialist Union; and Canadian Nazi Party. We wish each of these formations success in their endeavors, and urge all National Socialists in these countries to support their respective Section.

SOUTH AFRICA

The Anglo-Nordic Union has been officially recognized as the South African Section of WUNS. Heading the ANU is Ray K. Rudman. The address of the ANU is: Poshus 497--Pietmaritzburg.

BELGIUM

In July a WUNS Section, the Belgian National Socialist Union, was formed in this country. Leader of the BNSU is Rüdiger van Sande of: 80, Avenue de Thiervaux--Heusy/Verviers.

The Belgian Section is comprised of three sub-sections, corresponding to the three ethnic groups in Belgium: Vlaams Nationaal-Socialistische Unie (Flemish); Union Nationale-Socialiste Wallonne (Walloon); and National-Sozialistische Volksunion (German).

Formation of the BNSU came after satisfactory consultation with Yves Jeanne, Leader of the Fédération Ouest-Européenne. The FOE formerly had WUNS jurisdiction over the French-speaking, or Walloon, part of Belgium.

Attempts to intimidate the Leader of the Belgian Section have already begun. While van Sande was away from his home in late July, the police raided it, and confiscated many items. The Belgian Leader has since filed a complaint with the attorney-general against this illegal action. Because of his politics, van Sande has also lost his job. With a wife and three children to support, he is now without employment, and we ask any Comrades who are able to give assistance to do so.

CANADA

The Canadian Nazi Party was formed on 20 April of this year. Under the leadership of John Beattie, the CNP has come to the forefront of racist and National Socialist activity in Canada. The new Canadian Section promises to be an invaluable part of our growing world movement.

Temporary mailing address for the CNP is simply: John Beattie--181 Rhodes Avenue--Toronto 8, Ontario.

SOUTH AMERICAN REPORT

CHILE

Franz Pfeiffer, head of the Chilean Section, Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, was arrested on 22 April of this year and put in prison for three years, because of an alleged attack on a synagogue back in 1958. The real reason, however, for Pfeiffer's imprisonment is an attempt by the government to intimidate the growing force of National Socialism in Chile.

We therefore urge all Sections and affiliates--particularly those which have not yet had an opportunity to do so--to protest against the cowardly persecution of Pfeiffer at the nearest Chilean embassy, consulate or official office on 22 October. On that date Comrade Pfeiffer will already have been held in prison for six months.

During Pfeiffer's absence, Maj. René Rodríguez is in charge of the PNSO. The current address of the Chilean Section is: PNSO--Agregado Especial 88--Correo 15--Santiago.

Form of Protest in Spanish

PETICION AL HONORABLE EMBAJADOR DE CHILE

En las oficinas principales de la Unión Mundial de Nacional-Socialistas, se ha recibido información al efecto de que un ciudadano chileno, Franz Pfeiffer, Jefe del Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, ha sido encarcelado por un período de tres años, como consecuencia de sus actividades políticas.

La Unión Mundial de Nacional-Socialistas, que incluye el Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, quiere protestar el trato cruel y las graves injusticias que se están extendiendo a Franz Pfeiffer. Muy respetuosamente, le solicitamos al estimado Señor Embajador de la gran patria de Chile que haga todo lo posible para conseguir la anulación de la sentencia arriba mencionada, para asegurar la libertad de Franz Pfeiffer y devolverle el derecho humano de la libertad política.

Muy atentamente,

ARGENTINA

In August Horst Eichmann, son of the late Adolf Eichmann, was arrested in a nationwide police raid against National Socialists, Peronists and Nationalists. He was later released because of lack of evidence against him.

DATES TO COMMEMORATE

- 16 October 1946 -- Ten of the Nuremberg Martyrs are murdered at Landsberg Prison.
- 9 November 1923 -- The Munich Putsch: 16 Stormtroopers give their lives for the National Socialist Cause.

PERSECUTION IN GERMANY

"Stossen können Sie, fallen können Sie nicht,
Schlagen können Sie, zwingen können Sie nicht,
Martern können Sie, ausrotten können Sie nicht,
Verbrennen, ertränken und aufhängen können Sie,
Zum Schweigen bringen,
das können Sie nicht!"

--Martin Luther

BRUNO LÜDTKE

Bruno Lüdtke, who was arrested and held without trial for four months in 1963, has been indicted on the grounds that his alleged association with WUNS and some of his writings upholding the National Socialist philosophy constitute crimes against the "democratic" Bonn constitution. Although the date of trial has not been set, it is expected to be scheduled shortly.

All WUNS Sections, Associate Members and sympathizers are urged to prepare now for the most vigorous and effective protest possible as soon as the Lüdtke trial starts. This protest should be aimed against the persecution of Bruno Lüdtke in particular and the general persecution of National Socialism in Germany, should demand complete political freedom for National Socialists in that country.

Devise the best means you can to bring this issue before the public and politicians in your country, and to register your protest at the nearest German embassy, consulate or travel office. For this purpose you might consider the following: picket demonstrations; protest delegations; public vigils; handbill distributions; telephone campaigns; open letters (newspapers, etc.); posters, signs and stickers; public rallies; pressure on your own government; special dramatic action.

DIETRICH SCHULER

Another outrageous example of the "democratic" tyranny existing in Germany today is the case of Dietrich Schuler, 38-year-old schoolmaster from Reutin in the Black Forest region. Schuler was recently sentenced to seven months' imprisonment by a Stuttgart District Court, because of an unpublished manuscript police had found in his home upholding National Socialism.

ERHARD REINHARDT

This National Socialist Comrade, a 28-year-old toolmaker from Aachen, was indicted on 22 July, after being held in jail since 10 March of this year. Reinhardt is accused of having taken part in the distribution of a leaflet protesting extension of the statute of limitations for prosecution of so-called "war criminals". Reinhardt is scheduled to go to trial shortly.

ECKHARD BRAGARD

Arrested along with Reinhardt in March was Eckhard Bragard, also of Aachen, a 25-year-old radio technician. His case is currently pending.

ERICH WENDT

Also arrested on similar charges in March with Reinhardt and Bragard was Erich Wendt, of Bodendorf-Ahr. Details in his case are not available at the present time.

CURRENT LIST OF WUNS

MARTYRS & POLITICAL PRISONERS*

The following list is presented for the information of all National Socialists. We trust that they will solemnly commemorate those Comrades who have fallen, and plan appropriate action to publicize the fate of those Comrades now imprisoned.

PEDRO HAGEL	Argentina	murdered
JAMES PEARSON	United States	murdered
ROY FRANKHOUSER	United States	permanent disability
DON BRANCH	United States	20 years
LYLE MC LAUGHLIN	United States	10 years
FRANZ PFEIFFER	Chile	3 years
DIETRICH SCHULER	West Germany	7 months
GERALD LAWMAN	Great Britain	6 months
LON DUNAWAY	United States	(indeterminate)
ECKHARD BRAGARD	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ERHARD REINHARDT	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ERICH WENDT	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ROBERT BRUCE	United States	(indeterminate)

*This list was prepared from all the latest information available. If any name was omitted, it was due solely to the lack of such information. We would appreciate being advised of any omitted names, so that they may appear on future lists.

In the case of imprisonment, the total length of the sentence is shown.

WARNING!

European National Socialists are warned about a race-traitor from Toronto, Canada, who may try to approach them. He is David Stanley, age 20, formerly associated with the following groups: Canada Youth Corps, World Service and Natural Order.

On the right is a picture showing this low character as he repudiates his former associations and publicly apologizes to Jewry at a recent news conference.

We are informed that Stanley will receive an inheritance on 1 October 1965, and is planning to spend a year traveling throughout Europe.

ANP HEADQUARTERS SEIZED

The normal operations of the American Nazi Party were seriously disrupted by the action of federal tax collectors in seizing the national headquarters at 928 N. Randolph Street in Arlington on 3 December. The Internal Revenue Service, headed by Sheldon Cohen (Jew), arbitrarily declared that the party owed back taxes, and staged its raid.

The areas most affected include correspondence, printing and general administration. However, alternate arrangements have been made, and the ANP expects to resume normal operations shortly.

All party records remain intact, and have not fallen into government hands. All mail for the ANP should go to: Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia 22205.

GERMAN VERDICTS

Bruno Lütke

The case of Bruno Lütke was finally heard on 14 January by a Frankfurt district court. The trial was the outgrowth of nearly three years of official persecution against this comrade for his National Socialist ideas.

Comrade Lütke was given eight months' imprisonment. However, because of Lütke's defiant attitude, which might well develop into a symbol of resistance against Bonn tyranny, the judge suspended sentence. In typical fashion, the venal democratic press then announced that Lütke had apologized for his beliefs and his association with other National Socialists--A COMPLETE AND TOTAL LIE!

Erhard Reinhardt

On 9 December Erhard Reinhardt drew a 15-month jail sentence from a Cologne district court. He allegedly threatened members of the Bundestag who voted for extension of the statute of limitations for persecuting wartime National Socialists. During the trial, Comrade Reinhardt acquitted himself in the finest National Socialist tradition.

Close friends have expressed some concern over the possible effect of prolonged confinement on Reinhardt, because of an ailing condition already aggravated by eight months in prison awaiting trial. National Socialists everywhere are urged to contact Reinhardt's attorney and encourage him to exert maximum effort to secure the immediate release of this persecuted comrade. The attorney is: Dr. Josef Giersberg, Rechtsanwalt---5 Köln---Steinfelder-gasse 32.

We regret to report that during the same trial Eckhard Bragard did not act in a proper National Socialist manner. Mr. Bragard went along with the prosecution, and drew a lighter sentence of six months.

AUSTRALIA

Fresh attempts are being made to reactivate the National Socialist Party of Australia. The NSPA attracted considerable attention recently following several public rallies in the Sydney Domain. The party was dissolved in 1964, after the arrest and imprisonment of its leader, Arthur Smith.

CHILE

National Socialists wishing to contact imprisoned Chilean leader, Franz Pfeiffer, may do so by writing to him at: Prision de Suiñ---Salmaleda 870---Suiñ.

IN MEMORIAM

During the first quarter of the year, National Socialists around the world will pay tribute to four fallen comrades who once stood in their ranks. They include:

ROBERT WESSEL	WILLIAM JOYCE	PEDRO HAGEL	JAMES FRAPSON

DATES TO OBSERVE

- 30 January 1933 -- Adolf Hitler becomes Chancellor of Germany, a smashing blow to the international Jewish forces of Capitalism and Communism.
- 24 February 1920 -- Real birthday of the National Socialist movement: Hitler announces the 25-point Program of the German Workers' Party during a public rally at the Hofbräuhaus in Munich.

RUDOLF HESS: 25 Years of Martyrdom

"Wir stehen mitten in einer grossen Zeitenwende. Was wir alle durchmachen sind ihre Geburtswehen. Alles scheint negativ--- und einmal wird dann doch Neues und Grosses geboren werden..."

---R. Hess (Letter to his wife from Prison)

For a quarter of a century---on 10 May---Rudolf Hess has been held in prison. His sole "crime" was trying to end the Second World War among Aryan nations on that date in 1941. For his heroic efforts he was condemned to life imprisonment.

If Hess had been a first-degree murderer, he would---according to the law in many Western countries---have been released long ago. But his "crime" of trying to bring about real peace between White nations is still regarded as unforgivable by those powers which started World War II.

On the 25th anniversary of Hess' daring flight to Scotland, National Socialists everywhere are urged to launch new efforts to dramatize the plight of this Prisoner of Peace. This should be more than a mere one-day affair, however. It should signal the start of a special "Free Rudolf Hess Year."

All WUNS sections and affiliates are urged to plan appropriate campaigns demanding Hess' immediate and unconditional release. Demonstrations should be directed toward the embassies, consulates and other official offices of those responsible for Hess' continuing confinement: the United States, Great Britain, France, the Soviet Union, as well as West Germany.

In the meantime, may the Date of National Socialism's greatest Living Martyr serve to call forth greater dedication, greater determination, greater effort and greater sacrifice on the part of all National Socialists.

CHILEAN LEADER RELEASED!

Franz Pfeiffer, Leader of the Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero (National Socialist Workers' Party), was released from prison without prior announcement on 17 October by pardon of President Eduardo Frei. He had served nearly half of a three-year sentence at Buin since his arrest on 22 April 1965, for an alleged attack on a synagogue back in 1958.

Following his release, the Chilean Leader expressed thanks to all NS comrades around the world who had helped to draw public attention to his case. Pfeiffer is currently engaged in reactivating the Chilean section. The PNSO mailing address remains: Agregado Especial 88, Correo 15--Santiago.

We are pleased to welcome Comrade Pfeiffer back into the National Socialist Struggle!

IRISH NATIONAL SOCIALISTS ORGANIZE

The National Socialist Federation was formed recently, incorporating the former National Social Union of Ireland and the Irish National Socialist Movement. Mr. A.L. Price is Leader of the NSI, and Mr. M. Plunkett is his Deputy. Until a permanent headquarters is established in Dublin, all correspondence should simply be addressed as follows: Mr. A.L. Price--26 Cappagh Drive--Pinglas West--Dublin 2, Eire. (No other details should be put on the envelope.)

NATIONALIST NEWS, former organ of the National Social Union, has ceased publication. It will shortly be replaced by NATIONAL SOCIALIST NEWS, serving as organ for the new Federation.

The NSP has commenced activity with campaigns in support of Rhodesia and the release of Rudolf Hess. In connection with the latter effort, it has set up a very effective "Free Hess Committee".

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD

Initial response to the new WUNS quarterly, NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD, has been extremely encouraging and has, in fact, exceeded all earlier expectations. The new publication gives every indication of becoming a highly important vehicle for the exposition and development of modern National Socialist thought.

For sustained growth and expansion, NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD will require two things: (1) enough material suitable for publication; and (2) a solid base of paid subscriptions. Subscriptions are available at $10 per year (3 Pounds/11s/3d; DM 40; 50F) or $2.50 for one issue. Both manuscripts and subscriptions should be sent to: NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD--Box 5537--Arlington, Va. 22205 USA.

All Sections, Associate Members and affiliates are urged to forward reports, information and photos of mutual interest to: WUNS-Eastern Hemisphere--74 Priordale Road--London, W.11, England; or WUNS-Western Hemisphere--Box 5505--Arlington, Virginia 22205 USA.

Germany A Federal Court in Karlsruhe has crushed the verdict of a Frankfurt District Court against our comrade, Bruno Lüdtke. A new trial has been ordered held in Frankfurt, and is expected to take place sometime early next year.

Italy The pro-NS Italian organ, ORDINE NUOVO (New Order), formerly located at Via di Pietra, 84--Roma, has moved to the following address: Via degli Scipioni, 268a--Roma.

CORRECTION: In WUNS Bulletin No. 5 we erroneously gave the box number of the Canadian Nazi Party as 802. The correct address is: Box 820, Terminal "A" -- Toronto, Ontario.

COMMEMORATIVE DATES

- 12 October 1958 -- American Nazi Party is formed by Commander Rockwell
16 October 1946 -- Ten of the Nuremberg Martyrs are murdered at Landsberg Prison
9 November 1923 -- The Munich Revolt: 16 Stormtroopers give their lives for the National Socialist Cause
12 November 1893 - Birthday of Dr. Fritz Clausen, who in 1932 founded Denmark's National Socialistiske Arbejder Parti, which has since become the Danish section of WUNS
(Clausen died in a democratic prison in 1947.)

A YULETIDE MESSAGE

We extend to every National Socialist comrade around the world heartiest greetings of the Yuletide season and best wishes for a New Year marked by ever greater growth, progress and success for our common Cause.

And during this time of year we must not fail to remember that one NS comrade at Spandau, who on this Christmas Eve will have spent exactly 9,359 days and nights behind democratic prison bars---9,359 days and nights of suffering for the "crime" of trying to bring peace to Aryan mankind during the tragic days of World War II.

Since the recent release of Schirach and Speer, renewed interest has been focused on the plight of Rudolf Hess in many quarters throughout Europe and the entire Western world. At midnight on 30 September, a throng of 5,000 young West Berliners---shouting "let Hess go!"---broke through heavy police lines in an attempt to storm the gates of Spandau Prison. Hess' wife, Ilse, and his son, Wolf Rüdiger, have appealed to Pope Paul VI, the World Council of Churches, the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, as well as to the government heads of the four wartime allies, to intervene in his behalf.

Meanwhile, the living martyrdom of this one man is becoming a source of embarrassment in liberal, democratic circles. We must take full advantage of this situation by focusing a powerful beam of public attention on the outrageous injustice perpetrated against Rudolf Hess---which will completely expose all the Judeo-democratic perfidy and hypocrisy which still keeps him caged up after 25 years. During the approaching Yuletide season National Socialists everywhere should take time out to renew their demands for an expression of goodwill toward this Prisoner of Peace.

DEMAND THE IMMEDIATE AND UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE OF RUDOLF HESS.

In his struggle for a National Socialist world, George Lincoln Rockwell was jailed, beaten, smeared, cursed, lied about and reviled by his enemies. But he never surrendered to any pressure, no matter how great. For every attack he knew only one answer: counterattack. Through it all, he was guided by the immortal words of Adolf Hitler: "Those who want to live, let them fight; and those who do not want to fight in this world of eternal struggle do not deserve to live."

George Lincoln Rockwell fought, and he died. And yet he is not really dead, for he built a movement and spread an idea. And the enemies of Aryan Man are badly mistaken if they think they can destroy that movement or kill that idea with a bullet. As long as that movement remains and that idea continues to fill the hearts and minds of men, the spirit of Commander Rockwell lives on!

(Single copies of the eulogy delivered by Matt Koehl at the National Socialist memorial services held for Commander Rockwell in Arlington 30 August, 1967, may be obtained upon request from the NSWPP-- Box 5505--Arlington, Virginia 22205 U.S.A.)

John Patler

The Liberal press has pushed the line that John Patler killed Commander Rockwell in an internal NS dispute, and that Patler was in fact, a bona fide National Socialist. This line has been repeated so consistently, that even some good National Socialist comrades have been deceived by it. That basic ideological issues may have been involved in the assassination is deliberately ignored.

The fact is that John Patler (John Patsalos) was expelled from the NSWPP on 4 April of this year following his persistent attempts to push a "Racial Bolshevik" line within the movement. His hateful references to lighter members of the Party as "blue-eyed devils" are well known. They reveal a malignant attitude which caused considerable dissension prior to his expulsion. Patler had made repeated attacks on the Party's "Aryanism" and "racial chauvinism"-- both verbally and in writing--in no way substantially different from similar attacks by the most rabid Communists.

As all National Socialists recognize, race is at the center of our entire philosophy. Any attempt to belittle its fundamental importance, or to deny basic Aryan racial values, is contrary to everything that National Socialism stands for, and cannot be tolerated within the movement.

Patler's deviation from National Socialism became apparent in another way. While claiming to be for racial unity, he regularly preached and practiced a form of Marxist class war. In a Marxist mania for "equality" he regularly attacked the Aryan concept of private property which did not conform to his "proletarian" concepts.

For those who had known Patler well, this action came as no surprise. His favorite reading material had been the pro-Peking Communist monthly, "PROGRESSIVE LABOR," to which he was a regular subscriber. Among the Marxist "heroes" for whom he expressed open admiration were the Cuban dictator Fidel Castro and Che Guevara, the late darling of the Left, both of whom he regarded as "true revolutionaries."

This then is the man whom Commander Rockwell ordered expelled from the Party. There simply was no place for the disruptive activity and deviation of this individual within the National Socialist movement.

At this time it cannot be stated conclusively whether Patler was directly involved with a certain Communist or Jewish organization at the time of the assassination. However, the NSWPP does have some information which tends to suggest such a connection. One thing is certain: Patler could not have acted alone in any plot against the Commander.

UNITED STATES

Milwaukee March In its first major public activity since the assassination of Commander Rockwell, the NSWPP held a White Power march into the Negro section of Milwaukee, Wisconsin on 23 September. The march, led by Capt Chris Vidnjevich of the Party's Chicago headquarters and Lt Frank Drager the Party's General Organizer, added a new dimension to the racial struggle in Milwaukee. The march followed a Party rally in a local park the previous evening; and came in response to successive Black marches into Milwaukee's White neighborhoods. Until the appearance of the National Socialists, all other groups claiming to represent the White people had confined their demonstrations to the safer White areas of the city.

Leftist Demonstrations Attacked American National Socialists clashed with pro-Viet Cong "peace" demonstrators in two separate actions in Washington, D.C. on 21 October. An NS infiltration team comprised of Capt Vidnjevich, Lt Drager, SL William Kirstein and GL Spencer Redfield, stormed through a Red security cordon and demolished the speaker's platform at the Lincoln Memorial as Clive Jenkins, Leftist British MP, was about to speak. The disruption halted the demonstration for almost a half hour. Capt Vidnjevich and SL Kirstein were arrested in the assault, but were later released under $500 bond each.

Later, Matt Koehl led a National Socialist contingent into the middle of several thousand "peace creeps" at the Pentagon with gigantic signs spelling out, "Bomb Hanoi" and "Gas the Viet Cong." Out-numbered 100-to-1, the National Socialists fought a brief, bloody skirmish as they broke out of their encirclement. They later seized and destroyed hundreds of Leftist placards and captured a number of Viet Cong flags.

Australian Exchange Member Eric R. Wenberg, who joined the NSWPP Headquarters Staff under a special U.S.-Australian NS exchange program, was released from the Washington, D.C. Jail on 28 September under $5,000 cash bond. He had been ordered deported earlier in the month; and had previously served a 10-day sentence in the Arlington County (Virginia) Jail for "contempt of court" after he lunged at John Patler during a hearing 28 August, shouting, "You filthy assassin!" Wenberg is currently out pending appeal of his case. He formerly served as a Staff Member of the National Socialist Party of Australia in Sydney.

"WHITE POWER" Newspaper "WHITE POWER" was launched 20 August under the personal aegis of Commander Rockwell as the first mass-circulation newspaper of the NSWPP. Thousands of copies have already been sold and distributed in America's major cities. The second issue of the paper for October contains an account of the Commander's life and career, as well as a description of the event at Culpeper, Virginia, during the attempt to hold funeral ceremonies of 29 August.

Copies of "WHITE POWER" may be obtained at $2 for 12 issues from: ANP-Dallas--Box 22071--Dallas, Texas 75222. Single copies may be purchased for 15¢ each, plus postage.

NSWPP Leadership

The responsibilities of Party leadership following the assassination of Commander Rockwell were assumed by Matt Koehl, the Party's senior officer who had served as National and External Secretary. The new National Leader also assumes command of the Party's Stormtroops.

The Party succession was carried out according to the organization chain-of-command which Commander Rockwell had established, and was subsequently reaffirmed by personal expressions of loyalty and support by all officers of the Party throughout the United States.

Mr. Koehl has also assumed the role of Acting Commander of the WORLD UNION OF NATIONAL SOCIALISTS following Commander Rockwell's death.

White Power

At the time of the assassination, Commander Rockwell had just been in the process of completing a new book, White Power, which analyzes the racial crisis in America and throughout the world, and points the way to National Socialism and an Aryan revolution. It was originally scheduled for release 1 September, but because of the tragic events, publication was postponed. Hardcover copies are now available at $5.95 from: ANP-Dallas--Box 22071--Dallas, Tex. 75222.

CANADA

John Beattie, Leader of the Canadian National Socialist Party, was released from prison 9 October, and is currently in the process of reactivating the movement in Canada.

The CNSP held its first public activity since Beattie's release when it staged a protest against Leftist "peace" demonstrators in Toronto on 21 October.

Meanwhile, Martin K. Weiche, the Party's former National Chairman, has been expelled for gross incompetence and inactivity during Beattie's imprisonment.

The mailing address of the CNSP remains: P.O. Box 820, Terminal "A"--Toronto 1, Ontario.

CHILE

Chilean National Socialists paid tribute to Commander Rockwell 3 September in special ceremonies following a march to the Santiago cemetery where there is a memorial to the 58 National Socialists killed in that country in 1938.

Franz Pfeiffer, Leader of the Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, reports that the Chilean section has been holding regular rallies in Santiago and Valparaiso. He also reports that a new headquarters has been opened up on Concepcion, where PNSO members recently clashed with pro-Viet Cong demonstrators.

Meanwhile, the PNSO is planning a mass nation-wide march for 1-3 December to be followed by a rally in San Felipe, near its stronghold of Putaendo, to protest Marxist subversion.

The PNSO mailing address is: Agregado Especial 88-Correo 15- Santiago.

BRITAIN

Jordan Plight Dramatized On 24 June, Robert Relf, 40, a member of the National Socialist Movement, dramatized the plight of his leader, Colin Jordan, by hanging a huge banner reading, "Free Speech?" on a construction crane jib (boom) 250 feet above street-level in Coventry's crowded Precinct. For almost seven hours Relf, an ex-Marine commando, remained aloft, calling attention to the unjust imprisonment of the British Leader. At the end of his airborne vigil, he scattered leaflets to the huge crowd below, and calmly climbed back down.

Relf last year climbed the spire of the Coventry Cathedral to dramatize the struggle against Jewish tyranny in Britain. Attempts at that time by both the police and fire departments to bring him down failed.

Meanwhile, all WUNS sections and affiliates are urged to make a special effort during the approaching Yuletide season to show their solidarity with this comrade in his period of confinement. Jordan was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment 25 January on a trumped-up charge involving his criticism of Jews and Negroes. The British Leader was the first person to be jailed under the grossly anti-Aryan Race Relations Act of 1965. A subsequent appeal to obtain a writ of habeas corpus was turned down.

Colin Jordan is kept in virtual isolation at the prison in Exeter. All correspondence and messages for him should be sent: c/o 42 Tudor Avenue-Broad Lane--Coventry. Mr. D. J. Courtney has meanwhile assumed management of the NSM offices at: 74, Princedale Road--London, W.11. (Tel: 01-727-3218)

AUSTRALIA

Australian National Socialists are working in two areas to reestablish the National Socialist Party of Australia. The mailing address of one group, under Arthur Smith, is: P. O. Box 339, Broadway--Sydney, N.S.W. The other group, under E. R. Cawthron and Frank K. Molnar, is operating from: P. O. Box 1276--Canberra City, A.C.T.

On 22 October NS Stormtroops, using high-powered fire hose, sprayed more than 300 marchers with red dye during a pro-Viet Cong "peace" demonstration in Sydney. For hours after the march, the only sight to be seen was "peace creeps" and other assorted riff-raff running around with red hair, red faces and red clothes! The suddenness of the attack caught the 4,000 marchers by surprise, and only the fact that the National Socialists ran out of dye prevented the entire 4,000 from receiving a thorough dousing. Large numbers of Swastika-bedecked posters were also distributed among a sympathetic watching crowd.

NEW ZEALAND

New Zealand National Socialists are currently in the process of laying the foundation for the movement in their country.

SWEDEN

"NORDISK KAMP," organ of the Nordiska Rikspartiet, the WUNS affiliate in Sweden, has devoted a special memorial issue to the American National Socialist leader, George Lincoln Rockwell.

Head of the Nordiska Rikspartiet is Göran Assar Oredsson. The NRP mailing addresses are: Box 2149--Stockholm 2; and Box 162--Strängnäs. The cost of a year's subscription to "NORDISK KAMP" is 20 kr ($4; 32 shillings).

NORWAY

A very effective pro-NS publication printed in Norway is "FOLK OG LAND," edited by Odd Melsom. Mailing address of the paper is: Boks 3214--Oslo 4. Subscription rates outside Norway are 50 kr ($7; 2 Pounds/10s.) for one year, or 25 kr ($3.50; 1 Pound/5s.) for a half year.

GERMANY

Pvt William D. Whitmeyer, who had been with an armored unit in West Germany, was sentenced to three months' hard labor for allegedly disobeying the order of a Jewish officer to stop "propagandizing" among the troops. Whitmeyer was charged after giving a buddy a Swastika pin he had ordered from ANP-Dallas. The sentence was subsequently suspended, and he has been transferred to a unit in the United States. PFC Larry M. McIntyre, who was in the same company as Whitmeyer, has also been transferred back to the United States for political reasons.

Meanwhile, Sp/4 Bobby Lee Pace, who had interested himself in the Whitmeyer case, gave an excellent interview to "OVERSEAS WEEKLY," the publication for American GI's in western Europe. Pace is currently stationed near Augsburg in south Germany. As a result of the interview and the publicity surrounding the unjust treatment of Party Comrade Whitmeyer, the NSWPP headquarters in Arlington has been deluged with inquiries from scores of White GI's in West Germany, many of whom have indicated a strong desire to join the Party.

FRANCE

Dr. Paul Rassinier, controversial author of Le Mensonge d'Ulysse (Die Lüge des Odysseus), Le Drame des Juifs (Was Nun, Odysseus?) as well as La Véritable Procès Eichmann (Was Ist die Wahrheit zum Eichmann-Prozess?), died on 28 July.

A pacifist and former Communist, Rassinier had attracted considerable attention because of his exposure of the lies concerning the internment centers in National Socialist Germany, to which he himself had been deported because of his wartime Resistance activities. In 1965 he was barred from West Germany, where he was to have appeared as a witness for the defense at the Auschwitz show-trials.

"NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD"

Those who have not already seen issue No. 4 of "NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD" are urged to obtain a copy at this time. Recipients of this Bulletin may help to increase the circulation of "NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD" by ordering just two (2) extra copies of each issue to introduce to friends and associates. If everyone will do his part, it will help tremendously in building up the general effectiveness of this important publication.

Additional copies may be purchased for $2.50 (DM 10; 12.50F) each from: "NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD" -- Box 5537-- Arlington, Virginia 22205 U.S.A. Subscriptions are available at $10 (3 Pounds.11s.3d; DM 40; 50F) for four issues. (Remittance from outside the United States should be made by International Money Order, obtainable at main post offices throughout the world.)

Issue No. 5 of "NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD" will feature a selection of unpublished letters of Commander Rockwell, which give a keener insight into his remarkable ideas.

Commemorative Dates

- 16 October 1946 -- Ten of the Nuremberg Martyrs are murdered at Landsberg Prison
- 9 November 1923 -- The Munich Revolt; 16 Stormtroopers give their lives for the National Socialist Cause
- 12 November 1893 -- Birthday of Dr. Fritz Clausen, who in 1932 founded Denmark's National Socialistiske Arbejder Parti, which has since become the Danish section of WUNS (Clausen died in a democratic prison in 1947.)

Hess Release Urged

The American and British judges who took part in the postwar crimes at Nuremberg in 1946 on 10 October called for the release of the "Prisoner of Peace," Rudolf Hess.

Francis Biddle, who was U.S. representative on the four-power tribunal, released a statement after consultation with Lord Oaksey, the British presiding officer of the Nuremberg lynch-trial, saying: "Both Lord Oaksey and I think that Hess has served long enough, and that he should now be released."

Biddle's statement was issued in response to an appeal by Hess' son, Wolf Rüdiger Hess, of Mainz, West Germany. The latter had called the continued imprisonment of Hess "a flagrant defiance of human feelings."

The Führer's former Deputy in 1941 made a dramatic solo flight to Scotland in an attempt to end the hostilities between Great Britain and Germany. For his heroic efforts he was sentenced to life imprisonment at Nuremberg. Since last October he has been the lone inmate at Spandau Prison in West Berlin. Throughout his long years in prison--longer than those ever spent by any other National Socialist--Hess has steadfastly refused to renounce his loyalty to Adolf Hitler and National Socialism.

Biddle and Oaksey have apparently had some belated qualms about their dispicable roles in sentencing this guiltless man in the first place. Despite this, Biddle still went through the typical democratic pretenses. He claimed that in any change of the Nuremberg sentence, the Soviet Union would have to concur with the other occupying powers of postwar Germany, something the Russians have refused to do. That this is a sham is shown by the fact that each of the other powers--Britain, France and the United States--have it in their power to release Rudolf Hess whenever their troops assume the monthly guard, announcing the results to the obstinate Russians as a fait accompli. In addition, the Bonn government could cause Hess to be released by simply refusing to pay the $280,000 (100,000 Pounds) it costs to maintain the Spandau Prison each year.

As a gesture of defiance against the cruel and inhuman treatment being accorded Rudolf Hess, National Socialist comrades around the world may wish to send Yuletide greetings to him. These should be addressed as follows:

Herrn
Rudolf Hess
1 Berlin 20
Festung Spandau
WEST GERMANY

As all incoming mail at the prison passes through each of the Four-Power censors, senders may wish to exercise discretion in disclosing their names and addresses in some instances.

It is possible that these cards may never reach Herr Hess himself. But the important thing is to let his Four-Power captors realize the high regard and esteem in which this man is held by his friends and comrades around the world on the 27th Christmas he has spent in prison.

This Christmas Eve our comrade at Spandau will have spent exactly 9,724 days and nights behind democratic prison bars -- 9,724 days and nights of suffering for the "crime" of trying to bring peace to Aryan mankind during the tragic days of World War II.

Help demand his immediate release!

GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL: National Socialist Martyr

"I knew I would not live to see the victory which I would make possible. But I would not die before I had made that victory certain."

--Commander Rockwell, This Time the World, Chap. XIII

"Der Mann kann fallen, die Fahne nie!" --Hermann Göring

When that cowardly assassin pulled the trigger on that tragic, black Friday, 25 August 1967, he probably thought that he was ending the political career of the greatest National Socialist and greatest champion of Aryan humanity since Adolf Hitler. And in a certain sense he was right.

Yet in another sense this foul creature, acting on behalf of world Jewry and international Marxism, was deluding himself. For the historical personality of Commander Rockwell did not cease to exist on that fateful day last summer. "George Lincoln Rockwell: Temporal Political Leader" has simply assumed his new role as "George Lincoln Rockwell: Eternal Martyr." Through his heroic death, Commander Rockwell now takes his place beside our immortal Führer himself as the greatest of National Socialist martyrs. And just as he gave us needed guidance when he stood in our midst, so his living memory now provides us with an undying, all-powerful inspiration to fight the great battle which must be fought, and to do the mighty work which must be done.

Martyrdom can never kill an idea or destroy a movement. Martyrdom is in fact, essential for the victory of every earth-shaking, revolutionary idea. It is a confirmation of the seriousness of our purpose. It represents the culminating act of hate and hostility by our enemies, and is the highest tribute that can be paid to our dedication and commitment to the National Socialist Idea.

Nietzsche once declared: "The more determinant a being is for the future, the greater are its sufferings." Commander Rockwell himself wrote in This Time the World on page 306: "One does not win a whole new world with ordinary sorrows and agonies, but only after enduring and surmounting the utmost tragedies and Olympian agonies."

The Speech the Jews Rioted Over

Part of the crowd of 5,000 at the NSM meeting

Sunday, July 1, 1962.

PRESENTED here is the greater part of Colin Jordan's speech to the huge NSM meeting in Trafalgar Square in the centre of London on July 1, 1962.

On the evidence of the senior police officer on duty, a gang of about 300 Jews and Communists stationed themselves immediately in front of the platform and made it clear before the meeting began that it was their intention to try and prevent any meeting being held. They continually attempted to charge through the police cordon and assault the platform, and eventually, at the point where the below extract terminates, the police closed the meeting because of their disturbance.

In the outcome of prolonged court proceedings, Colin Jordan was given one month's imprisonment on the grounds that his speech had been insulting to these trouble-makers and had provoked them.

Since then, Jewish pressure on the authorities and the threat of Red violence has succeeded in denying us the use of Trafalgar Square while our opponents are allowed to use it. Repeatedly we have applied and been refused. On the occasion of an application for October 27, 1963 the Ministry of Works, which controls the use, replied: "The Minister has decided that your application must be refused because of the likelihood that any such meeting would cause grave public inconvenience."

Readers now have the opportunity to judge Colin Jordan's speech for themselves, and to decide who precisely is gravely inconvenienced by such words.

JOHN BULL TODAY

"Mr. John Bull of 1962 still calls himself a British subject, but he is virtually a subject of the Jews, as can be seen by looking at just a few of the facts of the everyday life of the average man.

His home is probably either rented from one of the Jewish property syndicates or being bought through one of the Jewish mortgage companies.

His furniture almost certainly comes from one of the huge Jewish furniture chains, such as Isaac Wolfson's Great Universal Stores, controlling, through the 750 shops of British & Colonial Furniture, Smart Bros., Jackson, Cavendish, Jays & Campbells, Woodhouse, and Drage, half of the entire sales in the country. Wolfson's other interests are enormous, and he is the biggest single retailer in Britain.

John Bull's clothing comes from one or other of the Jewish clothing chains, such as Montague Burton with its 15 factories and 450 shops, which alone controls a fifth of the clothing trade in Britain today.

His shoes come from one or other of the various well-known, gentile-sounding concerns, such as Freeman, Hardy & Withers, True-Form, Dolcis, Manfield, and Phillips Bros., with a total of 1,500 shops controlled by the Jewish financier Charles Clore.

When his wife goes out to do the shopping, it means patronising one or other of the mass of Jewish firms which dominate the shopping centres of every big town in the land. Some with their authentic Jewish names, some trading under assumed gentile names. A Jewish economic empire in the heart of Britain, which includes Marks & Spencers, Lewis's, Selfridges, H. Samuel, John Collier, Alexander, John Blundell, and the 260 Lyons teashops of the Salmon and Glickstein families.

JEWISH HIRE-PURCHASE

John Bull himself quite probably works for one of the thousands of Jewish or Jewish-dominated firms, headed by such giants as L.C.I.—founded by the Jew Ludwig Mond.

If the car in which John Bull comes home from work is on hire-purchase, he is in the clutches of the Jewish hire-purchase companies, whose rates of interest, reckoned relative to the progressive repayment of the hire-purchase balance, are monstrous. Isaac Wolfson alone controls more than 50 per cent. of the hire-purchase transactions in Britain today; and, incidentally, these facts and figures are not of our compilation, but are facts and figures given in the business columns of the daily press.

Home comes John Bull. When he slips off his Montague Burton jacket, drops into his Isaac Wolfson armchair, and lights a cigarette, it is probably produced by one of the Jewish tobacco concerns such as Godfrey Phillips, or Gallaher.

When he opens his newspaper, he reads what the Jewish journalists, the Jewish news-agencies and the Jewish advertisers want him to read.

If he goes to the pictures, he ends up in a cinema run by a Jewish syndicate, seeing films produced by a Jewish film-company. The theatre is similarly a Jewish monopoly.

If he sits at home and listens to the radio or watches television, he brings the sound and sight of the Jew into his own home, thanks to the arrangements of Mr. Bernstein of Granada, and the other Jewish rulers of radio and television. There they are, telling him what to think and what to sing about.

JEWISH SHADOW-GOVERNMENT

Every now and again, John Bull is given a special treat. He is allowed to vote for one or other of the Jewish-controlled parties—Tory, Labour or Liberal: Tweedledum or Tweedledee—all of which guarantee to keep Britain a land fit for Hebrews to live in and rule over. These parties always protect from criticism the Jewish minority in our midst because of the financial power it possesses and the extent to which they are dependent on it, and because so many of the leaders of these parties are either Jews themselves, or like Gaiskell or George Brown, married to Jewesses; or are on the Jewish pay-roll; or else are servile admirers of the Star of David.

Democracy is a swindle. Nominally the government of Britain resides at Westminster and Whitehall, but the real deciding force is the power behind the scenes, the power which pulls the strings, the power of the Jewish shadow-government of Britain.

The existence of this shadow government was admitted by Labour leader Harold Wilson on 2nd November, 1960, when he said these words: "The elected representatives of the people are urged to get excited about the levy on horse-meat or an underground car park, but the real decisions are being taken by the Clores, Cottons, Wolfsons and Warburgs."

THE COLOURED INVASION

The result of this Jewish government of Britain is the disregard of real British interests at every turn, including the present, scandalous Coloured Invasion of our country. This Coloured Invasion, which is utterly unnecessary, entirely undesirable, neither in the ultimate interests of the Coloureds nor the Whites, is taking place, contrary to the wish of the overwhelming majority of the British people, because the real rulers of Britain, the Jews, want it. The Jews want it because the breakdown of racial identity and racial pride, the encouragement of a mongrel population, is essential for the long-term security of their overlordship. If Britain's Anglo-Saxon stock remains, there is always the danger of an awakening and revolt against the Jewish government of Britain. If, however, that stock can be undermined, diluted, destroyed, then with it will be destroyed the consciousness of race which brings awareness of the Jew, and holds the danger of a revolt against their domination.

JEWIS ENCOURAGING BLACKS

So it is that the Jews have master-minded the Coloured Invasion of Britain.

The Jews are financing this immigration, making it possible for these people to fly or sail here by advancing them the money through loan companies, thus killing two birds with one stone, getting them here, and getting a fat percentage out of them at the same time.

Jewish firms in particular—look at Lyons cafes for example—are taking on Coloured labour on a big scale, flooding places for them at the expense of White people, knowing that in helping the Coloured Invasion in this way they are moreover getting labour that will accept inferior conditions.

Don't be taken in by the tale that we cannot do without them in order to run our hospitals, trains and buses. This is a favourite propaganda line of the Jews, who talk as though they are similarly indispensable. It so happens that we managed to run our hospitals before Coloured people came here, and could do it again without them, given decent conditions and rates of pay for nurses in a Britain free from Jewish control. Our Jewish-controlled government is bringing these people over here and putting them in these precise occupations not because we cannot manage without them, but because thereby it hopes to familiarise the public with them and to popularise them.

The Jews are at the back of the whole colossal campaign to make the Coloured people acceptable here; a campaign waged daily in the Jewish-controlled press of Fleet Street, and on the Jewish-dominated television and radio, triple instruments of the Jewish power over man's minds. It is the Jews who are using their power over the government to keep Britain's door open to this Coloured Invasion.

TORY IMMIGRATION ACT

Don't be fooled by the Tory Immigration Act. It is an act all right; a piece of window-dressing which makes a show of doing something about it, to disarm public feeling, but in fact does nothing more than offer the possibility of a slight reduction in an influx now amounting to more than 120,000 a year. It is not an example of the failure of Jewish power, but of the subtlety of that power.

The Jewish shadow-government of Britain, in using the Coloured people in this way as a means of consolidating its position, cares nothing for the Coloured people as such. We say to the Coloured people here in this audience this afternoon: "Don't believe the lies of the Jews who exploit you that we National Socialists hate you. What we hate is not you as such, certainly not, but only and precisely your presence in our land at the instigation of the Jews. We believe in a square deal for you in lands of your own, where you can live your own way of life rather than exist as imitation White folk in our land. The Jews want to see the mongrelisation of your race as much as ours. The Jews are your enemies as much as ours. Wake up to that fact, and oppose them!"

THE AFTERMATH OF THE WAR

This Coloured invasion of Britain, so harmful to our nation and destructive of our heritage, has taken place immediately following a terrible war, made necessary, we were told by the Jewish shadow government, to protect our nation and preserve our heritage. This contradiction demands that we examine more closely this most disastrous war in the history of the world, from whose effects we are still suffering.

At the outset we can say this with certainty as a guiding factor. Anywhere, at any time or place, there is a revolt against Jewish domination, a revolt against the kind of shadow government, corruption and decadence which is Democracy in Britain today, the Jews can be relied upon to defame and misrepresent it to the utmost, to howl to high heaven that the liberation of the gentile is the persecution of the Jew, and to use any and every means at their disposal, including war, to crush that revolt.

That is precisely what happened in the case of the revolt in Germany three decades ago. A vanquished nation lay under the yoke of the Jews, experiencing the corruption, poverty, exploitation, racial-pollution, disunity and degradation of the Weimar Democracy. The old parties were impotent and subservient. The Communists were marching in the streets. The scene was set for collapse and ruin.

HITLER SAVES GERMANY

It was then, at the eleventh hour, that the revolt began. Down the streets came the National Socialists fighting for the survival and revival of their race and nation under the leadership of Adolf Hitler. He awakened Germany from slumber, aroused the people from their apathy, fired them with the will to struggle to smash the old system and build Germany anew.

In 1933, with a membership of a million, the National Socialists gained power. The stranglehold of the Jew was broken, and a state dedicated to the protection and betterment of the race, and the unity and welfare of the whole nation, established.

At once the Jews of the world began economic and political warfare against National Socialist Germany. The great Jewish lie machine went to work to manufacture hate propaganda against her, and thereby incite a war to destroy the German revolt against Jewry.

In the six short years of peace allowed it, before the Jewish War of Revenge could be instigated, National Socialist reconstruction went ahead at an unprecedented rate. All the problems which the Democrats had failed to solve or never tried to solve or declared insoluble were tackled successfully. The slums were rebuilt and unemployment eradicated. The peasantry were safeguarded and the youth cared for. The economy was stabilised and the workers given justice and security. The culture of the ghetto was replaced by an Aryan one. While in Britain the hunger-marchers trod the streets and the disabled ex-servicemen lined up to beg in the gutter, in National Socialist Germany the workers went away on the ocean cruises of the Kraft durch Freude project, and returned to a homeland whose giant new highways spanning the country and beautiful new buildings towering high symbolised the upward and outward reach from the dust towards the sun of a force which had put health and strength, honour and duty, courage and vision, higher will and purpose into the life of a people.

JEW'S WORK FOR WAR

But the Jewish lie machine, operating through the press and radio and the spokesmen of the puppet parties, made sure that it was not the constructive achievements of National Socialism that the British people heard about, but a stream of lies, turned out daily in order to incite Britain against Germany.

At the same time the Jewish shadow government of Britain exercised its power over the puppet parties to ensure that all the efforts by Hitler to achieve the friendship of Britain, which he wanted, were spurned, and that instead the puppet politicians involved themselves in hostile commitments such as the guarantee to Poland for its retention of such historic German territory as the 90-per-cent German city of Danzig. Had Britain responded to Hitler's appeals for friendship and unity as a foundation of a new order in Europe, how infinitely more favourable would have been the circumstances of our country during the past twenty years and her situation today. Britain and Germany together would have been invincible. We should not today live under the shadow of the Soviet menace, pushed off the pavements of our own capital by the incoming hordes from Africa, Asia and the West Indies. However, it was the crack of the Jewish whip that Britain responded to, and our dismal condition today is our reward.

BRITAIN FIGHTS FOR JEWRY

On September 3, 1939, the blackest day in British history, the long and intensive Jewish campaign was crowned with success, and the Jews of the world rejoiced. Britain declared war on Germany. As Neville Chamberlain, Prime Minister at the time, confided to the American Ambassador Kennedy, father of the present President, and also to former South African Defence Minister Oswald Pirow, it was because of Jewish pressure. The Jewish shadow government had demonstrated its ability to send Britain to war on behalf of the Jews.

From our vantage point today we can now clearly see that this most tragic of wars was engineered and conducted by Jewry not for any of the avowed ends presented by the Jewish propaganda campaign, such as the defence of Polish freedom or the preservation of the British heritage, but instead for Jewish aims: namely, the restoration of the Jewish domination of Germany, the dissolution of the British Empire, the advancement of Communism, and the promotion of global race mixture as the means of safeguarding Jewish control against any further attack.

We say never again must the young men of Britain be sent to their deaths and our land devastated on behalf of the Jews. No longer must the Jews have the power to incite our people and manoeuvre our country into fighting a European brother nation in order to refasten the Jewish yoke on it. Britain must instead break free herself. We believe that there is only one way to do it. The way it has been done before for the one and only time so far, the way that Germany showed us. The National Socialist way.

HITLER WAS RIGHT

We of the NSM, founded on April 23 of this year, believe that nothing other than the same heroic inspiration, the same ideals of national health and strength that rescued Germany from the depths and raised her to the level of the Third Reich can similarly rescue Britain from decadence and raise her new-born in the future. We have in the twelve points of policy of the National Socialist Movement the only policy which can make Britain great again and put her in the front of the world where she belongs.

The Jews and their minions are now beginning to realise to their horror that National Socialism, which they thought they had destroyed, is alive today and is gathering strength anew. Try as you will you cannot destroy an idea as strong as National Socialism. You can smear it or misrepresent it with all the means at your disposal. You can persecute it. You can ban its books, and songs, and symbols. You can do everything you can, but it will still live on in the minds of men. Our opponents have done everything they can to destroy National Socialism, but the fact that we are here today testifies to their failure. Despite the stinging mark of misrepresentation, more and more people every day, prompted by what Democracy and the opponents of National Socialism are doing to our land, are opening their eyes and coming to say with us: "Hitler was right!"

THE CASE OF MARTIN WEBSTER

Upon my return from prison on March 8th I have had brought to my notice the case of the above-named member, who was suspended and subsequently informed of expulsion from the movement on the orders of the Executive acting in the Leader's and my absence. The grounds given for this suspension are divided into two categories; gross-negligence of responsibility when on duty; and gross misconduct generally.

I have fully investigated this case over a period of three weeks, and have come to the following conclusions regarding these charges:-

Negligence of Duty:- During the period of mid-October to mid-December Webster was placed in a position of considerable responsibility in connection with the administration of Headquarters. It was not a job for which he clamoured, or to which he ever claimed to be suited personally. He was thrust into it in circumstances of acute emergency caused by the imprisonment of four leading officials of the movement. Under conditions often of great difficulty he continued his work up till the time of the release of Messrs. Kerr-Ritchie and Pirie two months later.

In this work he made a number of mistakes, the nature of which indicated that the job in question was not the one to which his undoubted abilities were best suited. At the same time he was responsible for doing a number of good things, notably a very creditable performance in speaking to a crowd of hostile students at Cambridge, which went unacknowledged.

Under these circumstances I have found that the Executive acted correctly in concluding his responsibilities in the sphere of office and general Headquarters administration.

Misconduct:- In examining this latter charge I have not found things easy, and have had to bear constantly in mind the possibility of reports being based upon personal antagonisms motivated by many other considerations than those concerned with the general welfare of the movement. Without necessarily expressing TOTAL disbelief in all these allegations, I have come to believe that in most cases they have been widely exaggerated, and in any event need not, in the context of the past few months, have been levelled solely against the member in question.

I believe that this charge, beginning perhaps from a fair observance of certain personal faults (from which few of us are completely immune), has been extended into a vicious campaign against Webster, aimed at making him a scapegoat for everything undesirable that has happened in the movement over the recent period. This campaign has conveniently ignored the good and positive service rendered by the member under attack - which I believe must be counterbalanced alongside such errors as he may have made.

In consideration of these facts I have come to believe that Webster's suspension from the movement was not justified - as is also the case with his total expulsion, made subsequently in error with regard to the extent of powers conferred upon the Executive in the absence of the Leader. These latter powers did not include that of expulsion - except in cases of acknowledged treason, where no doubt of guilt was in question.

As a consequence I have instructed the re-instatement of Martin Webster as a member of the National Socialist Movement in a working capacity better fitted to his abilities, and which should not bring about a recurrence of the trouble recently caused.

This decision is final until such time that the Leader, upon his return, may see fit to reconsider it. I ask in making it that every responsible officer in the movement will, even in any possible event of disagreement, abide by it in service to the basic principles of National Socialism, and out of consideration for our task of approaching as a united and harmonious body the tasks of reconstruction facing the movement following the recent period of crisis.

WHISPER CAMPAIGN

Arising out of this affair, and due in no sense to the member concerned, a rather pathetic attempt at dividing and undermining the morale of the movement has been made in a certain quarter. This attempt may take the form of misleading letters sent to prominent members or statements contained in the press. They are intended to convey the impression that the small clique that has pursued the damnation of Webster is in fact a large body of responsible opinion in the movement, which is now rebelling against the leadership on the grounds of widespread dissatisfaction as to policy.

Such statements are ludicrously untrue, and reflect the opinions of no more than two or three people who have, for the time being, placed themselves outside the sphere of responsibility for which the movement is concerned.

As a current circular will show, the movement is making excellent progress back towards a condition of normality - due to the admirable co-operation that has been shown by all members who have worked here at Headquarters over the past weeks. This will continue, and soon prove conclusively the falsehood of the stupid reports concerned.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST MOVEMENT

Instructions for Action

These instructions are addressed to provincially-situated members of the National Socialist Movement, living in areas where no official unit of the movement yet exists. They relate to the manner of active work in which the member should partake for the brief period in which he (or she) may be alone - prior to the formation of local groups.

Leaflets and wall-stickers: These will be posted regularly to each member not as yet participant in a collective group. They should be distributed in the area concerned in those places where they are liable to have the best effect. It is to the discretion of the member to decide this, but it must be emphasised that the National Socialist Movement cannot admit legal responsibility as an organisation for the defacement of property where such items are forbidden.

The stickers are partly gummed at the back, and can be suitably affixed to objects merely by being moistened; and partly ungummed, in which case the most suitable method of sticking is to use some form of paste, such as Poly-cel mixed with water.

Because of limited stocks the leaflets and stickers will be issued in quantities considerably lower than the member could easily handle, and so all members are instructed to use them sparingly and distribute them carefully. As collective groups form greater quantities will be available.

Slogan-Painting: Short slogans, painted on walls, have great value in bringing the movement and its aims into the public eye. Again it must be emphasised that our organisation cannot be held responsible as such for slogans painted on forbidden property.

Letters to Press (local): Members who have any ability at letter-writing should weekly address one letter to their local newspaper(s), putting the point of view of the movement on certain issues.

AREA UNITS:- It is of course our intention everywhere to build active units, and each lone member must think of him or herself as being the beginning of such a unit. At least once every week some time should be set aside during which one, or all, of the above activities are partaken in. Consistent work must in time stimulate interest in each area, and as recruitment occurs all members will be put in touch with others who live locally, work then being possible on a team scale. When sufficient basis exists in an area for a group to be formed a representative of National H.Q. will then visit the area and meet members in order to appoint leaders and organise further activity.

Regularly members will be supplied by post with quantities of propaganda and replenished as supplies run out.

N.S.M. Brochure - "Britain Reborn"

Small quantities of these are issued to members regularly, and should only be handed out to people who show definite interest in National Socialism.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The World Union of National Socialists was founded in 1962 as a result of an international gathering near Winchcomb in the Cotswold Hills in England, from which location its provisional constitution, entitled "The Cotswold Agreements", gets its name. Summarized, its purpose, as detailed in this constitution, is to unite National Socialist organisations everywhere in a militant, disciplined world movement, under the banner of the swastika and the spiritual leadership of Adolf Hitler, to protect and promote the Aryan Race and its civilisation. The international Commander now (by amendment) is Lincoln Rockwell, Commander of the American Nazi Party, and the International Headquarters are situated in the U.S.A. Administration is divided between a Western Hemisphere Command in the U.S.A. and an Eastern Hemisphere Command in Britain. The World Union, which accepts only one organisation for each country, now has member-organisations in many countries.

For individual National Socialists in those other countries where, as yet, there is no member-organisation of W.U.N.S., a system of Associate Membership has now been established.

In the Eastern Hemisphere Command (covering Europe, Africa, Australasia, but excluding Asia which is attached to the Western Hemisphere Command), Associate Membership of W.U.N.S. is granted by that Command to Aryans 18 years of age upwards who accept the purpose and the authority of W.U.N.S., and who pay a subscription of £3-10-0d a year (or £1-15-0d a half-year). Associate Members in this Command receive, free of charge, periodic bulletins, and also the "National Socialist" magazine which appears approximately quarterly. When a member-organisation emerges, Associate Members in that country will be required to join and support it, and their Associate Membership will be terminated on the expiration of their current subscription.

To become an Associate Member of W.U.N.S., complete the below form and send it with your initial subscription to:- W.U.N.S., 74 Princedale Road, London W.11, England. Subscriptions (at the correct equivalent of the English amount) may be sent either by paper money, or by international money order made payable to "W.U.N.S." and crossed for payment through a bank.

By

TIME out of mind our remote Aryan ancestors came to this island, mixing their blood with its soil, and making it their homeland. Immigration, until comparatively recently, whether by war or in peace, has been that of different branches of the Aryans, absorbed satisfactorily into our blood-stream and community.

Since the Second World War, a mass immigration from all the Coloured countries of the Commonwealth has been allowed to take place.

By 1962 the influx had become so enormous and public feeling so strong against it that the contemporary Conservative government was obliged to make some show of dealing with the problem, and this it did by passing the Commonwealth Immigrants Act. It was successful as a piece of window-dressing in that it deluded a large section of the public into believing that a radical restriction had been imposed. In reality, since the Act allowed for the entry of persons with means, or a job waiting, or particular skill; dependants of those already here; and a huge quota of others besides; the restriction was so slight that, between it coming into force in July, 1962, and the end of 1964, approximately a further 150,000 (according to government figures) entered Britain, bringing the total of Coloured immigrants to the region of a million.

The presence of this Coloured million in our midst is a menace to our nation for the following reasons:

HOUSING SHORTAGE

Ever since the war Britain has had a tremendous housing shortage, which has been enormously aggravated by the influx of the Coloured million, taking up accommodation that Britons desperately need and otherwise could have.

In London alone there are 180,000 people on council housing lists, waiting for accommodation, according to the official Milner Holland report on the shortage in the capital, published in March, 1965. There are 7,000 entirely homeless people living in local council welfare accommodation.

Britain's housing problem would be largely solved, if Coloured immigration was stopped and the million already here sent back. Unless this is done the problem will continue indefinitely, with new immigrants arriving as fast as houses are built.

White Tenants Terrorised

In their efforts to evict White tenants, so that they can replace them with Coloured people, Coloured landlords and tenants resort to every kind of nuisance and intimidation.

Deliberate, continual noise at all hours, systematic insults, threats of violence and actual assaults, calculated humiliation and obscenities, are among the methods employed.

Among the mass of evidence that has been put before us by White victims of these methods, we have for instance photographs showing human excreta deposited by Blacks outside the door of a White woman's flat in London as part of their campaign to try and get rid of her.

According to the secretary of the London & Counties' Tenants Federation, Mrs. Joy Page, Coloured landlords are even employing jungle-type witchcraft. At one flat in Fulham a Nigerian landlord hung a shrunken head inside the front-door, and burned blood-splashed heads and chicken feathers in a flower-pot on the stairs. (Sun, 3/2/65)

In London White victims, receiving no satisfactory assistance from the authorities, have often turned to the National Socialist Movement for help, and often a visit by members to the Blacks concerned has proved an effective deterrent. The real solution, however, for this semi-savagery is to evict the semi-savages from our land.

NEW SLUMS CREATED

Wherever Coloured immigrants settle, they automatically create new slums.

They habitually overcrowd houses to an extent entirely incompatible with civilised standards. In Birmingham, officially estimated to have 70,000 Coloured immigrants, the city's Medical Officer of Health, Dr. E. M. L. Miller, said in his report for 1963 that 98% of all proceedings taken for contravention of legislation governing houses in multiple occupation have been taken against Indians and Pakistanis. (Daily Telegraph, 13/1/65)

BRITAIN Black or White?

They lack understanding of sanitation. The houses themselves are filthy. Back-yards and gardens are the depository for anything and everything, much of it simply thrown out of the window. In the countries from which they come they use the garden as a lavatory, and many of them continue to do the same here, regardless of indoor toilets.

Britons suffer a severe slump in the value of their houses in all neighbourhoods where Coloured immigrants settle.

DISEASE

Coloured immigration has brought a huge increase in disease to Britain, menacing the health of the British people.

Dr. John Lamb, secretary of the South Warwickshire Division of the British Medical Association, in a speech at the New Gladstone Dinner Club in Leamington, stated that immigrants had brought in or had revived many diseases including tuberculosis, syphilis, gonorrhoea, hookworm and trachoma. (Leamington Spa Courier, 16/4/65).

Tuberculosis

In Smethwick over 50% of the new cases of tuberculosis in 1963 were immigrants. (Medical News, Dr. D. Carrick, 5/2/65)

In Birmingham, according to Dr. V. H. Springett, physician to the city's Chest Clinic, the rate of tuberculosis among Pakistanis is at least 20 times that of the native

White population, and the cost of treating Asian immigrants is more than £60,000 a year. (Lancet, 18/5/64).

In Bradford the Medical Officer of Health, Dr. J. Douglas, stated in his annual report:—"An upward trend in the incidence of the disease is noticeable since 1960, and is attributable almost entirely to the discovery of increasing numbers of cases in immigrants as Bradford's immigrant population has grown."—(Times 20/1/65).

The same Times report stated:—"There is now a fear among some workers in the field that some immigrants entering the country are not only infectious, but are infectious with germs already resistant to one or more of the drugs normally used in treatment. The workers add that the spread of such germs would be a blow at efforts at control."

Venereal Disease

The Daily Telegraph (8/3/64) reported that a survey of 150 out of the 220 V.D. clinics in Britain showed that 53% of all male patients were immigrants.

In respect of gonorrhoea, an estimate in the British Journal of Venereal Diseases (1963, Vol. 39, pp. 214-224. H. R. Willcox) put the rate for West Indians at nearly 20 times that of the native Whites.

In respect of syphilis, an analysis in the Times (20/1/65) of the 1963 figures from 178 clinics in England and Wales showed that 37% of the male cases and 41% of the female were immigrants.

Leprosy

Extinct in Britain since the Middle Ages, 246 cases of leprosy were officially reported in 1962, thanks to Coloured immigration.

BURDEN ON TAXPAYER

The British people are being heavily taxed to pay for all the social services of the "Wellfare State" enjoyed and exploited by the coloured million in our midst, whose taxational contribution is small compared with the public expenditure on them.

National Health Service

This cost the taxpayer £1,047m. in 1963. A substantial part of it went on treatment and care for immigrants.

A doctor was quoted in the Times (20/1/65) as commenting:—"The best investment a Pakistani with T.B. can make is a one-way ticket to England. He will be admitted to hospital and get three to four months there at £25 - £30 a week, — the normal cost of a bed — and treatment afterwards at a weekly cost of 10s. to £1. He will then be on assistance for some weeks before he goes back to work. It all adds up to something in the region of £500.

The British taxpayer is not only having to pay medical costs for the present Coloured population. Their birth rate is far in excess of ours, and we are subsidising them to produce more and more children, who in turn will cost us more and more, and help to outbreed our own people in our own land. We are in fact paying for racial suicide.

"Last year 20,000 West Indians in Birmingham fathered more children than 250,000 whites (430 to 424)." — (News of the World 10/12/62).

The current report of Wolverhampton's medical officer of health shows that in 1961 the town's Coloured population had a birth rate 8 times as big as that of the White population. (Daily Telegraph, 19/4/63).

At Smethwick, of the 1,355 women who had babies in 1963, 60% had them in hospital. "But, according to a member of the Smethwick Health Committee, the majority of these hospital beds went to coloured women, although only six in every hundred of the borough's population are coloured." (People 1/11/64).

This preferential allocation of hospital beds to coloured women is due to the filthy conditions in Coloured homes, and is typical of Coloured areas throughout the country.

A Wolverhampton gynaecologist told the People (1/11/64):—"The bad living conditions in coloured homes in this town create a terrific problem for us in Wolverhampton and Bilston. Midwives cannot be expected to deliver babies in filth and squalor."

In the same paper, the secretary of the Princess Royal Maternity Hospital at Huddersfield was quoted as saying:—"The large number of coloured women having babies is affecting the availability of beds. More white women are having to have their children at home."

Nurseries and Schools

After they have had their babies galore, there is the cost of nurseries and education for them.

"In one London County Council nursery in Islington there are 40 coloured children and 27 white. The matron of such a nursery explained: 'The trouble is that so many West Indian mothers are not married — at least not legally — and as they claim they need to go to work their children qualify for a place here. None of them pays a penny, even though 15s. per week per child is the most anyone has to give. I have a couple of West Indian women who turn up each year with a new child yet claim they have no husband.'" (People 1/11/64).

In the immigrant areas more and more Coloured pupils are entering the schools, and, by their backwardness, retarding the education of our own children. In West Bromwich, for example, the Deputy Director of Education has estimated that by 1968 one-fifth of the pupils at secondary modern schools there will be Coloured. (Daily Telegraph, 16/11/64).

National Assistance

As the queues at the Labour Exchanges and N.A.B. offices in every immigrant area show, a huge sum is going to Coloured people every week in public assistance.

In this and other ways a large proportion of the Coloured immigrants are taking a ride on the White man's back, and thinking him the fool he is for allowing them to do so.

A social worker in Birmingham, interviewed by the Times (23/1/65) estimated that one notorious Asian must have cost voluntary organisations and the state at least £12,000 over the years in national assistance, the expense of keeping the children he has produced in voluntary homes, and in other ways.

VICE

With the Coloured immigrants has come the drug Indian Hemp. Virtually unknown in Britain before Coloured immigration, Coloured people are almost entirely responsible for introducing it and spreading addiction among our own youth.

Prostitution is widespread in every immigrant area. White girls are enticed into becoming prostitutes and then intimidated into remaining so by Coloured men who live off them.

CRIME

The Cambridge Institute of Criminology, in a recent analysis of crimes of violence in England and Wales during the past ten years stated:—

"It is quite clear that the proportion of immigrants who are convicted of crimes of violence is far greater than that found in the indigenous population. They committed 33% of the attacks on the police and just over 20% of the public fights."

THREAT TO EMPLOYMENT

Mass Coloured immigration, creating a vast cheap labour pool, represents a growing menace to the employment, the wages and the working standards and conditions of British workers, accentuated by the advance of automation.

The attempt is commonly made to justify Coloured immigration on the grounds that Coloured labour has become indispensable in certain occupations. The fallacy of this argument was indicated by the Daily Telegraph (11/3/65) in the following extract from its editorial:

"It has been said repeatedly that our transport, hospitals, and other services would break down without immigrant labour. But the cost to central and local government of providing the extra housing, schooling, health services, welfare and other facilities necessitated by the influx must be set against the advantages derived. When these data are assembled, it may transpire that the nation's economic interests might have been better served by the introduction of labour-saving devices accompanied by higher wages in the branches which have become the main users, or in some cases importers, of immigrant labour."

BLOOD TRANSFUSION

Did you know that the blood of Coloured people is being systematically injected into the veins of Britons? Did you realise that, if you have a blood transfusion tomorrow, you are liable, without your knowledge or wish, to be given the blood of a Negro or an Indian?

The National Blood Transfusion Service, in a written answer to an enquiry of ours, has confirmed that "blood donations given by Negroes and other coloured people in Great Britain are not in any way kept separate from or distinguished from the blood obtained from white people. As I think you may be aware individual blood donations are given in bottles and these are distributed to the hospitals for use in the treatment of their patients without any distinction as to either the donor or the patient in so far as colour is concerned."

Besides the powerful psychological objections to this practice, there are grave medical objections also. It is untrue that, because there are substantial common factors, the blood of Coloured people is therefore identical with and thoroughly compatible with the blood of our own people. Blood analysis and classification is still a new study, and, after an initial over-emphasis on similarities, research is now pointing more and more to important racial differences.

Racial Differences in Blood

Dr. John Scudder a prominent authority on blood classification, in an article on the subject in Mankind Quarterly (October, 1960) says: "Blood antigens, known and unknown, may sensitize the patient, and, under special circumstances cause both serious transfusion reactions and complications in succeeding pregnancies. These antigens can no longer be overlooked; many can now be identified with available potent testing sera; other antigens exist but testing sera of standard acidity are either in short supply, or unavailable."

"Geneticists recognize the distribution and frequency of these blood group antigens to vary both in ethnic and in racial groups. In a population of diverse ethnic origin, the probability of sensitization either by gestation or blood transfusion is increased."

"It appears that the farther removed in time men are from a common ancestor, the greater will be the likelihood of difference in the pattern of antigenic factors within their blood group systems. Conversely, it may be assumed that the more closely related individuals are one to another, the less likely are their antigenic patterns to differ."

He concludes that, in transfusion, blood should not come from a person of another race.

RACIAL MIXTURE

Finally, we come to the greatest harm of all, because it is the most fundamental, permanent and far-reaching in its consequences, and that is interbreeding between our own people and the Coloured immigrants. It is happening on an increasing scale already. If Coloured immigration continues, or even if it is stopped but the present million are allowed to stay here, interbreeding, with the Coloured birth rate vastly higher than our own, will continue and grow until eventually the White man is outbred in his own homeland.

We present here some facts to show the biological inferiority of the Coloured immigrant and therefore the human decline interbreeding means for our nation.

Negro Brain Inferior

The anatomist, Franklin P. Mall (American Journal of Anatomy, 1909, Vol. 9; pp. 1-32), showed that the average brain weight of the Negro is about 100 grams less than that of the ordinary White man; and the renowned British anthropologist, Sir Arthur Keith (A New Theory of Human Evolution), showed that with respect to cranial capacity as an index of brain volume, the measurement among Africans is about 100 c.c. less than among Europeans.

It is generally recognised that the frontal lobes of the brain are the centres of higher intelligence.

The anatomist, Robert Bennett Bean (American Journal of Anatomy, 1908, Vol. 5; pp. 253-432), reported that the association centres and the whole frontal lobes are smaller on the average in the Negro than in the White man, and reached the conclusion that the anatomical evidence suggests that: "the Negro has the lower mental faculties (smell, sight, handicraftsmanship, body sense) well developed; the Caucasian (the White man) the higher (self-control, will power, ethical and aesthetic senses and reason)."

Numerous authorities have distinguished the higher associative and receptive character of the supragranular layers of the brain.

F. W. Vint of the Medical Research Laboratory in Kenya (Journal of Anatomy, 1934, Vol. 68; pp. 216-223) showed that there is a 14% reduction in the thickness of the supragranular layer of the cortex in the case of Negroes compared with Europeans.

Summarising the resulting inferiority of Negroes, Prof. J. Millot, one of France's leading anthropologists, says in Biologie des Races Humaines (Librairie Armand Colin, Paris, 1952):-

"The deficiency of the Black appears principally in logical reasoning, in judgement or the capacity to define and analyze with precision, in adaption to new situations and in the capacity for abstraction. This inferiority seems to result in large part from a precocious arresting of cerebral development."

Tests Show Inferiority

Proof of this inferiority is given by intelligence tests.

The Testing of Negro Intelligence (Holborn Publishing Company, London, 1958) is an imposing research regarding the American Negro by Audrey M. Shuey, Chairman of the Department of Psychology of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, U.S.A. In it the authoress makes the following concluding statement:-

"The remarkable consistency in test results, whether they pertain to school or pre-school children, to high school or college students, to drafts of World War I or World War II, to the gifted or the mentally deficient, to the delinquent or criminal; the fact that the coloured-white differences are present not only in the rural South and urban South, but in the border and northern areas; the fact that relatively small average differences are found between the IQ's of northern-born and southern-born Negro children in northern cities; the evidence that the tested differences appear to be greater for abstract than for practical or concrete problems; the evidence that the differences obtained are not due primarily to a lack of language skills, the coloured averaging no better on non-verbal tests than on verbal tests; the fact that differences are reported in all studies in which the cultural environment of the white appeared to be no more complex, rich, or stimulating than the environment of the Negroes; the fact that in many comparisons (including those in which the coloured appeared to best advantage) the Negro subjects have been either more representative of their racial group or more highly selected than have the comparable white subjects; all point to the presence of some native differences between Negroes and Whites as determined by intelligence tests."

Beyond this it may be remarked that through all recorded time the Negro, left to himself, never invented the wheel, the sail, the plough, or a system of writing.

Indian Inferiority

The population of India varies racially through a caste system from the highest (Brahman) which contains a proportion of White blood from an ancient invading White people who became a ruling aristocracy, down to the lowest, negritud, aboriginal elements.

Pitirim Sorokin in Contemporary Sociological Theories (Harper Bros. New York) shows mental tests given to the Brahman (high) and the Panchama (lowest) castes reveal the latter children to be considerably lower than the former. The lowest caste children show a decrease in the speed of their performance after the age of twelve. At that age their mental growth stops while that of the Brahman children continues. The brain of the Brahman child is larger than that of the lowest caste child.

It is principally the lower racial elements of India who are pouring into Britain.

Hereditary Disease of Negroes

Apart from the mental deterioration of our nation, and consequent decline in its prosperity, which will result from interbreeding with comparatively primitive Coloured immigrants, there are also physical defects involved. One of these is sickle cell anaemia.

The American Illustrated Medical Dictionary defines sickle cell anaemia thus:—

"A disease marked by anaemia and ulcers and characterized by the red blood cells of the patient acquiring a sickle-like or crescentic shape in vitro. The disease seems confined to the Negro race and it is hereditary."

Dr. M. A. Ogden, a leading American authority on the disease, THE PROBLEM GROWS

The politicians of democracy, traitors to our race and nation, have created this monstrous problem in our land by their admission of a million Coloured people.

In the countries from which these immigrants come the birth rate is soaring wildly. In the West Indies the population is expected to double itself in a couple of decades. In India it is expanding by 8 million a year. Immigration to Britain is seen as the remedy for this overpopulation. More and more will be wanting to come here.

The democratic politicians can be relied upon to let them come. At present, frightened by the volume of public discontent reflected in the Smethwick and Leyton elections, they are again making a show of dealing with the problem, in order to lull the public into complacency. All they are really concerned to do, however, is to enforce the 1962 Act more efficiently, preventing evasions, and to make immigration smoother and more acceptable to the public.

Both the Conservative Party and the Labour Party are avowedly determined to allow Coloured immigration to continue, and to "integrate" the immigrants, regardless of the fact that the majority of the people are against this. They differ only in methods and speed, not in their ultimate objective, which is the same: a multi-racial Britain.

At the present rate of immigration, and with the birth rate among the immigrants vastly higher than our own, there are likely to be 8,000,000 Coloured people in Britain by the end of this century. Thereafter, darkness will descend rapidly on our land and people.

THE ONLY SOLUTION

There is only one policy which can save Britain, and that is to stop all Coloured immigration and, in humane fashion and with every reasonable assistance, to deport all the immigrants already here. It can be done and it must be done and only the National Socialist Movement will do it.

In order to do it — to gain power and legislate to this effect — we must have the wholehearted support of every single Briton who believes in our cause. We need keen, healthy young men of spirit as active front-line fighters. We need other and older men to serve in other capacities. We need girls and women for suitable tasks. We need money, desperately, in order to continue and to expand our activities; to obtain equipment and transport; to increase our publications; and other vital requirements.

We have shown our determination and ability as a fighting force against the Coloured invasion. Our fight is your fight. Now give us your help in every way you can.

IS THIS JUSTICE ?

THE CASE OF COLIN JORDAN

We ask every fair-minded person, whatever his political beliefs, to consider the Case of Colin Jordan, now imprisoned, under the Race Relations Act, for expressing his beliefs.

The New Law

This new law came into force in December, 1965. Its Section 6 penalises literature which is insulting to a racial group in Britain, and likely and intended to cause hatred of that group. This Section constitutes a unique and partisan curtailment of free speech.

Its terms are highly elastic. What is to be considered an "insult"? Is it to embrace virtually anything and everything which is distinctly critical, however true? Is it then to be held, secondly, that anything of this nature, considered an "insult", is likely because of this to cause dislike and this to amount to hatred? Thirdly, is it to be held that anyone who utters criticism deemed insulting, and which in consequence is likely to cause hatred, can be presumed to intend this natural consequence, and thus to have the intention of causing racial hatred? The terms of Section 6 are capable of this width of interpretation.

This suppression of political criticism, contrary to our professedly cherished traditions of free speech, is peculiar to racial matters, and patently intended and so far applied in favour of immigrant elements.

All other forms of political criticism are allowed. The Communists can insult and cause hatred of the Conservatives. The Conservatives can insult and cause hatred of the Labourites. All of them can insult and cause hatred of the politics and persons of Nationalists such as Colin Jordan. But such as he are not to be allowed to criticise the massive Coloured immigration into Britain, which, throughout our history our ancestors would have considered it not only their right but their duty to criticise.

His arrest - an unlawful search

On the 15th November, 1966, Colin Jordan was arrested by warrant at his home in Coventry in respect of subsequent charges of conspiring to contravene Section 6 of the Race Relations Act by the distribution of literature.

The police officer in charge of the arrest (Detective Inspector H.M. Sullivan of Plymouth City Police), insisted on conducting a general search of the house at Coventry without a search warrant, and, later that day, of Jordan's political premises in London also; and seized, mostly in 1966 and without any individual scrutiny, a very large quantity of paper and other items. The indiscriminate nature of the search is indicated by the fact that among items taken were Jordan's marriage certificate and his dog's pedigree form. Three weeks later, some 600 items, being the greater part of the papers etc., were returned by the police as irrelevant and no longer required.

It is evident that the only (and hence improper) reason for arresting Jordan instead of summoning him was to enable this search and seizure without a search warrant; a practice which nullifies the principle of a search warrant as a protection of civil liberty in defiance of great legal decisions of the past, and can thus be held to be unlawful.

After appearing at Plymouth Magistrates Court the next morning (16th November, 1966), and remanded on bail, Jordan drew the attention of the court to the search and seizure, but was curiously told that the court had no powers to intervene.

At the committal proceedings at Plymouth Magistrates Court on 8th - 9th December, Jordan again protested at the search and seizure, and asked the court to rule inadmissible as evidence membership records obtained in consequence, and being the remaining part of the property thus obtained, but the court passed over this.

His Trial - conviction by prejudice

The trial took place at Exeter Assizes from 23rd - 25th January, 1967.

The literature which was held against Jordan as an infringement of the Act resolved down into three items: (1) a leaflet plainly stating facts against Coloured immigration, and calling for parliamentary action to deal with the problem; (2) a small cartoon label depicting Jewish financial power; and (3) a pamphlet entitled "The Coloured Invasion", almost all of which consisted of verbatim factual extracts from daily newspapers, journals, and academic books, and which, like the leaflet, directed people to seek a solution of the problem by parliamentary action. As Jordan stated in his defence, (if it is not a crime for daily newspapers to publish facts unfavourable to Coloured immigration, why should it be a crime for him to quote those newspapers? The prosecution bluntly contended that even to say "Stop Coloured Immigration!" amounted to a racial insult within the terms of the Act.

The prosecution substantially relied on incriminating Jordan by reference to the activities of a Peter Pollard, jointly charged, despite the fact that Pollard, in a letter which Jordan put in as evidence, completely admitted that he had only joined Jordan's organisation, and indulged in activities of his own in Plymouth (including defacement of a Synagogue in defiance of the rules of Jordan's organisation prohibiting such vandalism), in order to catch the attention of the authorities, and thereby secure his discharge from the Royal Navy; and that he had told lies to the police for this purpose regarding his association with Jordan.

The judge, on the afternoon of the 29th January, gave a reasonably fair summing-up to the jury, and concluded by saying that the next morning he would just give a little guidance on the law before they retired.

The following morning, however, he thrust on the jury, immediately before they retired, a highly prejudicial conclusion indicating that Jordan was guilty. This was particularly based on his unjustified interpretation of Jordan's intentions from an old out-of-print publication. Jordan's solid recent evidence to the contrary, and Pollard's confession were pushed aside.

On this the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Jordan was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment: nearly the maximum of 2 years allowed by the new Act - in the first conviction under its Section 6. (Pollard, having well served the authorities, was let off with probation). Such is the price of free speech in the Britain of 1967 for the man who, in so many words, says Britain belongs to the British.

Appeal Prevented

On entering Exeter Prison, Jordan immediately lodged notice of appeal, and petitioned twice successively through prison channels for transfer to a prison within reasonable reach of the persons he needed to see, on appeal visits which an appellant is entitled to, in order to prepare his appeal. This was refused him, and he was deliberately kept at Exeter out of reach, and thus virtually denied appeal visits, and heavily handicapped thereby.

On Good Friday he was notified that he had been refused permission to appeal to the Court of Appeal, although his grounds of appeal included a point of law for which there is supposed to be a right of appeal.

Jordan continues to be kept at Exeter Prison despite representations on the grounds that his mother, at the age of 81, has to travel from Coventry, if she is to visit him; and he has been prevented from writing to the Lord Chancellor, the Attorney-General, and to bodies such as "Amnesty International" and "Justice" regarding his case.

One Sided Justice

While Colin Jordan has been acted against in this way, the Department of Public Prosecutions has refrained from and refused action against Coloured persons insulting Whites, thus demonstrating the one-sided justice intended by this repressive new law.

In December, 1966, Colin Jordan sent a specific complaint to the Department, requesting action under Section 6 of the Act, against the 15th issue of a queer periodical calling itself the "International Times", containing an article by a Coloured man outrageously insulting to White people, but this was refused. Every Sunday Coloured speakers at London's Hyde Park Corner continue unchecked, in the presence of the police, to insult White people in the grossest terms.

Test Case for Political Liberty

The Case of Colin Jordan is a test case for political liberty in this country. However much you may disagree with his beliefs, surely, if real political liberty is to remain, and not be reduced simply to a matter of free speech as long as you say what is agreeable to the dominant and orthodox parties, it is wrong for him to be so harshly punished for his beliefs, which he sincerely holds and openly and valiantly expresses. His punishment savours too much of an act of revenge by those unwilling to meet his arguments in fair controversy.

Sympathy and indignation is continually aroused for political persecution abroad. Here we ask you to consider a political prisoner in our own country, and to show your genuine and impartial concern for British political liberty by urging a favourable review of the Case of Colin Jordan by the Home Secretary, and at least a substantial reduction in his sentence.

WHY THE SWASTIKA?

For years, right wing Conservative groups have been working in a miserable attempt to save our Nation from Communism and International Finance. These efforts have achieved NOTHING. We discovered that thousands of Australians already know what is going on, but they are AFRAID to admit what they know and who is behind it. The enemies of Australia have made it dangerous and expensive to be a strong Patriot. They have made it impossible to say one word about the RACIAL JEWS who are pushing Communism, Capitalism and Race-mixing. If you dare to tell the truth or even ask about it, you risk losing your job and face ostracism even by your fellow anti-Communists who don't want to lose their jobs, which they will unless they curse you and drive you out to appease the Jews. It is impossible to induce men to fight a dangerous fight by leaders who stay only in the rear. People follow and FIGHT for a leader who gets out in front and leads a dangerous ATTACK! We have found that many of our people are sound ASLEEP and need to be SHOCKED awake. They simply pay no attention to "Conservative" facts and arguments. They are too busy with their T.V., horse-racing and beer-drinking. In addition, the enemy controls the T.V., papers, movies, etc., and sees to it that "Conservatives" and other "nice" fighters never reach the people with their facts and arguments.

At one bold stroke, the Swastika completely SMASHES all these obstacles to the victory of White Christian Australians! The Swastika is SO anti-Jewish that our survival and success with it emboldens scared thousands of Australians to come out from under the bed just a little, and eventually they will become brave enough to tell the WHOLE TRUTH ABOUT THE JEWS BEHIND CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM.

Our iron nerve in DARING TO FACE the enemy with the Swastika brings us the support of brave and fanatical YOUNG MEN instead of the eternal OLD FOLKS in the other right wing groups. The Swastika is the ideal symbol to lead YOUNG men into COMBAT for their White Race and Nation. The Swastika SHOCKS Australians into attention to what we are saying and doing as nothing else will. The masses of people in this country listen to us only because we are INTERESTING AND SHOCKING. They come to see the fight or to see us killed, but they stay to LISTEN and LEARN! It WORKS!!!

The "Managers" of the news and press can hide "Conservatives" and other "nice" fighters with their private meetings from the people. BUT THEY CAN'T HIDE FIGHTING NATIONAL SOCIALISTS MARCHING AND SPEAKING IN THE STREETS UNDER THE SWASTIKA BANNER OF THE WHITE RACE!!!

Without any real money or help we have bashed our way from obscurity to world wide prominence only because we have DARED to defy the Jewish Communists and International money lenders with what they hate most: THE SWASTIKA! There is nothing like DEMONSTRATIONS to convince people. They won't believe you when they tell you about the Jews and their Capitalist and Communist Race-mixing. But when they see, with their own eyes, how these supposed "lovers of free speech", "civil liberties" and "brotherhood" try to murder and imprison National Socialists, while they spend millions supporting Communists and their front organisations, you don't have to tell them what's going on, THEY SEE IT!!!

Finally, as a matter of actual fact, the Swastika has been for thousands of years, the very symbol of the White Race, just as the Star of David is the symbol of the Jewish Race. Do you think for a moment the Jews would permit us Gentiles to get them to hate and curse the Star of David just because we told a whole pack of lies about them? NEVER! The Cross is a symbol of our Faith. The Southern Cross is the symbol of our great Australian Nation—but, without the Swastika we would have no symbol for our RACE! The Cross of Christ was once the most hated and dangerous symbol in the world, but the early Christians did not run away from it. They stood and DIED for it when necessary. It is about time for the White Man to quit letting the Jews and Reds terrorize him into attacking it. Under the holy symbols of our Faith, our Nation and our Race, the National Socialist Party of Australia will lead our people to complete and smashing VICTORY over the traitors that plague our Homeland and Civilisation!

FREE BRUNO LÜDTKE

Bruno Lüdtke, a Frankfurt writer, was arrested and thrown into prison almost a year ago by West German secret police.

His crime? He was an idealistic and avowed National Socialist.

For nearly six months he was held incommunicado without charges or trial. He was allowed no contact with his courageous wife and four charming little daughters.

The purpose of the Bonn government was obvious: to break the faith and spirit of this one man by indefinite imprisonment under the most horrible conditions.

When Lüdtke failed to "crack" after deliberate starvation and maltreatment, this mentally normal and highly intelligent anti-Communist was transferred to an asylum for several months, where further attempts were made to degrade and break him---all on the pretext of "observation".

Following his temporary release, Lüdtke found himself unable to obtain work or keep an apartment for himself and his family, due to the constant harassment of Bonn officials.

Lüdtke was offered his freedom if he remained silent. But he chose to express his beliefs.

Now the doors of oppression and persecution have once more swung shut on Bruno Lüdtke.

We call on all patriotic Americans to protest this shameless injustice by the cowardly Bonn regime.

Demand the immediate release of Bruno Lüdtke!

- II./Les démocraties, avec leur mythe de l'"Egalité", ont anéanti ou dégradé ce qu'il y avait de meilleur dans nos Peuples; nous considérons que notre régénération n'est possible que par la promotion au sein de nos pays des éléments raciaux en fonction de leur valeur, leur dynamisme et leur pureté; qu'une révolution sociale et morale n'est faisable que par la couche sociale-raciale la plus consciente de ses droits lésés et la plus touchée par le régime en place: le Proletariat, la Classe Ouvrière... -----
- III./Nous considérons qu'il n'existe pas de "nation" française; il existe une Bretagne, une Flandre, une Alsace-Lorraine, une Provence, une Auvergne, une Corse différant toutes par la race ou l'ethnie, le dialecte ou la langue, la coutume, le folklore et la psychologie; la "France", dans le sens intégral et naturel du mot (ou "Franconie Occidentale") s'étend de la Somme au Loiret et de la Mayenne aux Vosges; cette étendue constituait l'ancien espace des "Francs" et autres tribus celto-germaniques, qui, avec le berceau de l'Ile-de-France, forma le noyau de la France ultérieure... -----
- IV./Une nation et la réunion en communauté organisée des divers éléments d'une race ou d'une ethnie (ex.: Angleterre, pays scandinaves) ou, à la rigueur, la réunion organique d'ethnies et de races diverses sous la prédominance numérique et qualitative de l'une d'entre elles (ex.: USA, Allemagne, France-ancien-régime)... -----

VII./Nous considérons le travailleur comme propriétaire de ce qu'il crée, de ce qu'il produit; nous voulons que l'usine appartienne à tous ceux qui la font produire, que la terre appartienne à celui qui la cultive; nous voulons réduire le rôle du papier-monnaie à celui de simple monnaie d'échange; nous voulons supprimer la main-d'oeuvre étrangère d'origine non-aryenne par le moyen d'un service obligatoire du travail (d'une durée de deux ans, en remplacement du service militaire obligatoire, l'armée devenant, en l'occurrence, "armée de métier"...).

VIII./Le progrès est conditionné par l'acceptation des Lois Naturelles hiérarchie des individus et des peuples selon leur valeur personnelle, propriété privée, lorsqu'elle ne dépasse pas un certain taux, fondée sur la seule valeur individuelle; liberté personnelle et collective; seule la Liberté permet à chaque individu arien de s'épanouir au maximum; mais cette liberté est organique: c'est le Libre Epanouissement Ethnique...

IX./Nous combattons pour l'avènement d'un syndicalisme unitaire...
pour un régime populaire et communautaire pour la défense ethnique du Peuple et de sa Culture pour la protection de notre Race par le contrôle de l'immigration, et son amélioration, par la sélection biologique et l'application de l'eugénisme; nous luttons pour la formation d'un mouvement ouvrier, raciste et nordique...

X./Nous n'appartenons pas à la "droite" ou à la "gauche", ni à un groupe financier, une église ou une puissance étrangère quelconque; nous sommes les porte-étendards du racisme intégral; nous proclamons le droit le devoir, des Peuples, des Races, à disposer d'elles-mêmes; nous indiquons la voie à suivre à notre Race Nordique, pointe avancée de l'Humanité Blanche...

XI./Nous vaincrons l'Exploiteur du Peuple Arien, le Juif, avec ses propres armes: le marxisme; tâche future que devront s'arrogger nos frères slave-nordiques par le moyen d'un Communisme Arien, rationaliste et détaché de ses origines judaïques (Hodja, Tito, Gomulka en sont le prélude); le mythe "internationaliste-prolétarien", héritier du cosmopolitisme juif, doit disparaître; la montée d'un communisme raciste est inévitable...

XII./En racistes, partant du principe que l'"aryen est un frère pour l'aryen", nous sommes au premier rang des luttes sociales, syndicales, que mène le Proletariat notre Peuple contre ses exploiters capitalistes, ces usurpateurs non-aryens du pouvoir politique; tout mouvement qui dénonce et combat les ennemis naturels de notre Race reçoit notre collaboration, mais dans ces mouvements (syndicats, associations) nous propageons, avant tout, l'essence de notre doctrine, notre Idéal Racist de Paix, de Liberté, de Progrès Social, de Devenir Racial...

Eh camarades ! L'heure est venue pour nous de semer les germes de la Révolution Nordique Proletarienne dans tous les pays de race blanche.

Three new organizations have recently been admitted to the WORLD UNION OF NATIONAL SOCIALISTS. They are the following: Anglo-Nordic Union (South Africa); Belgian National Socialist Union; and Canadian Nazi Party. We wish each of these formations success in their endeavors, and urge all National Socialists in these countries to support their respective Section.

SOUTH AFRICA

The Anglo-Nordic Union has been officially recognized as the South African Section of WUNS. Heading the ANU is Ray K. Rudman. The address of the ANU is: Posbus 497--Pietermaritzburg.

BELGIUM

In July a WUNS Section, the Belgian National Socialist Union, was formed in this country. Leader of the BNSU is Rüdiger van Sande of: 80, Avenue de Thiervaux--Heusy/Verviers.

The Belgian Section is comprised of three sub-sections, corresponding to the three ethnic groups in Belgium: Vlaams Nationaal-Socialistische Unie (Flemish); Union Nationale-Socialiste Wallonne (Walloon); and National-Sozialistische Volksunion (German).

Formation of the BNSU came after satisfactory consultation with Yves Jeanne, Leader of the Fédération Ouest-Européenne. The FOE formerly had WUNS jurisdiction over the French-speaking, or Walloon, part of Belgium.

Attempts to intimidate the Leader of the Belgian Section have already begun. While van Sande was away from his home in late July, the police raided it, and confiscated many items. The Belgian Leader has since filed a complaint with the attorney-general against this illegal action. Because of his politics, van Sande has also lost his job. With a wife and three children to support, he is now without employment, and we ask any Comrades who are able to give assistance to do so.

CANADA

The Canadian Nazi Party was formed on 20 April of this year. Under the leadership of John Beattie, the CNP has come to the forefront of racist and National Socialist activity in Canada. The new Canadian Section promises to be an invaluable part of our growing world movement.

Temporary mailing address for the CNP is simply: John Beattie--181 Rhodes Avenue--Toronto 8, Ontario.

SOUTH AMERICAN REPORT

CHILE

Franz Pfeiffer, head of the Chilean Section, Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, was arrested on 22 April of this year and put in prison for three years, because of an alleged attack on a synagogue back in 1958. The real reason, however, for Pfeiffer's imprisonment is an attempt by the government to intimidate the growing force of National Socialism in Chile.

We therefore urge all Sections and affiliates--particularly those which have not yet had an opportunity to do so--to protest against the cowardly persecution of Pfeiffer at the nearest Chilean embassy, consulate or official office on 22 October. On that date Comrade Pfeiffer will already have been held in prison for six months.

During Pfeiffer's absence, Maj. René Rodríguez is in charge of the PNSO. The current address of the Chilean Section is: PNSO--Agregado Especial 88--Correo 15--Santiago.

Form of Protest in Spanish

PETICION AL HONORABLE EMBAJADOR DE CHILE

En las oficinas principales de la Unión Mundial de Nacional-Socialistas, se ha recibido información al efecto de que un ciudadano chileno, Franz Pfeiffer, Jefe del Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, ha sido encarcelado por un período de tres años, como consecuencia de sus actividades políticas.

La Unión Mundial de Nacional-Socialistas, que incluye el Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, quiere protestar el trato cruel y las graves injusticias que se están extendiendo a Franz Pfeiffer. Muy respetuosamente, le solicitamos al estimado Señor Embajador de la gran patria de Chile que haga todo lo posible para conseguir la anulación de la sentencia arriba mencionada, para asegurar la libertad de Franz Pfeiffer y devolverle el derecho humano de la libertad política.

Muy atentamente,

ARGENTINA

In August Horst Eichmann, son of the late Adolf Eichmann, was arrested in a nationwide police raid against National Socialists, Peronists and Nationalists. He was later released because of lack of evidence against him.

DATES TO COMMEMORATE

16 October 1946 -- Ten of the Nuremberg Martyrs are murdered at Landsberg Prison.

9 November 1923 -- The Munich Putsch: 16 Stormtroopers give their lives for the National Socialist Cause.

All Sections, Associate Members and affiliates are urged to forward reports, information and photos of mutual interest to : WUNS-Eastern Hemisphere, 74 Princedale Road, London, W.11-ENGLAND. WUNS-Western Hemisphere, Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia USA.

PERSECUTION IN GERMANY

"Stossen können Sie, fällen können Sie nicht.
Schlagen können Sie, zwingen können Sie nicht.
Martern können Sie, ausrotten können Sie nicht.
Verbrennen, ertränken und aufhängen können Sie,
Zum Schweigen bringen,
das können Sie nicht!"

--Martin Luther

BRUNO LÜDTKE

Bruno Lüdtke, who was arrested and held without trial for four months in 1963, has been indicted on the grounds that his alleged association with WUNS and some of his writings upholding the National Socialist philosophy constitute crimes against the "democratic" Bonn constitution. Although the date of trial has not been set, it is expected to be scheduled shortly.

All WUNS Sections, Associate Members and sympathizers are urged to prepare now for the most vigorous and effective protest possible as soon as the Lüdtke trial starts. This protest should be aimed against the persecution of Bruno Lüdtke in particular and the general persecution of National Socialism in Germany, should demand complete political freedom for National Socialists in that country.

Devise the best means you can to bring this issue before the public and politicians in your country, and to register your protest at the nearest German embassy, consulate or travel office. For this purpose you might consider the following: picket demonstrations; protest delegations; public vigils; handbill distributions; telephone campaigns; open letters (newspapers, etc.); posters, signs and stickers; public rallies; pressure on your own government; special dramatic action.

DIETRICH SCHULER

Another outrageous example of the "democratic" tyranny existing in Germany today is the case of Dietrich Schuler, 38-year-old schoolmaster from Reutin in the Black Forest region. Schuler was recently sentenced to seven months' imprisonment by a Stuttgart District Court, because of an unpublished manuscript police had found in his home upholding National Socialism.

ERHARD REINHARDT

This National Socialist Comrade, a 28-year-old toolmaker from Aachen, was indicted on 22 July, after being held in jail since 10 March of this year. Reinhardt is accused of having taken part in the distribution of a leaflet protesting extension of the statute of limitations for prosecution of so-called "war criminals". Reinhardt is scheduled to go to trial shortly.

ECKHARD BRAGARD

Arrested along with Reinhardt in March was Eckhard Bragard, also of Aachen, a 25-year-old radio technician. His case is currently pending.

ERICH WENDT

Also arrested on similar charges in March with Reinhardt and Bragard was Erich Wendt, of Bodendorf-Ahr. Details in his case are not available at the present time.

CURRENT LIST OF WUNS

MARTYRS & POLITICAL PRISONERS*

The following list is presented for the information of all National Socialists. We trust that they will solemnly commemorate those Comrades who have fallen, and plan appropriate action to publicize the fate of those Comrades now imprisoned.

PEDRO HAGEL	Argentina	murdered
JAMES PEARSON	United States	murdered
ROY FRANKHOUSER	United States	permanent disability
DON BRANCH	United States	20 years
LYLE MC LAUGHLIN	United States	10 years
FRANZ PFEIFFER	Chile	3 years
DIETRICH SCHULER	West Germany	7 months
GERALD LAWMAN	Great Britain	6 months
LON DUNAWAY	United States	(indeterminate)
ECKHARD BRAGARD	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ERHARD REINHARDT	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ERICH WENDT	West Germany	(indeterminate)
ROBERT BRUCE	United States	(indeterminate)

*This list was prepared from all the latest information available. If any name was omitted, it was due solely to the lack of such information. We would appreciate being advised of any omitted names, so that they may appear on future lists.

In the case of imprisonment, the total length of the sentence is shown.

WARNING!

European National Socialists are warned about a race-traitor from Toronto, Canada, who may try to approach them. He is David Stanley, age 20, formerly associated with the following groups: Canada Youth Corps, World Service and Natural Order.

On the right is a picture showing this low character as he repudiates his former associations and publicly apologizes to Jewry at a recent news conference.

We are informed that Stanley will receive an inheritance on 1 October 1965, and is planning to spend a year traveling throughout Europe.

RUDOLF HESS: 25 Years of Martyrdom

"Wir stehen mitten in einer grossen Zeitenwende. Was wir alle durchmachen sind ihre Geburtswehen. Alles scheint negativ--- und einmal wird dann doch Neues und Grosses geboren werden..."

---R. Hess (Letter to his wife from Prison)

For a quarter of a century---on 10 May---Rudolf Hess has been held in prison. His sole "crime" was trying to end the Second World War among Aryan nations on that date in 1941. For his heroic efforts he was condemned to life imprisonment.

If Hess had been a first-degree murderer, he would---according to the law in many Western countries---have been released long ago. But his "crime" of trying to bring about real peace between White nations is still regarded as unforgivable by those powers which started World War II.

On the 25th anniversary of Hess' daring flight to Scotland, National Socialists everywhere are urged to launch new efforts to dramatize the plight of this Prisoner of Peace. This should be more than a mere one-day affair, however. It should signal the start of a special, "Free Rudolf Hess Year."

All WUNS sections and affiliates are urged to plan appropriate campaigns demanding Hess' immediate and unconditional release. Demonstrations should be directed toward the embassies, consulates and other official offices of those responsible for Hess' continuing confinement: the United States, Great Britain, France, the Soviet Union, as well as West Germany.

In the meantime, may the fate of National Socialism's greatest Living Martyr serve to call forth greater dedication, greater determination, greater effort and greater sacrifice on the part of all National Socialists.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD

After considerable postponement, printing has finally started on NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD, the new WUNS quarterly review. The first copies are due shortly.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD is the first NS intellectual journal to appear since 1945. It is also the first printed periodical to be issued by the World Union of National Socialists.

The editor of NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD is Dr. W. L. Pierce. Address of the publication is: Box 5537---Arlington, Virginia USA. The subscription rate is $10.00 per year.

BELGIUM

The following new address should be noted for Eldiger van Sande: Postbus 10---Veurne. Van Sande heads the Belgian National Socialist Union.

AUSTRALIA

The newly-reorganized National Socialist Party of Australia continues to show encouraging signs of progress, and is currently in the process of establishing a headquarters. Mailing address for the NSPA is: P. O. Box 157---Marrickville, N.S.W.

RESTRICTED COUNTRIES

National Socialist activity has been outlawed in all Communist countries, as well as 'Democratic' West Germany, Austria and Argentina. We therefore advise discretion in sending mail to comrades in those countries. Conspicuous markings of any kind on envelopes, which may tend to draw the attention of postal officials, should be avoided.

COMMEMORATIVE DATES.

20 April 1889 -- Birthday of the Führer, Adolf Hitler, in Braunau-am-Inn, on the Austrian border.

10 May 1941 -- Rudolf Hess' daring flight to Britain, and his attempt to end the war among White Men.

22 June 1941 -- Heroic struggle of anti-Communist Europe against the Soviet Union begins.

After 26 Years

FREE RUDOLOF HESS!

On 26 April Rudolf Hess spent his 73rd birthday in Spandau Prison. Many National Socialist comrades in the United States and elsewhere sent birthday greetings to Herr Hess as a defiant gesture of protest against the cruel and inhuman treatment being accorded this man by his Four-Power captors. (Similar protest communications may be addressed to: Herrn Rudolf Hess--1 Berlin--Festung Spandau--Germany.)

As the Fuehrer's former Deputy enters his 27th year of imprisonment and martyrdom on 10 May, National Socialists around the world are urged to redouble their efforts in demanding his release. Appropriate demonstrations should be directed against the embassies, consulates and other official offices of those responsible for Hess' continued confinement: the United States, Great Britain, France and the Soviet Union--as well as an acquiescent West Germany. Every conceivable medium should be exploited to publicize and dramatize the fate of National Socialism's greatest Living Martyr.

Those interested in the formation of a permanent international committee for the release of Rudolf Hess should write to: Mr. A.L. Price--26, Cappagh Drive--Finglas West--Dublin 11, Ireland (no other details on envelope). Mr. Price heads the Irish Free Hess Committee; and is currently devoting his efforts toward formation of the international organization. No more befitting manifestation of solidarity in the fate of our comrade, Rudolf Hess, could be shown than the establishment of such a permanent body on the 26th anniversary of his imprisonment.

The Druffel-Verlag (813 Leonien-Strasse--Starnberger See--West Germany) has just released the third volume of Hess' letters from prison under the title, "Antwort aus Zelle sieben" (Answer from Cell Seven). The book contains the letters of Rudolf Hess to his family during the last 10 years, along with a selection of biographical material. Two other Hess books previously published by the Druffel-Verlag are "England-Nürnberg-Spandau" and "Gefangener des Friedens" (Prisoner of Peace), which have been translated into various languages and widely read throughout the world.

COLIN JORDAN CASE

Colin Jordan, Leader of the National Socialist Movement in Britain, was visited in Exeter Prison 17 March by Mr. John D.F. Knight and a small party from the London headquarters. (Knight is Senior Officer of the NSM during the British Leader's confinement.) Jordan was reported in good spirits, excellent health, and bearing up well to the rigors of imposed political imprisonment. He was convicted earlier this year on a trumped-up charge involving his criticism of Jews and Negroes; and was the first person to be jailed under the anti-Aryan Race Relations Act of 1963.

The British Leader declared in a letter from prison: "Of course, it was a blow, getting not only the conviction, but such a comparatively stiff sentence..... But in case any of our friends feel depressed, let me assure all and sundry that I am in the best of spirits, if anything only more convinced than before of the rightness of our Struggle and the necessity of fighting on, and only waiting for the day I am out and able to continue. I am relying on you and all our friends to keep the flag flying meanwhile."

Mr. Knight reports as follows on the progress of NSM efforts in Jordan's behalf: "Our campaign for the release of Colin Jordan is well under way. A number of our slogans have appeared in prominent places in several towns, and our petition continues to mount. We are soliciting support from a number of organisations.....and, in this respect, have had some degree of success....."

The NSM, in an open letter, has called upon other patriotic British organizations to put aside their differences and unite in demanding Jordan's speedy release. It pointed out: "This unjust incarceration does not only concern the internal well-being of the NSM, but, because of the precedent set by Jordan's case, the very life of all concerned genuinely with the Cause of Race and Nation, be it in "moderation" or "extremity"! ---- Only the blind cannot see that if the appeal against conviction is unsuccessful, the precedent firmly established, further prosecutions must inevitably follow, in a projected attempt to destroy every inkling of racial feeling in this country, of whose ancient heritage we are justly proud, and for which we are now fighting."

The letter then urges these groups to support the petition campaign for Jordan's release. The petition itself states simply: "We, the undersigned, see the imprisonment of Mr Colin Jordan, on charges to conspire against the Race Relations Act, 1963, as a gross threat to the basic freedoms of all Britons, in denial of their right to reasonable expression of opinion. We consider the trial to be injudicial, and the sentence to be severe in the extreme, and hereby call for the release of this prisoner." Lined space for printed name, signature and address then follows.

We urge all WUNS Sections, Associates and Members to press for Colin Jordan's early release in all possible ways. Some may wish to organize petition campaigns similar to the one being conducted in Britain. Some may prefer to protest by other methods. The important thing is to act.

The NSM address remains: 74, Princedale Road--London, W.11.

BIRTHDAY OF THE FUENRRR

On 20 April National Socialists everywhere celebrated the 78th anniversary of the birth of Adolf Hitler, the immortal Founder of National Socialism, whose infallible teachings constitute the ultimate source of authority and solidarity for all National Socialists, and whose transcendent personality and spirit is for every comrade a perpetual source of heroic inspiration and renewal.

The occasion was celebrated in different ways by National Socialists around the world. Some decked the thresholds of their homes with fresh, spring greenery--following a custom observed in NS Germany on this great day. Many gathered for ceremonies around evening bonfires. Still others joined in festive meals and buffet suppers. Once again the songs and marches of the movement were heard in appropriate "music-fests". Everywhere it was a time for joyous festivity and warm comradeship in the great National Socialist tradition.

Some of our more fortunate comrades spent the day in Braunau-am-Inn--the place of Adolf Hitler's birth itself--manifesting by their very presence there their unswerving allegiance to the immortal Man of Braunau, whose advent has heralded the dawn of a new day for Aryan mankind everywhere.

CANADA

Martin K. Weiche of London, Ontario, a former Luftwaffe officer, has been named Chairman of the Canadian National Socialist Party. Weiche also heads the local Party group in London. John Beattie remains National Leader of the CNSP.

On three consecutive Saturdays in April, officials of the CNSP, including Beattie and Weiche, handed out Party literature on the streets of London. The distributions attracted large crowds of area residents.

Party Leader Beattie said that London had been selected as a future stronghold of CNSP activity. He declared that more demonstrations and pamphlet distributions were slated for the city in coming weeks, and indicated that these efforts would be aimed mainly at local youth. Beattie also explained that the London move was only part of a coast-to-coast Party buildup. Thus far the CNSP has concentrated its activities primarily in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

On 15 April--while Party members were busy passing out NS material--the London City Council killed a proposal which would have interfered with the right to distribute literature on city streets.

Meanwhile, judgment has been reserved until 5 May in the case against John Beattie and two other CNSP members, Robert Wood and John Reese, on charges of "conspiracy to commit an indictable offense": namely, "interfering with the lawful enjoyment of the private property of a group of prominent Jewish citizens" in Toronto.

CHILE

Franz Pfeiffer, Leader of the Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, held a large press conference in Santiago on 25 March. The interview was reported by news services in Europe and North America, and received good coverage on local television.

Both PNSO candidates in the 2 April municipal council elections, Maj Madrid and Renán Valdés, made impressive showings. In a close contest, Maj Madrid was edged out by just a handful of votes in Putaendo. Valdés secured approximately 4,000 votes in his race in Santiago.

GERMANY

On 21 June 1966 a federal court at Karlsruhe quashed the earlier sentence of eight months' imprisonment against NS comrade, Bruno Lüdtkke, by a Frankfurt district court. It ordered the case referred back to the Frankfurt court, but to a different criminal division.

The appeal was granted for two reasons: (1) because the district court had disregarded Lüdtkke's request for an examination to establish his mental competence; and (2) because the district court had failed to determine whether WUNS, the American Nazi Party (now the National Socialist White People's Party) and the NSM in Britain actually are "illegal organizations" according to the present German constitution and criminal code.

The federal court had earlier ordered a new trial for 13 January, and again for 9 February. The case was subsequently continued until 21 March, and has now been postponed once again until 17 July.

In a similar action, a federal court quashed the verdict of a Cologne district court under which Erhard Reinhardt had been serving a 15-month sentence. Reinhardt had allegedly threatened members of the Bundestag who voted for extension of the statute of limitations for persecuting wartime National Socialists. At last word, no new date has been set for a retrial.

UNITED STATES

George Lincoln Rockwell, Commander of the National Socialist White People's Party, has experienced continued success in his speaking appearances before thousands of students at dozens of Midwest and West Coast colleges.

In another development, Cmdr Rockwell's trial in Chicago has once again been postponed, this time until 8 May.

Meanwhile, American National Socialists have been successfully disrupting pro-Red Pacifist demonstrations and meetings in various cities across the country. In Chicago 25 NSWPP members and supporters destroyed 300 placards being carried by Leftist marchers. The following week they halted an outdoor Pacifist rally by heckling. In Dallas, Party members have been holding rallies directly opposite Red demonstrators at the spot where John F. Kennedy was assassinated --with growing public support in a continuing propaganda battle. In San Francisco on 15 April, 18 National Socialists seized four Viet Cong flags and one Red Chinese flag, plus a 16-foot banner, in an operation which halted a Red column of 25,000 marchers.

COLIN JORDAN RELEASED

Colin Jordan, Leader of the National Socialist Movement in Britain, was released 24 January from Exeter Prison where he had been serving an 18-month sentence on trumped-up charges involving his criticism of Jews and Negroes.

Jordan's release came six months early, following an intensive campaign on his behalf by National Socialists in Britain and throughout the world. The British Leader was the first person to be jailed under the grossly anti-Aryan "Race Relations Act" of 1965.

Slogans demanding Colin Jordan's freedom were recently painted in Compton Verney, where film-makers were shooting Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Among the signs was one reading, "Shakespeare was anti-Semitic. Keep Jews Out."

National Socialists around the world welcome Colin Jordan back into the NS Struggle, and extend to him and his organization best wishes for every success.

AUSTRALIA

Wenberg Deported

Eric R. Wenberg, 22, who had been attached to the national headquarters staff of the National Socialist White People's Party in the United States under a special NS exchange program, was deported to Australia on 15 January.

Wenberg had tried to enter Canada on 8 January to join National Socialists in Toronto, but was stopped at the border. After three days' detention, he was formally refused entry by Canadian officials on the shabby pretext that he "might engage in subversive activities." Canadian National Socialist leader, John Beattie, has meanwhile filed an appeal of this decision, and a hearing has been set for 22 March.

With NSWPP assistance, Wenberg managed to remain free in the United States under $5,000 bond for over four months after he was first ordered deported, during which time he continued to work for the movement there. His difficulties began 28 August, when he lunged at John Patler, convicted murderer of Commander Rockwell, in an Arlington courtroom, shouting, "You filthy assassin!"

U.S. immigration authorities, unable to discover any cash on Wenberg's person, were obliged to pay his plane fare all the way back to Australia, where he was met by a squad of Stormtroopers, as well as by scores of newsmen.

Two Australian Parties

There are two National Socialist organizations in Australia: the Australian National Socialist Party and the National Socialist Party of Australia.

The ANSP is headed by Arthur C. Smith, and its mailing address is: P. O. Box 339, Broadway--Sydney, N.S.W.

The NSPA is run by a national directorate, consisting of E. R. Cawthron, F. K. Molnar and J. P. Butland. Its mailing address is: P. O. Box 1276--Canberra City, A.C.T.

Neither of the two parties is currently an official section of the World Union of National Socialists.

CANADA

National Socialists Disrupt Pro-Red Union Meeting

Canadian National Socialists, led by John Beattie, recently interrupted the showing of slides glorifying the Soviet Union at a United Auto Workers local in Oakville, Ontario.

Standing in front of the screen, Beattie denounced Soviet murder and atrocities, and flatly declared the National Socialist intention to break up the meeting.

Ensuing public uproar in this town subsequently forced international and local representatives of the UAW to disavow all connection with the meeting.

Beattie to Speak

John Beattie, National Leader of the Canadian National Socialist Party, will speak 5 May in Toronto's Allan Gardens, scene of anti-Aryan riots by Jews when he attempted to speak there previously.

Beattie's request 1 December to speak on "The Death Rattle of Western Civilization" was delayed by a local bylaw amendment restricting free speech in the park. But the bylaw was quashed by the courts, and a permit was issued to Beattie granting him two-hours' speaking time.

The mailing address of the CNSP is: Box 920, Terminal "A"--Toronto 1, Ontario.

Santiago Rally a Success

On 23 February the Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero held an outdoor rally opposite the big Sumar cotton factory, located in the Reddest section of Santiago. Two hundred workers listened sullenly as PNSO leader, Franz Pfeiffer, and four other party officers began to address the gathering. Before long, however, the hostility had melted. By the end of the rally, almost all of the workers had been won over to the National Socialist side, and many wanted to join the PNSO.

Right to Wear Uniforms Upheld

An earlier verdict by an Ovalle court, sentencing several PNSO members to one-year prison terms for marching in full uniform through the city, has been overturned by a court of appeal. The decision reaffirms the right of National Socialists to wear political uniforms throughout the country.

Meeting with Argentine National Socialists

Chilean National Socialists met with their Argentine counterparts early in February at the Argentine border town of Bariloche, where they discussed common problems and laid plans for greater mutual co-operation.

Anti-Vice Campaign Announced

Chilean National Socialists announced plans for an anti-vice campaign in their country. PNSO Major H. Hansen, in an interview with the Valparaiso press, stated that the National Socialists would concentrate their efforts on exposing the individuals involved in the drug peddling, prostitution and other rackets. The Jews have subsequently been running frantic newspaper editorials assuring the public that no NS exposure of Chilean vice is necessary.

Matt Koehl Addresses Students

Matt Koehl, National Leader of the National Socialist White People's Party, spoke at three American colleges recently. On 16 November he addressed 3,000 students at Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas. On 16 January he spoke before 2,500 students at St. Cloud State College in St. Cloud, Minnesota; and on 26 February he addressed an overflow audience of 2,750 at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Illinois. The response in each instance has been outstanding, and many new recruits have been won for the National Socialist Cause.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD

Issue No. 5 of National Socialist World has just been released. The new issue contains the following major articles: "George Lincoln Rockwell: A National Socialist Life" by Dr. William L. Pierce; "A National Socialist Chronicle: 1889-1933" by Hans Volz; and "The Black Plague: Race War in America," an amazing exposé of Communist plans for anti-White guerrilla warfare in the United States.

Recipients of this Bulletin may help increase the circulation of National Socialist World by ordering just two (2) extra copies of each issue to introduce to friends and associates. If everyone will do his part, it will help tremendously to build up the general effectiveness of this important WUNS publication.

YF-79 No. 13

"We must not allow the greater racial community to be torn apart because of the differences of the individual peoples."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, Vol. II, Ch. 2.

EDITORIAL

A year ago the National Socialist movement suffered a very heavy blow with the death of Commander Rockwell. The enemies of our Movement waited expectantly for its dissolution then. But the Movement, instead of dissolving, regained its balance and continued to grow. A renewed determination, together with a steadily rising influx of new adherents, enabled the National Socialist White People's Party to acquire its first substantial office facilities and to make significant strides into its Phase Two operations. And our affiliates from around the world have also reported important new advances. Today we are stronger than ever before and are looking forward to unprecedented growth in the year ahead.

This progress on the part of individual National Socialist groups has not been matched by progress of the World Union as a whole, however. One very important task which we have neglected is the transformation of the World Union of National Socialists from a "paper" organization into a real and active one. WUNS activity has so far consisted primarily in the quarterly publication of NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD and this BULLETIN and in a mail correspondence between various affiliates.

We must look forward to taking several important new steps in the year ahead. Specifically, we must implement an increased personal contact between the leadership cadres of all WUNS affiliates. We must actively explore all paths which may lead to effective collaboration among affiliates. We must, through close mutual consultation, begin laying the groundwork now for a WUNS which actually unites all the National Socialists of the world in a single entity which can think with one mind, speak with one voice, and act with a million perfectly coordinated hands. We must begin clearing away the problems and obstacles standing in the way of such a development and start building the machinery which will make it a reality.

There are several compelling reasons for taking such action

now. First, the Movement is everywhere extremely weak compared to the forces arrayed against it. We can no longer afford the luxury of local autonomy when we so desperately need the increased strength, both moral and material, which can only result from coherent action within the framework of a strong organization.

Second, this is the time, while we still retain the flexibility of youth, to establish a uniform ideological basis for the worldwide development of the Movement. A task easy to perform now may be much more difficult in a few years, after various deviations have established more extensive roots.

Above all, we must insure now that nowhere is the name National Socialism used as a cover for a new brand of geographical nationalism. We must, through the guidance which only a strong WUNS can exercise, be sure that our "nationalism" remains an Aryan racial nationalism everywhere and at all times.

This last point deserves some elaboration. There are many sincere but shortsighted persons in our ranks who confuse building the Movement with winning popularity. They think, naturally enough, in terms of programs designed to attract the sympathy of the public, or "the masses," by concentration on issues of primarily local interest. But they then extend to these provincial and chauvinistic programs the significance of a creed, which they do not deserve. We must always make the sharpest distinction between local programs, which have solely a propaganda value and which are conditioned by the needs of the moment, and the tenets of our universal and immortal National Socialist creed, which must ... keineswegs von Beifall oder Ablehnung unserer Zeit bestimmt werden, sondern von der bindenden Verpflichtung an eine Wahrheit, die wir erkannten.

Local programs attract the attention of the public. Our National Socialist creed, however, is what motivates and binds together all those who truly constitute our Movement. The former must never take precedence over the latter. In fact, until the Movement has gained sufficient inner strength to realistically consider trying to win a mass following, popular programs are of little value. That which will recruit for us the cadres we need now is pure and unadulterated National Socialism. The time for popular fronts and programs will be later.

Wherever we are we must always remember that it is no longer Germany or America or Australia or England for which we are fighting, but all Aryandom. This time, the world!

INTERNATIONAL

WUNS Commander, Matt Koehl, has announced the appointment of Dr. William Pierce to the post of General Secretary of the World Union of National Socialists.

The sixth issue of NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD is now being prepared for the printer and should be published within the next four weeks.

ARGENTINA

Our Argentine affiliate, Frente Nacional Socialista Argentino, is showing increasing strength and is continuing to demonstrate its capacity to produce propaganda materials of excellent quality. The September, 1968, issue of its publication, REBELION, is the second issue to appear in the new and highly professional format. Copies of REBELION may be obtained from:

Pascual Marchesano
Sanchez Bustamante 1190
Buenos Aires

The price per issue is 200 pesos ($0.75 U.S.).

NATIONAL SOCIALIST UNITY ACHIEVED IN AUSTRALIA.

On August 3 the National Socialist Party of Australia formally absorbed the former Australian National Socialist Party, thus becoming the only active National Socialist organization in that country. Under the terms of an agreement between representatives of the two groups, all members of the former ANSP will be given an opportunity to join the NSPA. The NSPA will temporarily continue to be led by a National Directorate consisting of Ferenc K. Molnar, who is its chairman, Edward R. Cawthron, John J. Stewart, and Leslie J. Ritchie. The mailing address of the NSPA is:

P. O. Box 40
Ainslie, A.C.T. 2602

BRITAIN

British National Socialists have reorganized themselves, following the release of Colin Jordan from prison earlier this year. Mr. Jordan has formed a new front group in England, which he has named the British Movement. This organization will assume a British-nationalist stance and will avoid overt National Socialist manifestations for the time being. It is Mr. Jordan's hope to participate actively in Parliamentary elections with the new front. Meanwhile, purely National Socialist activity in England will be carried on by most of the former members and officers of the NSM, who will henceforth be operating under the name "National Socialist Group" (NSG). The NSG will be led by Mr. D. J. Courtney, who has worked with Mr. Jordan in the NSM for a number of years.

The Canadian National Socialist Party is concentrating its efforts primarily in the Toronto area for the near future. The CNSP leader, John Beattie, has indicated a change in CNSP activity from outdoor demonstrations to indoor meetings. He expects to announce soon the acquisition of a hall in Toronto at which scheduled weekly meetings, open to the public, will be held.

CHILE

The new headquarters of our Chilean affiliate, Partido Nacional-Socialista Obrero, was opened in Santiago on July 11 to a stream of visitors. The headquarters is a new, seven-room house. The PNSO is currently concentrating its activity in Santiago, particularly in the vicinity of the headquarters.

GERMANY

JEW MURDERER FOUND DEAD. The bloodthirsty Jew, Fritz Bauer, Chief Prosecutor in the occupied German province of Hessen, was found dead by Frankfurt police on July 31. Suspicion that National Socialists may have had a hand in Bauer's death led authorities to order a complete investigation, including an autopsy. Among other things, Bauer was the leading figure in stage-managing the fraudulent Auschwitz trial, which lasted 20 months.

IRELAND

A relatively small National Socialist group at University College, Cork, is exercising increasing influence there. A member of the group, Bernard Horgan, is the editor of the principal student periodical, QUARRYMAN. The March, 1968, issue of QUARRYMAN, for example, contained a long biographical article on Adolf Hitler, an illustrated article on Jewish atrocities in the Middle East, and a penetrating study of the Palestine situation, the last being written by Anthony Price, the leader of Ireland's National Socialist Federation.

UNITED STATES

National Socialist Headquarters operations, both for the National Socialist White People's Party and for WUNS, have continued to expand in the Washington metropolitan area.

In the last three months several new pieces of production equipment have been acquired, greatly increasing the capability for producing and distributing printed propaganda materials. Several new personnel have also been added to the staff in recent months, but the need for qualified persons remains an urgent one as our activity increases. In line with the general policy of professionalizing every phase of the headquarters operation, all staff members are now receiving regular salaries.

Shortly after the opening of the new Party offices in Arlington, a campaign aimed at building a new image of the National Socialist movement in the eyes of the American public was initiated. Unable to compete with the Jewish-Democratic press on a national level, the Party concentrated principally on the Washington area. The campaign has involved mass distributions of leaflets and other Party materials. Particularly successful has been an automatic telephone-message service operated by the Party. The news clipping below, though containing a few errors, describes the message service.

The Washington Daily News, Saturday, September 14, 1968

CHANGING TAPES

Dial 528-4361 For White Number

"Wake up, America," the recorded voice on the phone said, "Recognize your enemies. Arm yourselves."

This is the most recent message of the National Socialist White People's Party, a right wing group formed last year following the death of George Lincoln Rockwell and the disintegration of his American Nazi Party.

2-MINUTE CHATS

Since last summer, the new party has put out two-minute phone messages with a militant right wing tone. The messages can be heard by dialing 528-4361.

The current message is highly topical, keyed to the recent manslaughter conviction of Huey Newton, the San Francisco Black Panther whom the voice refers to as "that smirking black murderer."

The message says the public has "lost its moral bearings" partly due to a "massive campaign of deliberate moral disintegration" by the nation's press.

KILL OR ...

It adds that forces in the country are "hell bent on destroying the white race," and then issues the call to arms.

"Either we kill them or they kill us," the voice says.

The recording says, "This is another in a weekly series of white power messages," adding that brochures on weapons can be obtained from the offices of the party, 2807 N. Franklin Road, Arlington.

The deliverer of the message identified himself as Dr. Franklin Pierce, whom Arlington police confirmed was a member of the organization. Mathew Koehl, who succeeded Mr. Rockwell as head of the American Nazi Party, is the leader of the white people's party.

The Party is now operating five separate message-service telephone lines, with a capacity of 25,000 calls per week. This capacity will be doubled in the near future.

Commemorative Dates

September 16: The forty-ninth anniversary of the beginning of the National Socialist movement. On this day in 1919 Adolf Hitler became the seventh member of the council of the German Workers' Party.

September 27: The ten-thousandth day of imprisonment for the Leader's Deputy, Rudolf Hess. The Jews and their lackeys have kept Rudolf Hess behind bars since April 11, 1941, following his heroic flight. Their hatred has never slackened for the man who might have halted World War II and thereby spoiled all their plans.

EDITORIAL

In the year before us we will be celebrating two anniversaries; it is both the eightieth year of the Leader and the fiftieth year of the Movement. We have a long and rocky path behind us now, and it may be discouraging to look back along that path at the painfully slow progress we have made since the catastrophe of 1945. But when we turn to the future and look at what lies ahead of us in the next few years we can see better grounds for enthusiasm than at any time in the past twenty-five years.

The political tempo has increased all over the world. Even in the midst of unparalleled prosperity, anarchist, Jewish, and Marxist elements are ripping and tearing away the foundations of the decadent democratic order. A new generation, without moral bearings or any deep ideological commitment, has nearly grown up now. A static situation dominated by entrenched interests is giving way to a much more fluid situation.

Much as we may hate and oppose the destructive forces at work today, they are performing a necessary task. Just as the role of the bacteria which bring about the decomposition of a corpse, redistributing its organic matter to the universe so that new life may arise in its place, is an essential role, so is the role being played now by the Jews and their allies essential. The rotten, dying world of today must complete the rapidly accelerating process of decomposition before a new and healthy world can hope to rise in its place. The organic matter which is being returned to Nature's store-room in this case is the new generation of alienated and uncommitted youth. This is the raw material from which a new world, for better or for worse, must be built. Twenty-five years ago that supply of raw material was too small. Today it is large enough so that we can begin to plan realistically on using some small portion of it for our aims, even while the majority of it is still hastening the process of degeneration.

In the year ahead—and the year or two or three after that—we must learn to think and act faster than we have been accustomed to. We will be faced with a flood of new challenges and new opportunities. The Movement will certainly grow faster than it has in three decades. Let us resolve now that that growth will lead to a stronger, more unified, more active and virile Movement as well as a larger Movement.

One thing that no National Socialist should forget is that Rudolf Hess is still in prison. Publicity is the strongest weapon which can be brought to bear on this matter now. Let no opportunity pass to help make the public aware of this continuing democratic-Marxist crime.

Three new employees have been added to the growing staff at WUNS HQ during the last quarter.

ARGENTINA

Jews and liberals in Argentina have been screaming about the recent appearance of National Socialist literature at newsstands in Buenos Aires. In the United States, where the wholesale magazine distribution business is completely in Jewish hands, Jews have complete control over the selection of reading material offered at newsstands. If a retailer displays any "unapproved" periodical, his wholesaler can cut him off from his supply of other magazines. Apparently there is at least one non-Jewish magazine wholesaler in Buenos Aires.

GERMANY

A very interesting development is taking place in the Western Zone of Occupied Germany. Following a relaxation of certain restrictive laws governing political parties and political activity, a group of young National Socialists in Germany have begun open National Socialist activity for the first time since 1945. With the name "Union of German National Socialists" (Bund Deutscher National-Sozialisten) and under the leadership of Wolf-Dieter Eckart, 30, they have been distributing literature and speaking at meetings in the Hamburg area.

allegedly anti-Russian) authorities was only to legitimize the newly established German Communist Party (Deutsche Kommunistische Partei), not to allow a greater freedom of political expression in Occupied Germany. But, in order to avoid confusing the brainwashed liberals, the authorities may now be obliged to grit their teeth and suffer the existence of the National Socialists also. We may be sure that our German comrades will exploit their new opportunities to the limit.

A grim reminder of the Jewish-Marxist-democratic murder orgy which took place at the end of the last war was given recently when a Red Cross official in Cologne announced that his office still receives, nearly 24 years after the war, about 700 inquiries a day from persons looking for German soldiers or civilians who disappeared without a trace. These were among the millions who perished in Allied extermination camps, who were turned over to Communist mobs to be killed, or who were hunted down and murdered by the Jew terrorist squads which were allowed by the Occupation Authorities to roam freely in Germany immediately after the capitulation.

UNITED STATES

The efforts of the National Socialist White People's Party have been directed toward two goals during the latter part of 1968:

1. The development of a capability for instant propaganda response to current events. As the political situation continues to grow more turbulent, fast response becomes increasingly important. At present the NSWPP is able to have a new propaganda leaflet in the hands of a distribution crew anywhere in the United States within 24 hours of any new development in the news, shipping the freshly printed leaflets via air freight from Washington. Leaflets produced so far have concentrated on recruiting among students at riot-torn universities and among White policemen in large cities. The goal for 1969 is at least two new leaflets each month.

2. The transformation of the entire NSWPP membership from a more-or-less passive state to an active state. This has taken the form of encouraging all Party members to engage regularly in Party activities, primarily propaganda distributions. At the same time, Party propaganda has become increasingly militant and activist. One development in this direction has been the creation of a Party arms subsidiary, which has caused a fair amount of furor among the authorities.

No. 15

"By denying individual authority and replacing it by the headcount of a transient mob, the democratic principle of majority rule sins against the fundamentally aristocratic design of Nature..."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, I, 3.

EDITORIAL

One pitfall that lies in the path of our struggling Movement, particularly in those places where the struggle is most difficult, is the temptation to compromise the fundamental principles of National Socialism for reasons of momentary expediency.

We are tempted to make the excuse to ourselves that, under our difficult and harried circumstances, it is permissible to tolerate un-National Socialist behavior in our ranks if that will help get some immediate task at hand accomplished quicker or more easily. There may be extraordinary cases where this is true, but nearly always such a decision is wrong. For it is precisely now, when we are with great difficulty and sacrifice laying the foundations on which the future of the Movement must rest, that we must be particularly critical of the material we employ for our purpose and of our standards of workmanship.

As a specific example, consider the leadership principle. This fundamental National Socialist precept must guide every phase of our struggle. It must be applied not only to the large-scale organization of our Movement, but to the lowliest of our everyday activities. There should never be a project undertaken by two or more National Socialists where there is not a project leader who clearly understands that he alone bears the responsibility for the execution of the task at hand, whether that task be a distribution of leaflets in the street, the planning and preparation of a new propaganda pamphlet, or the organization of an election campaign.

This is all too easy a principle to violate, because we live in a liberal-democratic environment which makes a virtue of the avoidance of responsibility and which teaches us to despise the idea of authoritarian leadership. Many of the recruits to our ranks have been conditioned by such morally enervating influences all their lives, so that their whole outlook—their whole way of thinking—is colored by them. It is tempting to adapt ourselves to people who are thus flawed, so that we can more rapidly increase our numbers. Yet we must not do this. Those who would be National Socialists must accept the leadership principle without reservation. For if we fail to accept and apply this principle at every level, we cease being true National Socialists and become instead only members of a club or gang with racist ideas.

INTERNATIONAL

A current issue of which National Socialists all over the world should take full advantage is that of Jewish aggression in the Middle East. No opportunity should be missed to point out to our fellow citizens the true nature of the Jews, as so glaringly revealed in their behavior in all aspects of their conflict with the Arabs.

A particularly fruitful approach to take is to point out the highly biased treatment which the Jew-influenced press gives to the entire Middle Eastern war. Below are two newspaper photographs taken in Rome within a few days of each other.

The one in which the mob of Jews is carrying signs denouncing Iraqis as assassins was used in hundreds of newspapers with articles describing the "indignation" and "outrage" of the Jewish community about the mistreatment of their brethren in Iraq. The other photograph accompanied news stories about the "hate campaign" being conducted against Jews by "bigots" and "hatemongers."

Another example of the same thing is the treatment given by the newspapers to the Arab attack on the El Al airliner at Zurich. Initial stories told of a Jewish guard's heroic defense of the airliner—a defense in which he shot one of the attacking Arabs. Only later did the fact leak out that the Jew had run forward and killed the Arab commando after Swiss police had seized and disarmed all the Arabs.

Again, in the Los Angeles trial of Sirhan Sirhan, testimony was given of many blood-chilling atrocities committed by Jews against Sirhan's neighbors during his childhood in Jerusalem. The few newspapers which found room to carry these descriptions relegated them to back pages and dismissed them as "hallucinations."

Many more examples can be found which clearly illustrate the pro-Jewish bias of the news media and strongly suggest Jewish news control.

It's probably not wise to plan on a very profitable alliance with Arab groups at this time, however, because of their insistence on a strictly anti-Zionist, rather than an anti-Jewish approach to their problems. Many Arabs have gone so far, in fact, as to describe Zionism as "Jewish Nazism," and to take an anti-National Socialist attitude.

On April 26th Rudolf Hess will be 75 years old. On May 10th he will complete his 28th year in prison.

Those who wish to send him birthday greetings should address them to:

An article of particular interest in this issue is the one by WUNS Commander Matt Koehl, "Some Guidelines for the Development of the National Socialist Movement." This article should be read very carefully by every National Socialist, as it discusses a number of topics of critical importance.

Also in this issue is the first half of an English translation of Joseph Goebbels' fascinating and action-packed diary entries for the year 1932.

GERMANY

Reports from Germany on the progress of the Bund Deutscher National-Sozialisten (BDNS) continue to be very encouraging. An organizational meeting in Berlin was held on February 23. Previous activity had been restricted to the Hamburg area.

Jews and their democratic German cohorts in the government of the Federal Republic outdid one another in their displays of vindictive rage recently when a German court was unable to find any grounds for punishing Hans-Joachim Rehse, 66, a National Socialist Volksgericht judge during the war. Judge Rehse had handed down wartime death sentences against hundreds of the same sort of race traitors who now comprise the Occupation Government.

One such vermin made the world a cleaner place on February 26 by dying. He was the existentialist philosopher, Karl Jaspers, who, in order to curry favor with the Jews and promote his own career after the war, produced a sewer-like stream of anti-National Socialist and anti-German books.

UNITED STATES

The principal effort of the National Socialist White People's Party remains one of organization-building, with particular emphasis on strengthening propaganda capabilities.

Recorded telephone message services have been installed in four more metropolitan areas: Los Angeles, Racine, Chicago, and Cincinnati. Preparation is being made for installations in several other areas.

Two new Party formations have been organized: The National Socialist Liberation Front, for university students; and the National Association of White Policemen.

Commemorative Dates

April 1: In 1924 the Leader begins his term of imprisonment at Landsberg.

April 20: In 1889 the Leader is born at Braunau.

April 26: In 1894 the Leader's Deputy, Rudolf Hess, is born.

April 30: In 1945 the Leader departs.

May 10: In 1941 Rudolf Hess flies on his peace mission to Britain and is imprisoned.

June 22: In 1941 the Leader launches Operation Barbarossa, a heroic attempt to smash Marxism's citadel.

"We must distinguish in the sharpest way between the State as a vessel and the race as its content. This vessel has meaning only if it can preserve and protect the content; otherwise it is useless."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, II, 2.

EDITORIAL

At one time, WUNS counted more than two dozen Affiliates around the world. Some of these Affiliates were very small, consisting of only a handful of members; others were fairly promising organizations. Most of them, however, experienced such vicissitudes during the past few years that they are hardly recognizable as their former selves. Some disappeared altogether, and entirely new groups sprang up in their places. Others splintered into various squabbling factions, underwent repeated changes in leadership, and dwindled in size. A few—very few—have continued to grow in numbers and capability.

Such vicissitudes are endemic in revolutionary organizations. Until an organization has reached a certain size, recruited a certain minimum number of capable and dedicated functionaries, survived enough hard knocks to have acquired a certain store of essential experience and wisdom, established a source of more-or-less steady revenue to pay recurring expenses, and devised the proper organizational structure to insure viability and growth, it remains a very uncertain and unstable thing. For every organization that manages to reach this critical threshold for survival, probably fifty others fail.

This Darwinian situation certainly has its merits, in that it allows the survival of only the toughest and best-led groups—just those, in fact, best suited for carrying on the National Socialist struggle on a large scale. But, the way things are presently arranged, it also has one fatal drawback: it uses up scarce human material at a rate we can hardly afford. When a local National Socialist organization falls apart, whether due primarily to external pressure or internal weakness, it generally is a rather traumatic experience for the individual members concerned. Many become discouraged or disillusioned, adopt defeatist attitudes or lose their faith.

Nearly always there is no other local National Socialist group to which they can turn. Consequently, they may be permanently lost to the Movement. When this phenomenon recurs over and over again, in country after country, dissipating invaluable human resources each time, it must be regarded as an extremely serious impediment to the growth of the Movement—an impediment which must be removed or circumvented.

An essential step in this direction is to focus the interest and loyalty of the best National Socialists, wherever they may be, on the one National Socialist movement in this world. They must be able to draw strength and inspiration from their union with Adolf Hitler's single and enduring creation. Then, when a local organization collapses, all is not lost. It can be considered only a temporary setback, so long as the Movement, as a whole, continues to live and grow.

National Socialists who feel themselves bound first of all to the Movement itself can more easily survive the vicissitudes of local organizations, lending their experience to new efforts when earlier ones fail. Thus, the growth of the Movement will not be so subject to the ups and downs of individual groups. As long as the resources of good human material at the disposal of the Movement continue to increase, progress is being made.

It has been the foregoing consideration, primarily, which has led to the institution of the present WUNS policy of seeking Associate Members among individual National Socialists around the world, whether they are already members of a WUNS Affiliate or not. This new policy breaks with previous policy. In particular, it is contrary to Item 10 of the tentative "Cotswold Agreements" of 1962. Item 10, of course, is not the only part of this early set of proposals which necessity has forced us to modify during the past seven years. But it is the most important part, in that its modification brings a critical issue to the surface, where it must be faced squarely: namely, the conflict between parochial state-nationalism and Aryan racial nationalism.

So that there can be no possibility for anyone to misunderstand the WUNS position on this matter, we repeat here what has already been stated several times earlier, particularly in Commander Koehl's article in National Socialist World, No. 6: The only nation to which we, as National Socialists, owe allegiance in the final analysis is our Aryan racial nation; our only true nationalism is Aryan racialism. Whenever a conflict arises between the interests of the State in which we hold citizenship and the interests of Aryandom, we must take our stand with our race and against the State. Thus, we stand firmly opposed not only to race-destroying Jewish internationalism (which is really inter-racialism) and cosmopolitanism, but also to parochial state-nationalism. The latter has, in its own way, done our people at least as much harm as the former.

It should also be understood that this rejection of political parochialism by no means poses a threat to local cultural traditions or implies any sort of general "leveling" scheme. We have no intention whatever of asking Bavarians to give up their beer and lederhosen or Englishmen to do without their tea and umbrellas, to give a couple of slightly facetious examples. But a diversity in local traditions, or even in language, must not be used as an excuse for a splintering of the Movement into dozens of politically autonomous "national" socialist parties. There is, and there must remain, only one National Socialist movement on this earth, and all those who belong to this Movement must always remember that they are bound together by a bond of racial kinship and by their common devotion to Adolf Hitler's mighty Idea, and not primarily by local tradition or language or state-citizenship.

This aspect of our doctrine separates us sharply from all the groups of the patriotic right wing, which may be a bit unnerving to those of us who have spent much of our political lives with these groups. Adolf Hitler's creation, however, is not just a variation on an old theme, but is something totally new under the sun. And the man who would be a National Socialist must have the courage to throw aside all the old, comfortable props and familiar conceptions and accept the uniqueness of the National Socialist idea with all its implications.

It may be worthwhile pointing out once again that which has already been said in an earlier Bulletin: A local program, aimed at mobilizing the general public on some issue, may very well be designed to appeal to parochial sentiments. The same is true of the programs of "front" organizations. But at no place in the world is the Movement strong enough—yet—so that it can afford to concentrate its efforts on mass activities of this sort. Instead, the effort must be on proselytizing and recruiting National Socialists into the Movement. And the way to do that is with a National Socialist program—and nothing less.

Before, we could often be accused of hedging on this issue, of sometimes failing to be completely blunt and forthright, for the sake of protecting the sensibilities of those who could not quite make the break with older conceptions and wholeheartedly accept the new. Any misunderstandings which may have arisen are hopefully cleared up now.

Once again, then, we call for National Socialists everywhere to take a decisive step in this new direction and establish a direct affiliation with the World Union of National Socialists. Within the near future, we would like to have at least the top leadership personnel from all local National Socialist groups registered as WUNS Associate Members. When this has been accomplished, we can look forward to an increasing participation in WUNS affairs by National Socialists from every part of the world.

Application forms for Associate Membership are available from WUNS HQ.

HEADQUARTERS

Annual dues for Associate Members of WUNS have been reduced to $10 (DM 40; £4). Those who have already paid the earlier fee of $20 will be credited for a two-year period. This reduction was made possible through increased operating efficiency at WUNS HQ, which in turn was the result of the acquisition of several pieces of automatic mail-handling machinery by the National Socialist White People's Party, with whom WUNS shares facilities. Persons who have not yet submitted an application form for Associate Membership are urged to do so now.

Please note that the correct mailing address for National Socialist World is: Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia 22205, U.S.A. The former box, number 5537, is no longer used, although mail to that address is still being forwarded to the new box.

WUNS HQ has received a number of complaints from subscribers to National Socialist World—ranging from Finland to Australia—that they have failed to receive their issues of NSW No. 6. All copies were mailed from Washington on March 15, and any that have still not been received by subscribers must be assumed to have been lost in the mail. Please advise us immediately if your copy has not arrived so that reshipment may be made.

All Affiliates and Associate Members are reminded that they should promptly send all reports of local activity and other news items of interest—including photographs and press clippings, whenever possible—to WUNS HQ. Deadline dates for the WUNS BULLETIN are: 1st Quarter, March 1; 2nd Quarter, June 1; 3rd Quarter, September 1; 4th Quarter, December 1.

BRITAIN

The National Socialist Group has announced the imminent appearance of a new National Socialist periodical, to be called Phoenix. The first issue is now at their printer's shop and should be ready shortly.

CANADA

The Canadian National Socialist Party has reported success in its new program of indoor meetings, which are open to the public. Several such meetings held recently in the Toronto area brought a number of new persons into contact with the CNSP.

During one public demonstration in Toronto, on April 20, John Beattie, National Leader of the CNSP, was attacked by a Jewish gang. He was struck on the head with a pair of binoculars by one of his attackers and knocked unconscious. Although several stitches were required to close his wound, Mr. Beattie was back at work within a few hours.

Meanwhile, the Canadian Jewish Congress has succeeded in applying sufficient political pressure to Canadian authorities to have the CNSP's Toronto-area telephone message service temporarily suppressed.

GERMANY

The Occupation Government of Kurt Kiesinger has outlawed the Bund Deutscher National-Sozialisten, arrested and charged several of its leaders, searched their homes, and seized all BDNS and WUNS material in their possession.

The ban was issued by the government on April 30th, and the arrests, searches, and seizures took place during the following weeks, in a campaign of terror and repression designed to crush the last remnants of the National Socialist spirit in Germany. Although those arrested are now facing possible prison terms, their spirits are by no means crushed. Their work will continue with undiminished intensity, even though they are once again forced underground. Neither provocateurs nor repression can halt the resurgence of the Leader's great Idea, in Germany or elsewhere.

No further mail should be sent to the former BDNS address in Hamburg, as all letters there are being intercepted by the political police and returned to the senders.

UNITED STATES

The National Socialist White People's Party has continued to vigorously pursue its Phase Two objectives during the second quarter of 1969. Activism has played an increasingly greater role during this period, with efforts concentrated primarily on the distribution of National Socialist propaganda materials. In the drive to reach an ever-larger audience, aircraft have been used to distribute Party leaflets over major U.S. cities. This increased activism has resulted in several clashes with the authorities, who, for example, have suppressed the Party's White Power Message telephone service in Los Angeles and Chicago. Although the Los Angeles message service is back on the air now, the ban is still in effect in Chicago.

The Party is already looking forward to a major National Socialist event planned for later this year: National Leader Koehl has announced a North American Congress of U.S. and Canadian National Socialists, to be held in Washington from August 30 through September 1. WUNS Associate Members from Europe and elsewhere are cordially invited to attend as observers. This Congress, the first ever held in North America, will serve to mark the 50th anniversary of our Movement.

MISCELLANY

In Italy, the Union of Italian Jewish Communities has instituted court proceedings against a Roman publishing house, The Sentinel of Italy, which has just issued a new Italian edition of Mein Kampf. The Jews are attempting to have the book suppressed on the grounds that it is "an incitement to genocide." They are particularly unhappy about the book's foreword, which refers to the Jewish role in World War II and Jewish atrocities against the Arabs in Palestine.

The West German Post Office recently issued a new series of stamps, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the inauguration of air mail service in Germany. The stamps bear an image of an old Junkers trimotor plane, one of the first types to be used for carrying air mail. To the dismay of the Jews and democrats, some alert observer pointed out that the particular aircraft portrayed, bearing the registration number D-2201, was the very airplane which the Leader had used in his famous series of Deutschlandflüge during the campaigns of 1932!

Turkish patriots have been organizing to counter the growing Jewish domination of their homeland. The National Action Party, several smaller groups, and two major newspapers, "Bugün" and "Sabah," have been active in this campaign. "Sabah" charged that "the chief exploiters of Turkey's economy" are the Jews, who use special privileges granted them by the Turkish government to monopolize many major segments of the economy. "Bugün" has asserted that "the Jews are sucking the life out of the Turkish economy" and has pointed out that the only way to get rid of this problem is to get rid of all the Jews in Turkey.

On April 22 Marxist murderers assassinated the refugee Croat patriot, General Viekoslav, at his home in Carcagente, Spain. The killers, who stabbed General Viekoslav to death, were identified as Tito henchmen. General Viekoslav, who used the cover name "Luburic" in his anti-communist activities, had been a loyal follower of Ante Pavelic and a former Ustasha officer.

Commemorative Dates

July 3: In 1926, at Weimar, the Hitler Youth is founded.

July 18: In 1925, the first volume of Mein Kampf is published.

August 5: In 1962, the World Union of National Socialists is formed.

August 25: In 1967, Lincoln Rockwell is murdered by a Marxist assassin.

September 16: Fifty years ago—in 1919—the history of the Movement begins, as the Leader becomes the seventh member of the German Workers' Party.

"... All men who intend to fight for the same goal should become part of [one] Movement and thereby add to its strength, thus better to serve the common purpose."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, II, 8.

EDITORIAL

Beginning with this issue of WUNS Bulletin, the familiar headings, "Canada" and "United States," will no longer be present. Their place will be taken by the new heading, "North America." This is one of the consequences of the North American Congress which ended September 1.

But this slight change in format cannot begin to tell the significance of the principal accomplishment of the Congress, which was the enthusiastic acceptance by both the Canadian and United States delegations of the centralization of authority for the Movement throughout all of North America in WUNS itself rather than a continued division of authority between the Canadian National Socialist Party and the National Socialist White People's Party.

Centralized authority is the key to a strong, effective Movement. Furthermore, centralization is the natural expression in organizational terms of the race-wide basis of National Socialism. Nevertheless, the drive toward developing a unity of will in the Movement has had to overcome the obstinate resistance of those who have clung stubbornly to their parochial prerogatives, preferring to remain big frogs in small ponds instead of becoming an integral part of a larger and stronger order.

Thus the unanimous and, indeed, spontaneous willingness of the Canadian and United States comrades, inspired by the revolutionary National Socialist fervor which permeated the North American Congress, to submit unconditionally to the central authority of WUNS was particularly gratifying.

Canada and the United States, of course, constitute an extraordinary example in which factors of geography, language, and culture make collaboration toward a common goal particularly easy. In most other cases there are many more natural obstacles to collaboration. Yet, collaborate we must, regardless of the obstacles which must be overcome and the concessions which must be made in individual cases, for that is the path to victory for our race.

HEADQUARTERS

As National Socialist activities around the world have increased during the past year, so has the size of WUNS Bulletin. Shortly its frequency will also increase, reflecting the increased tempo of the Movement. Beginning with issue No. 19, the Bulletin will be issued every two months.

A number of persons who have been receiving WUNS Bulletin will shortly have their names weeded from our mailing list unless we receive their applications for Associate Membership.

North Americans are reminded that all National Socialists—not just “foreigners”—are invited to apply.

An application form is enclosed with this issue. The first year's dues of $10 (DM 40; £4) should be sent to WUNS HQ with the completed application (except in the case of National Socialist activists employed by a National Socialist organization and without other sources of income, for whom dues are waived).

AUSTRALIA

The National Socialist Party of Australia has taken another step forward with the appearance of its Party organ, Australian National Socialist Journal, in a new, attractive format. Published quarterly, the Journal is available by subscription at $2 yearly.

The NSPA has also stepped up its recruiting campaign, and posters like the one shown above have been appearing in public places throughout the Canberra area.

BRITAIN

An incomplete address for the National Socialist Group was given in a previous Bulletin. The correct address is:

BM/NSG 68
London, W.C. 1
ENGLAND

Signs decorated like the one below are certainly no rarity in the United States. This one, however, was photographed near Wellingborough, England, and reflects the growing concern with the Negro problem there.

GERMANY

Since the war a number of organizations in Germany have been banned on the basis of a constitutional provision which automatically outlaws National Socialist and other anti-democratic groups, thereby making Germany "safe for democracy." If one looks at the historical record, however, the interesting fact emerges that in the past twelve centuries the Third Reich is the only regime brought about by a strictly democratic process: The current Bundesrepublik was installed by the Allied Occupation Government. The Weimar Republic came about as a result of the Marxist revolution of 1918. The Second Reich, of Bismarck, was the result of a concord between the German princes. And the First Reich, of Karl the Great, better known as the Holy Roman Empire, was, in theory at least, God's work.

A German news item dated August 15 reminds us of one of the more democratic practices in the Bundesrepublik, namely, successive "trials" of enemies of the regime until a conviction is obtained. The Kiesinger

Government has announced that it intends to ignore the recent acquittal of Hellmuth Reinhard, 57, from a murder charge and will try him again, in the hope of getting a conviction this time. Reinhard, a former officer of the Geheime Staatspolizei, is accused of shooting a Norwegian Communist in 1944.

NORTH AMERICA

One hundred twenty-three delegates from twenty-eight states and provinces of the United States and Canada were registered at the North American Congress of the World Union of National Socialists which met August 30th, 31st, and September 1st in Northern Virginia, near WUNS HQ. WUNS Commander Koehl presided.

Principal speakers at the Congress, in addition to Commander Koehl, were: Mr. John Beattie, National Leader of the Canadian National Socialist Party; Mr. Robert Lloyd, Executive Officer of the National Socialist White People's Party; and Dr. William Pierce, WUNS General Secretary.

A few of the topics covered in some 18 lecture and discussion periods were: "The National Socialist World View" and "Future National Socialist Development," by Commander Koehl; a report on the status of the Movement in Canada, by Mr. Beattie; "Pathology of the System" and "Questions and Answers for National Socialists," by Dr. Pierce; and "The Role of National Socialist Youth" and "Political Warfare Techniques," by Mr. Lloyd. In addition there were a number of local situation and activity reports by individual delegates.

The second evening of the Congress was reserved for formal ceremonies commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Movement by Adolf Hitler.

Twelve of our fallen comrades were designated by Commander Koehl as Heroes of the Movement. These 12 outstanding National Socialists, all of whom died as martyrs, are:*

Frits Clausen, of Denmark	died 1947
Dietrich Eckart, of Germany	died December 26, 1923
Kurt Eggers, of Germany	died 1944
Karl Gebhardt, of Germany	died June 3, 1948
Joseph Goebbels, of Germany.	died May 1, 1945
Wilhelm Gustloff, of Switzerland	died February 4, 1936
William Joyce, of England	died January 3, 1946
Anton Mussert, of the Netherlands	died May 7, 1946
Herbert Norkus, of Germany	died January 24, 1932
Lincoln Rockwell, of the United States	died August 25, 1967
Rost van Tonningen, of the Netherlands	died June 7, 1945
Horst Wessel, of Germany	died February 23, 1930

*The World Union of National Socialists is preparing a memorial booklet with photographs and pertinent facts on these Heroes of the Movement. Copies will be available to WUNS Associate Members shortly.

A special memorial tribute was given to Lincoln Rockwell, assassinated just two years before the Congress.

The ceremonies were followed by a showing of the outstanding National Socialist film produced by Leni Riefenstahl, Triumph des Willens, the setting of which was the 1934 National Socialist Congress at Nürnberg.

The primary purpose for which the Congress was called was the orientation of those National Socialist activists who will be playing a leading role in the intensified development of the Movement in North America in the months ahead. It was necessary to lay down a number of guidelines, both doctrinal and tactical; iron out a number of minor problems and misconceptions resulting from the rapid evolution of the Movement in the last two years; and reinforce that unity of thought and deed in the Movement which is so important for continued strength and progress. On all grounds—and especially the last—the Congress can be considered a resounding success.

The following policy statement was issued by the Congress:

"We, the Canadian and United States delegates to this first North American Congress of the World Union of National Socialists, recognizing the common destiny shared by members of the Aryan race on this continent, do hereby dedicate our efforts to the spiritual and political unification of North America from the Arctic to the Rio Grande in a National Socialist new order, to serve as a base for the construction of a greater Aryan community throughout the world. We furthermore pledge ourselves to support the World Union of National Socialists as the sole bearer of the Movement in North America, with an authority superseding that of either its Canadian or its United States affiliate, and to work toward the total integration of all National Socialist activity on this continent under the banner of the World Union of National Socialists."

SWEDEN

In Norrviken, Sweden, there is a man who has been courageously fighting the enemies of our race since before most of us in the Movement today were born, and he is still at it. He has mailed millions of his leaflets, translated into a dozen languages, into nearly every country on earth. His symbol, a tolling bell with the initials "EA," has become familiar around the world. He has been repeatedly jailed for his efforts, but has never thought of giving up. He is 77 years old this year. His name is Einar Aberg. We salute him.

MISCELLANY

For the last six months world Jewish leaders have been in an uproar over French and German plans to excavate the mass graves at the site of the WWII prison camp of Bergen-Belsen. The French government wants to rebury on French soil the remains of a number of Jews of French citizenship who supposedly perished in the camp.

The intensity of the hue and cry raised by Jewish leaders to prevent the excavation of the Belsen graves may be puzzling to the casual observer. But a closer investigation leads to serious suspicions as to the Jews' real fears in this matter. It is well known that the Allies, upon the surrender of the German guards at various prison camps toward the end of the war, generally converted such camps to their own use. After releasing the Jews and other criminals interned in a camp, the Allies would then fill it with German POW's and civilian National Socialists. Many tens of thousands of Germans perished in these camps after the war—a fact which has been almost entirely suppressed by the world press.

A few of the gruesome facts have leaked out, however. Earlier this year, construction workers at the site of the former Hechtsheim concentration camp, near Mainz, accidentally unearthed a mass grave containing the corpses of nearly a thousand German POW's, still in their German Army uniforms. Similar findings have been made at other camps. At Dachau, for example, the entire contingent of more than 600 SS guards was murdered by a gang of Jews after surrendering to the U.S. Army on April 29, 1945. Their bodies were bulldozed into a mass grave, which was only recently reopened.

Now we can understand why Jewish leaders are so adamantly opposed to the opening of the Belsen graves, which supposedly contain the corpses of 50,000 gassed Jews. There are indeed tens of thousands of bodies buried at Belsen. But whose?

Commemorative Dates

October 16: In 1946 the Nürnberg Martyrs are killed by the democrat-Red Allies.

November 9: In 1923 the Sixteen fall in the Munich Massacre.

In 1925 the SS is founded.

December 10: In 1926 the second volume of Mein Kampf appears.

December 20: In 1924 the Leader leaves Landsberg Prison to begin rebuilding the Movement.

December 26: In 1923 Dietrich Eckart dies at Berchtesgaden. His death follows by only a few days his release from prison, where a bad heart condition has been seriously aggravated.

EDITORIAL

One thing which cannot be over-emphasized is the necessity of distinguishing between appearance and essence in our Movement; we must always be aware of the distinction between outer form and inner meaning.

To be sure, under ideal conditions there should be the closest possible harmony between the external manifestations of the National Socialist idea and its innermost significance.

But it can safely be said that nowhere in the world today do we have conditions which even remotely approach the ideal. The consequence is that while the essentials remain always the same the externals vary widely, not only from one part of the world to another, but from one year to the next at any given place. And as long as the Movement is still struggling for victory this will remain so. That is, it will be expediency alone—the necessity imposed by ever-changing conditions and circumstances—which will determine the outward form and appearance of the Movement.

At one time and in one place the Movement may seem to be not much more than an agency for publishing and distributing political pamphlets, as it concentrates its efforts on problems of internal development; somewhere else its strenuous street activity may more nearly resemble that of a syndicate of Balkan bomb-throwers than of a publishing society. And we would be making a serious mistake if we thought that merely by observing these varying outward forms we could draw any profound conclusions about the inner essence of the National Socialist movement.

The reason it is necessary to point this fact out from time to time is that there is often a tendency to ascribe to some of these outward forms more importance and significance than they merit. At worst, some individuals may look on these forms as ends in themselves, rather than merely means to an end—means which must be discarded without hesitation when the end demands the service of new and different means. For our end is neither pamphlet-publishing nor bomb-throwing, but winning for Adolf Hitler's mighty Idea a universal pre-eminence, so that it can form the basis for the future growth of our Aryan race, everywhere and for all time.

In particular, we often find the tendency to seize on the external forms which the Movement displayed in Germany until 1945 as being themselves the essence of National Socialism. This may be understandable on the part of the general public, whose ideas about our Movement have been shaped almost solely by the mass media. But it is inexcusable on the part of those who call themselves National Socialists.

Indeed, we probably all feel a nostalgia for those glorious days in Germany. But we must in no way let this nostalgia hinder our ability to think clearly about and deal effectively with the obstacles which the Movement faces here and now. And it is a real hindrance to stubbornly cling to these manifestations of another era, when by so doing one makes not only himself but the Movement seem ridiculous to a public which must eventually be won for that Movement.

The antics of the Luger-and-monocle set have been mentioned before [National Socialist World, 5 (Winter, 1967), p. 93], but the tendency is, unfortunately, still with us. People who see in their clowning about in uniforms anything essentially National Socialist are badly mistaken. It was the Leader himself who pointed out to us the foolishness of those "who cannot distinguish externals from essentials."

In this regard it is well to remind ourselves that Adolf Hitler had the very deepest sentiment for the ancient folkish traditions of our race. His boyhood friend, August Kubizek, relates that his favorite book—one which he read over and over again—was a volume of old Germanic legends and heroic sagas. And his lifelong love for Wagner's heroic operas, based on Northern folk legends, is well known. Yet, he had nothing but contempt for those escapists and exhibitionists "who brandish scholarly, tin imitations of old German swords and wear a dressed bearskin with bull's horns over their bearded heads."

He pointed out that these people "rave about old Germanic heroism, about dim prehistory, stone axes, spear, and shield, but in reality are the greatest cowards imaginable"—because they are unwilling to abandon their "security blankets" and face the harsh reality of the present-day struggle.

"I came to know these people too well not to feel the profoundest disgust at their miserable play-acting. But they make a ridiculous impression on the broad masses. . . .

"If anything is unfolkish, it is this tossing around of old Germanic expressions which neither fit into the present period nor represent anything definite, but can easily lead to seeing the significance of a movement in its outward vocabulary. This is a real menace which today can be observed on countless occasions."

If we substitute "heel-clicking and sieg-heiling" for "tossing around of old Germanic expressions" and "bits and pieces of old SA or SS uniforms" for "a dressed bearskin with bull's horns," the Leader's warning can be applied almost word for word today.

HEADQUARTERS

The seventh issue of National Socialist World is several months overdue, as all its subscribers have certainly noticed. It will be published eventually. Meanwhile, subscribers are urged to abate their appetites with periodicals which are being published more-or-less regularly—such as White Power. It may help to think of National Socialist World as a book which is published once or twice a year, rather than as a magazine which is expected promptly every three months. Someday National Socialist World will actually appear quarterly, but at the present time more emphasis is being placed on increasing the frequency of publication of the Movement's mass-circulation materials.

AUSTRALIA

Outside North America the fastest-growing National Socialist group is the National Socialist Party of Australia. The NSPA's intensive recruiting campaign of recent months, mentioned in the last WUNS Bulletin, has resulted in a number of new members, substantially increased support, and a great deal of publicity in the Australian press. The bias of the major Australian newspapers is approximately the same as that of the press in other parts of the English-speaking world, so that most of this publicity has been of the "Oy-vey-it's-heppening-again!" variety, but there has indeed been a flood of it.

The Australian government's abandonment of its previous "White Australia" policy and the anti-Vietnam activities of Australian Reds and pacifists have been strongly attacked by the NSPA in its leaflets and other propaganda. Recently there have been street clashes between NSPA members and communist demonstrators which have received press notice.

INDIA

An interesting political organization is on the rise in India. Calling itself Shiv Sena (Army of Shiva), the three-year-old organization already has well over half-a-million members, principally in the west-central state of Maharashtra, whose capital and principal city is Bombay.

Organized along military lines, the Shiv Sena was formed to further the interests of the Marathas, principal ethnic group of Maharashtra. Its hero is Shivaji, a 17th-century warrior-leader who led his fellow Marathas to victory over their Mogul overlords and established an independent Hindu kingdom.

The leader of Shiv Sena is Bal Keshav Thackeray, a 43-year-old Maratha artist. He has not hesitated to use strong measures in advancing his party and has come into repeated conflict with the democratic government. During one four-day street brawl in Bombay in February, more than 50 demonstrators were killed by police.

Several Indian government figures have demanded that Shiv Sena be banned, comparing some of its ideas and methods with those of the NSDAP. When questioned by newsmen Thackeray denied that he thought of himself as another Adolf Hitler, but he said: "Did not Hitler unite Germany and give his people a sense of purpose, a pride in their past, and a hope for their future?"

IRELAND

Ireland is the one English-speaking nation which did not take the side of the enemies of our race and our Movement in the last World War. Despite the well-financed activities of Jewish and liberal propagandists for many years, one finds that an acceptance in Ireland of National Socialist ideas is impeded by anti-Nazi brainwashing to a much smaller extent than elsewhere. Thus, only in Ireland today could a postage stamp like the one shown here be issued by the government.

NORTH AMERICA

Following last quarter's North American Congress there has been a great increase in the distribution of National Socialist propaganda materials in Canada. In particular this has been true of the newspaper, White Power, which now serves as a combined party organ for both the National Socialist White People's Party and the Canadian National Socialist Party.

In October the NSWPP launched its Fall Building Campaign, the purpose of which was to double the financial resources of the Party. Every member and supporter was asked to do one of two things: either recruit at least one new member or supporter for the Party, or double his own monthly contribution to the Party. The response to this campaign did not reach 100% before the end of the year, but a few late responders are still trickling in. Although the results were less than hoped for, the monthly operating income of the Party did increase by an impressive amount during the last quarter.

National Socialist Bookstore
2030 Front Street
Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio 44221
USA

Also in November the eighth and ninth White Power Message telephone lines went into service, in Fresno, California. On December 19, the tenth line went into service, in Akron, Ohio.

On December 23, however, the two lines in Los Angeles were disconnected by order of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County. A Negro city councilman had petitioned the court for the disconnect order, claiming that the White Power Messages were offensive to members of his race. This is the second time the Los Angeles message service has been suppressed by the authorities.

A 48-hour vigil on behalf of Rudolf Hess was held in Washington December 22-24. NSWPP members erected a large picture of Hess on Pennsylvania Avenue, directly opposite the White House, and distributed leaflets to passersby.

Two young National Socialists affiliated with the NSWPP were imprisoned during the last quarter. One was Michael Gauss, of Arlington, Virginia, who was sentenced to 90 days in a federal reformatory for allegedly disrupting several Washington performances of a motion picture promoting miscegenation. The other was Douglas Neher, of Redwood City, California, who was sentenced to three years in a state prison for allegedly bombing a Communist meeting hall near San Francisco.

About Those "Atrocity" Photographs . . .

On November 18, Warsaw newspapers carried the story of a local school principal's run-in with the Polish political police. The principal, identified only as Olgierd Z., had taken the pupils from his school to an exhibition on "Nazi war crimes." Several pupils stopped before a large photograph showing a scowling Gestapo officer brandishing a bullwhip, as emaciated slave laborers cowered in the background.

"That's our principal!" they squealed.

The principal was taken to the police station, where he vehemently denied ever having been a National Socialist or a Gestapo officer. But when police showed the photograph to his wife, she also identified the sadistic Gestapo officer as her husband.

Just as things were beginning to look pretty black for Olgierd Z., he remembered that 23 years earlier—back in 1946—he had played the part of a Gestapo officer in a Polish film production. Several actors contacted by police—one as far away as Tel Aviv—backed up his story.

As for those emaciated slave laborers—it turned out that they were German prisoners lent to the moviemakers for the occasion. Red-faced Communist officials are now trying to determine how the photograph found its way into their exhibition.

MISCELLANY

Rudolf Hess was transferred in November from his cell in Spandau Fortress to a closely guarded room in a West Berlin military hospital by his British jailers. He is being treated for stomach ulcers.

In December he was granted a 30-minute visit by his wife and son in his hospital room. This is the first such visit he has had in more than 28 years of imprisonment.

Increasing interest has been shown in Hess' case in recent months by various mass media. Every effort on the part of National Socialists to publicize the issues involved in Hess' imprisonment, therefore, is particularly likely to receive public notice at this time.

In Italy, as the corrupt and incompetent Christian-Socialist-Democratic regime proves itself more and more incapable of solving Italy's problems, neo-Fascist activity is on the rise—particularly in the North. Neo-Fascists have been battling Communists in the streets of Milan recently. In November, Rome also saw a major neo-Fascist demonstration.

Another of the blessings of democracy was bestowed on the people of West Germany by their "leaders" in the Bundestag in 1969. Homosexual acts between consenting adults have finally been legalized again, thus striking down the last of the “repressive” laws of the National Socialist era. Already a number of “gay” bars and clubs have opened their doors in Berlin, lending the city once again a bit of that atmosphere it enjoyed before 1933.

Commemorative Dates

January 24: In 1932 Herbert Norkus, 15-year-old Hitlerjunge, is murdered by Marxists in Berlin. Hero of the Movement.

January 30: In 1933 the Movement achieves power in Germany as the Leader becomes Chancellor. The work of building a New Order for Aryan man begins.

February 23: In 1930 Horst Wessel dies after being shot by Marxists. Hero of the Movement.

February 24: In 1920, in the Festsaal of the Hofbräuhaus, Munich, the Leader proclaims the Twenty-Five Points of the National Socialist program (Mein Kampf, I, 12).

March 8: In 1959 the National Socialist White People's Party is born in Arlington.

EDITORIAL

The 1960's have been called "The Violent Decade." Such a label is a bit premature, for the Black riots in America, the student disorders everywhere, and the handful of major political assassinations which occurred in the 1960's will look pretty trifling in retrospect when compared with the violence the 1970's surely hold.

Already the first few weeks of this decade have witnessed a significant escalation in the level of violence in America, with the wave of bombings the New Left has touched off.

One cannot say with any degree of certainty what will happen next or where: there may be another major Negro riot in an American city; a European political head may be shot; a municipal reservoir may be poisoned; students who have heretofore largely restricted themselves to bricks and bicycle chains may substitute firearms. But it is certain that the disorder will grow and will become more violent.

The reasoning behind this certainty is not based on calculations of a worsening economic situation, or a timetable for the implementation of the next stage of some large-scale communist conspiracy, or the extrapolation of statistical data on the crime rate or the colored birth rate, or anything else of the sort. It is based on the inherent nature of the liberal-democratic System which presently smothers the whole Western world.

Liberalism is a morbidly pathological condition—an inevitably fatal sickness—and the society infected with it, though it may linger along the way for quite a while and survive many agonies and convulsions, can only go from bad to worse to ultimate dissolution and death once the sickness has firmly established its grip on all that society's vital institutions.

No State can long maintain itself unless one or both of the following circumstances holds: either the State governs with the consent and the respect of the governed, or the State possesses not only the means but also the unified will to govern with or without that consent and respect. Today there is no longer a major Western State in which either of these circumstances strictly holds.

Liberalism has thoroughly sapped the will of the West to defend itself against its internal enemies. The ever-wider recognition of this loss of will is inexorably undermining the respect for State authority.

At the same time a small but rapidly growing segment of the populace, having recognized the morbid condition of the States governing them—although generally having incorrectly assigned the blame for that morbidity—are withdrawing their consent to be governed and turning to more-or-less violent revolt.

Because the pathological condition responsible for these developments is an irreversible one, they cannot be expected to be ameliorated or circumvented—in the long run—regardless of the expedencies to which the System may resort.

Thus, although we cannot hope to guess just what catastrophes may or may not occur next month or even next year, we can be sure that the general trend toward more disorder, more violence, and more anarchy will continue. For us this means two things: namely, that we will find increasingly more people abandoning their spiritual attachment to the old order and opening their minds to the possibility of new conceptions; and, secondly, that the timetable for the development of our own revolutionary resources must be tightened up.

In the period ahead we will find continually expanding opportunities in the form of a growing mass of potential recruits, and at the same time we will be obliged to eliminate all dawdling and assign the utmost urgency to the task of converting this potential mass into an actual revolutionary army.

The second North American Congress of delegates from the World Union of National Socialists will be held in the Washington area on September 5, 6, and 7 of this year. Further details of time, location, and agenda will be published in later issues of WUNS Bulletin.

The initial announcement is being made now, however, so that persons in Europe, Britain, Australia, and elsewhere who may wish to attend as guest delegates may begin making plans well in advance.

AUSTRALIA

The National Socialist Party of Australia is continuing its rapid growth through a strong program of activism. The photograph and caption on p.3, which appeared on the front page of the January 15 Canberra Times, largest daily in the Australian capital, certainly didn't hurt the NSPA.

Mr Howard Bruce, right, a member of the Australian National Socialist Party, snatches away an Australian flag about to be burnt by an anti-war protester outside Parliament House yesterday.

The Afro-Asian immigrant problem remains foremost in the minds of racially conscious Britons.

The same people who took Britain into World War II and then presided over the sinking of the Empire afterward have brought more than 1.5 million colored immigrants from India, Pakistan, Africa, the Caribbean, and the Far East into the United Kingdom in the past 20 years. The alleged motive was to transform the formerly Anglo-Saxon nation into a gloriously liberal showplace of multi-racial living. The result, however, has been sheer hell. Crime, disorder, disease, and public welfare expenditures have soared, while the enthusiasm of native-born Englishmen for the multi-racial experiment has remained at rock bottom throughout. Many English industrial cities have already acquired both the racial complexion and the racial problems of U.S. cities.

Liberals are hard to discourage, though, and they are persisting in their racially destructive madness. In order to silence their critics, they added to the body of English law in 1965 the notorious Race Relations Act, making it a penal offense to criticize by written or spoken word or to incite public sentiment against any racial group.

Nevertheless, a number of Britons do manage to make their feelings known. One journal¹ published by a group of British nationalists recently reprinted without comment the following extract from the Acts of the Privy Council of Queen Elizabeth I, dated August 11, 1596: "Her Majestie, understanding that there are of late divers blackamoors brought into this realme, of which kinde of people there are already too manie considering how God hath blessed this land with great increase of people of our own nation . . . those kinde of people should be sent forth of the land."

Another issue of the same journal carried the results of an imaginary opinion poll, in which war veterans were asked the question: "Would you have fought to keep the Germans out if you had envisaged the present immigrant influx?" The percentage breakdown of answers ran as follows:

"Not bloody likely!"	60%
"Certainly not."	25%
"I can't decide now."	5%
"I am emigrating."	10%

ITALY

The most active of the various Italian Fascist² groups, Movimento Sociale Italiano (MSI), has been attracting a great deal of attention recently as it has engaged both the Reds and the Italian authorities in the streets in ever-growing numbers. The clipping below is from the *Daily World*³ for March 10:

Neofascists on rampage

ROME — Workers beat off an attack by Italian black-shirted neofascists Sunday in Brèscia. A gang of thugs wearing uniforms with swastikas and armed with brass-knuckles, sticks, metal rods and guns assaulted the building which houses the district organizations of the Communist Party, Socialist Party of Proletarian Unity and National Association of Italian Guerrillas. The police arrested 28 of the gang of neofascists who belong to the Italian Social Movement.

The growth of MSI has been especially rapid among university students. In a February 6 demonstration at the University of Rome involving several hundred MSI members, police arrested 96 students for using the forbidden "Roman salute."

Arab Prisoners Tortured by Jews

In the occupied Arab territories of the Middle East, Jews have used the most brutal means imaginable in suppressing the conquered Arab population. Villages suspected of harboring Arab guerrillas have been leveled and the entire populations massacred by the Jews. This principle of "collective guilt," first established by the Jews at the Nuremberg Trial in 1946, has been applied even in larger cities, where entire blocks of Arab homes have been dynamited if even one home in the block was owned by a relative of a suspected guerrilla.

Even more shocking, however, is the gruesome treatment dealt out to Arabs in the Jewish prison camps. Torture is routinely used by the Jews in interrogating Arab suspects picked up in periodic sweeps through residential areas. If the Jews become convinced that an Arab has actually engaged in guerrilla activity, they will often torture their unfortunate victim to death.

Jews have relied on their tight control of most of the Western world's news media to suppress any unfavorable comments about these gruesome activities, but stories are leaking out in the press anyway. The Los Angeles Times, for example, recently carried an article by correspondent Louis B. Fleming which reported on the Jewish torture of Arab prisoners.

This Arab guerrilla escaped from a prison camp in Palestine after being left for dead by his Jewish captors. They had torn strips of flesh from his living body with pliers and mangled his left arm so badly by repeatedly slamming a door on it that it had to be amputated. He is one of many similarly treated.

Austria Under Jewish-Red Control

Bruno Kreisky, son of a rich Jewish wool merchant, is the new Chancellor of Austria. With the Austrian vote split among a number of political parties, Kreisky was able to seize control of the Austrian government after the election of March 1 gave his Socialist Party 81 out of 165 seats in the National Assembly.

Kreisky has exercised control over Austria's largest Marxist party since 1967. Like Willy Brandt, he hid out in Sweden during the war. He returned to Vienna in 1951 and began using his father's wealth to finance his political career.

24 Coffins for 38 Crash Victims

When Arab patriots placed a time bomb aboard a Swiss airliner bound for Tel Aviv on February 21, 38 passengers and the crew of nine were killed in the crash. We applaud the Arabs' action, although we mourn for the nine Swiss crew members who perished.

The Jewish government in Palestine immediately demanded that Swiss officials turn over to them for burial the corpses of the 24 Jews who had been aboard. The bodies of many of the 38 passengers were so badly mangled, however, that it was impossible to sort the Jews out from the non-Jews. Whereupon, the Jewish government decided to accept delivery of the remains of all 38 passengers.

These remains would be distributed among only 24 coffins for burial, however, announced Chief Rabbi Isser Unterman, because there had been only 24 Jews on the airplane!

Vehement protests from relatives of the 14 non-Jewish victims were ignored, and the Jews arrogantly proceeded with the 24-coffin burial as announced.

EDITORIAL

The Christian Church has been a Western institution for about a thousand years; in some parts of the West its influence goes back further than that and in some areas a bit less. But, for several reasons, the role played by the Church¹ in Western society is undergoing a fairly rapid and a fairly drastic change now.

In general, the influence of the Church is on the wane, and, even though it maintains considerable strength in some sectors, it is probably not an exaggeration to say that the Church is dying—as a Western institution. (This reservation will become clear shortly.)

There is a great deal of objective evidence to support this conclusion:

- In both Europe and North America church attendance is dropping sharply. Between 1959 and 1969 overall attendance at both Catholic and Protestant churches in the United States dropped by approximately one-sixth. More significantly, in that same decade church attendance by young adults in the age bracket 21-29 years dropped by one-third.

- Bible sales have fallen 30% in the 1959-1969 decade.

- All sects are suffering from a critical shortage of priests, as more priests every year return to secular life and fewer young men enter the seminaries. This drastic decline in the number of priests can be seen, for example, in the almost complete substitution of laymen for priests on the faculties of most church-owned schools.

The decline in the strength of organized Christianity is an interesting phenomenon which is closely tied to the revolutionary changes which have been taking place in the Western world for the last century—and especially since World War II. Without attempting a detailed analysis here, let it suffice to say that, like the dinosaur, the Church has failed in its struggle to adapt successfully to radical changes in its environment.

Unlike the dinosaur, however, the Church is certainly not dying gracefully or with dignity. Its attempts to maintain its grip have led it to plumb the depths of degeneracy in a degenerate age.² And yet, becoming “mod” and “relevant” has not won for the Church the affection of the present generation; it has only lost the respect of a portion of the old generation. Pot and pacifism and “love” have served as a poor substitute for fear and awe.

But the Church is not dead yet. Left to its own devices, it would probably linger in the West for another hundred years or more before becoming a negligible factor in the overall scheme of things. For though it has lost its former position of absolute moral authority, tradition still lends a not inconsiderable weight to its influence. Many Christians who are no longer fervent in their adherence to the Church’s doctrines—even those who no longer attend church services—still allow their opinions and attitudes to be governed to a greater or lesser extent by the Church.

Unfortunately, this influence is being sadly misused. The Church, in turning away from purely theological matters and concerning itself primarily with politics and social and racial policies instead, has—on virtually every major issue—taken a position diametrically opposed to ours.

In Germany, for instance, the hostility—or, at best, foot-dragging—of the Church during the period 1933-1945 is well known. Since the war many prominent churchmen have openly boasted of their former treacherous activities of behalf of the enemies of National Socialism.

And in those parts of the world where our race is faced with the menace of miscegenation—America and southern Africa, and, to a growing degree now, England and Australia—the Church has quite clearly taken its stand with the proponents of mongrelization.

The Church once stood as a bitter and determined opponent of the communist movement. Today it has—at best—settled on peaceful coexistence with this deadly enemy of mankind. At worst—and this is becoming more common every day—it has become an enthusiastic collaborator, not only with formally recognized Marxist groups, but with practically every ragtag band of untermenschen big enough to organize a street demonstration in the United States or overthrow the ruling clique in some banana republic.

²See National Socialist Liberator, December 1969.

Thus, although there may be grounds for argument about the negative or positive value of the Church's past activities, there can be no argument about the present. Today the Christian Church is playing a racially destructive role; the damage it is doing to the cause of Aryan man far outweighs any possible remnant virtues it may possess.

As a consequence, we have no choice but to recognize the Church as an enemy of the race and act accordingly, even though this may be a painful step for many of us. We may be inclined to recall with nostalgia the time when the Church was closely tied up with the Germanic drive of conquest to the East, with the Crusades and the defense of the West against the Moors or the Mongol hordes. But those times are irrevocably past.

The fact is that Christendom has always been, in theory, a community of faith rather than of blood. Even our appreciation of the Church's centuries-long opposition to Jewish influences in Europe must be tempered by the realization that this opposition was only superficial, being based as it was on purely religious grounds. Now, of course, with the Church stressing more and more the connection between Christianity and Judaism, even this superficial opposition has disappeared. Under insistent prodding from Church liberals, every bit of the Christian liturgy is being carefully "modernized" to bring it into line with the new Judeo-Christian way of looking at things. Even the beautiful and moving Passion Play at Oberammergau has recently been twisted into conformity with the new line by removing or recasting all those portions which portrayed Jews in a bad light.

A strong word of caution is in order on one point: Many Christians—and a few non-Christian admirers of the Church—have taken the position that the Church's faults today are simply the consequence of liberal and Jewish subversion; that the Church is really a fortress of goodness, sorely beset now by its enemies, but worthy of being defended and set right once again for the ultimate good of our race. This is a mistaken view.

To be sure, a great deal of subversion has taken place in the Church. The trouble, however, goes far deeper than that; one can begin to see just how deep by looking at the changing racial complexion of Christendom. Just as with all cultural phenomena, the Church reflects the racial characteristics of the human masses who give it life. When the Holy Roman Empire was the secular arm of Christendom, those masses were substantially Aryan. Today they are not.

Approximately half the Christians in the world today are non-White, and by the end of this millennium non-White Christians will outnumber White Christians by three to two, if the present shift of Christendom's center of gravity to the south continues. Regardless of the reasons for this shift, it is real and has proceeded far beyond any possibility of recall.

Thus, the Church can no longer be regarded as an Aryan institution, and those who serve it cannot also wholeheartedly serve our race. Christians who also want to be National Socialists will be obliged to practise their Christianity outside the framework of the Church.

New Membership Category

A new category of affiliation with the World Union of National Socialists has been established: Corresponding Membership. Any person who wishes to become a Corresponding Member needs merely to send his name and complete mailing address to WUNS HQ, along with $2 yearly dues, and he will receive the WUNS Bulletin regularly. There are no other obligations or benefits.

"Nazi" Drug Ring Broken

Newspapers around the world recently carried the story of the seizure by police of $9 million in narcotics, which had been smuggled into the United States, supposedly by a "Nazi" drug ring operating in Argentina. Head "Nazi" in the ring, arrested by police in New York at the time of the drug seizure, was one James Cohen. Some "Nazi"!

French Archbishop Would Silence Jews' Enemies

As sympathy for the Arab cause and a feeling of repugnance for Jew crimes in Palestine grows among Frenchmen, criticism of Jews is becoming increasingly open in France. And this despite Jewish control of the public-opinion-forming machinery in France, as elsewhere. In addition, hostility toward Jews has been increased greatly by such acts of Jewish arrogance as the recent pirating of five new armored patrol boats from a French port by Israeli agents.

The Jews have wheeled out one of their big guns to silence the French goyim. On April 17 the Archbishop of Paris, Francois Cardinal Marty, issued a statement condemning the growing anti-Jewish feeling. "France is in danger of racism," the Prince of the Church declared. "We must forbid words of hate, ban racist articles and publications." He went on to propose legislation which could be used to jail those publicly making anti-Jewish comments.

UN Honors Top Bolshevik

The United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) has organized an international symposium in honor of Lenin's 100th birthday this year. Participants will discuss "the historical influence of his humanistic ideas and activity in the development and realization of economic, social, and cultural rights." So now we know what the UN admirers mean when they talk about "humanism" and "rights."

German Capitalists Import More Southern Workers

The big German industrialists, anxious for an ever-larger labor pool, have imported more than 1.3 million foreign workers from southern Europe. A recent survey revealed that one in four of these imported workers eventually marries a German.

National Socialism Gaining Among Police

Negro and Marxist groups have stepped up their terrorist activities in American cities recently with a wave of bombings of police stations and other public buildings. A by-product of this activity—especially the attacks on policemen—has been a surge of new police recruits for the National Socialist White People's Party. The Party has received a particularly favorable response from police officers in Washington, Chicago, and Detroit. The clipping below is from a recent issue of the Chicago Sun-Times.

Racist literature in police mail

By William Granger

A congressional candidate charged Sunday that "Nazi hate literature" is being sent to white policemen through the police department's internal mail system.

Augustus A. (Gus) Savage, candidate for the 3d Congressional District Democratic nomination, made his charges at a sidewalk press conference in front of police headquarters at 1121 S. State.

He displayed an envelope bearing the police department's return address and addressed to a white officer in the 10th District. Inside the envelope were two leaflets from the National Socialist White People's Party, 2507 N. Franklin, Arlington, Va. One envelope bore the Nazi swastika symbol.

Integrity in question

Savage said he had sent a telegram to Supt. James B. Conlisk Jr. demanding an investigation into the alleged misuse of the police mail system. He said the integrity of the police was in question until the persons responsible for the mailings were found.

Frank Sullivan, spokesman for the department, said the internal mail system is not supposed to be used for any private correspondence.

Liberals Pushing Miscegenation in New Zealand

A few years ago New Zealand had a nearly ideal racial situation, with its population almost completely of British descent. Jews comprised only a little over 0.1% of the population, and the few native Maoris were headed rapidly for extinction.

Then the "humanitarians" took a hand in things. Maoris were given medical aid and other government assistance and were moved from their villages to the White population centers. With a birthrate far exceeding that of the Whites, their population spurted, and they now comprise nearly 8% of the population.

With the cost of supporting the fast-growing Maori population becoming more burdensome by the year, the New Zealand government hit upon a typically liberal solution for this unexpected dividend of their humanitarianism: a program of deliberate miscegenation, with the ultimate aim of a complete mixing of the Maori and European racial groups. Government housing, employment, and educational policies are all directed toward this goal. The photograph below, of a Maori male dating a White New Zealand girl, accompanied a New Zealand newspaper article encouraging such activity.

Race problems — here a Maori youth and European girl — have diminished.

Australian National Socialists to Try for Senate

The National Socialist Party of Australia has nominated 10 candidates for the Australian Senate. They will enter the elections to be held in November of this year in New South Wales, Victoria, and Queensland.

ARGENTINES FORM SECRET NAZI CLUB

Group Has Been Linked to Murder and Robberies

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Un- on the screen in the darkened room, newsreel shots of the last days of Berlin in World War II showed buildings crumbling under bombs from Allied planes. The small audience of men stirred, but there was no comment.

When the lights went on, one man rose, faced the silent group of young men before him, and said:

"You have just seen the most heroic defenders of Western Christian civilization dying in their beloved city's ruins while the rest of the world applauded in glee!"

A murmur of assent arose as the man, wearing a brown shirt with a swastika armband, continued to speak of the glory that was Nazi Germany.

An Indoctrination Meeting

The occasion was an indoctrination meeting for new members of an ultranationalist, neo-Nazi organization called "Tacuara." The place was an apartment in downtown Buenos Aires.

Tacuara is a relatively tiny, officially outlawed organization in this country of 23 million. It says it has 5,000 members who

But Tacuara has also been linked with bank robberies, murder and arson. Nine militant Tacuara members broke out of jail in 1964 and are still at large after they were arrested for a 1963 holdup in which $40,000 was taken from a hospital in Buenos Aires.

Tacuara was blamed for the slaying of a 32-year-old Jewish salesman, Raul Alterman, in 1964. Six members were arrested for the killing, but were set free for lack of evidence. Since then Tacuara members have been known to boast that the organization did murder Mr. Alderman as "revenge" for the deaths of three of its members in Rosario, Argentina's second largest city. The youths were cut down in a gunfight that broke out at a union hall.

Arson Charged

Jewish leaders blame Tacuara for a 1968 fire that destroyed an Israeli industrial exhibition in Buenos Aires.

One prominent Jewish leader, who asked that his name not be mentioned, said that neither the Government nor the police seemed to act against Tacuara and charged that was because many of the organization's members were sons of influential military officials.

Japanese Nationalism Growing

Even 25 years of force-fed democratic liberalism has not completely killed what is best in the Japanese people. This year there has been an acceleration in the growth of Japanese youth groups based on patriotism and devotion to traditional values. Many of these groups are training their members in hand-to-hand combat and other martial arts, in anticipation of full-scale street fights with leftists this summer.

Unrest Rising in Canada's West

Canada's three western farming provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta—are suffering from severe economic depression, with thousands of wheat farmers facing complete ruin. The almost total indifference to the farmers' plight displayed by Canadian Premier Pierre Elliot Trudeau and his liberal government is causing rising anger and unrest in the West. Canadian farmers have recently held several massive demonstrations against the Trudeau regime, and there is growing talk of secession from the rest of Canada by the western provinces.

Although Trudeau, who is known as a "swinger," has been too busy to work with the farmers on their problems, he is regularly seen enjoying the night life of the capital.

EDITORIAL

Most National Socialists have looked upon the increasing dissolution of society and breakdown of order as a necessary prerequisite to a National Socialist revolution which can re-establish society on a new basis and build a New Order. We have applauded silently, even while shaking our heads in disapproval, at every new riot, bombing, or jump in crime statistics.

Now, while the long-term trend certainly will not reverse itself, there are always jiggles in the graph. Political action by the Left eventually evokes a reaction from even the great, passive masses of the Middle. This usually takes the form of a great hustle and bustle about "restoring law and order" or "fighting subversion" or something of the sort. Sometimes such a reaction will last for two or three years before the citizenry once again settles down into an inert stupor.

In the United States we witnessed such a reaction in the early 1950's; it was called "the McCarthy era." Another reaction is beginning to set in now.

The unfortunate thing about these reactions is that they are blind and stupid rather than planned and rational. They may burn the Jews' fingers, for they are nearly always xenophobic to a greater or lesser extent, but they may also hurt us severely.

Thus, a period of reaction can offer certain opportunities for growth of the Movement, but it can also offer Jewry and its allies an opportunity to damage us. When the public is fed up with "outside agitators" and "revolutionaries" its wrath can as easily be directed at us as at the Reds. And to the extent that that wrath can be directed at all, the Jews are presently in a much better position to direct it than we are.

That, I'm afraid, is the way Canada's new "hate-propaganda" law came about. At a time when the people are very nervous about inter-racial tensions, practically any law which is against "incitement" will be accepted. We are certainly in for similar measures in the United States, and perhaps elsewhere, in the near future.

Since we cannot meekly acquiesce to efforts to muzzle or outlaw the Movement, we are forced thereby to a certain amount of illegal activity, which in turn can make us even more a target of any temporary reaction.

So let us not be too quick to rejoice in the face of the current "hardhat" demonstrations or other signs of a reaction against the Left. We should instead brace ourselves for more "hate-propaganda" laws.

CNSP and NSWPP Merge

On June 18 the Canadian National Socialist Party was formally dissolved by its National Leader, Mr. John Beattie, in consultation with WUNS HQ.

All former CNSP members may immediately become members of the National Socialist White People's Party by submitting completed application forms with their first month's dues of $5 to WUNS HQ. The customary application fee and interview are waived.

All former CNSP supporters are invited to become Official Supporters of the NSWPP by submitting completed application forms with their initial contributions to WUNS HQ.

Both Official Supporter and Membership application forms are available from WUNS HQ upon request.

Henceforth, the National Socialist White People's Party will be the sole National Socialist party for North America. No other group is authorized to act in North America for the Movement, and all contributions, membership dues, and orders for the purchase of propaganda materials should be sent only to WUNS HQ.

Jews Impose Canadian Thought Control

With the recent success of the Canadian Jewish Congress in ramming the so-called "hate-propaganda" law through both houses of the Canadian Parliament, Canadian citizens lost a very substantial portion of their freedom of speech.

The new Canadian law goes far beyond even the notorious British Race Relations Act of 1965. It sets a penalty of five years imprisonment for anyone who "advocates or promotes": (a) the killing of members of any racial, religious, or ethnic group, or (b) inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its destruction.

It furthermore sets a penalty of two years imprisonment for anyone who "incites" or "promotes" hatred against any group through any means of "communicating statements." "Statements" are defined to include "words spoken or written or recorded electronically or electromagnetically or otherwise, and gestures, signs or other visible representations." "Communicating" is defined to include "communicating by telephone, broadcasting, or other audible or visible means."

Finally, the law authorizes the government to confiscate all books, newspapers, and other printed material deemed by any Canadian court to contain "hate propaganda."

Although the law specifically states that, "No person shall be convicted of an offense ... if he establishes that the statements communicated were true," it is plain that the burden of proof rests upon the accused, not the government. A Canadian citizen who publicly charges Jews with atrocities against the Palestinian people, for example, can be arrested and prosecuted under the new law. In order to avoid conviction, he must then produce evidence which will prove to the court that his charges are completely factual. If he cannot afford a bail bond, he will have to dig up his evidence while confined to jail prior to his trial.

Swiss Choose National Suicide

In Switzerland one resident in six is a foreigner. In the Swiss labor force the situation is even worse, with foreigners—nearly all from Spain and southern Italy—holding one-third of all positions.

Just as in Germany, profit-hungry Swiss industrialists have deliberately promoted the immigration of alien workers to supply much-needed manpower for their booming factories, with no thought for the national or racial consequences. And, with a substantial portion of these immigrant workers reflecting the largely Mediterranean or other non-Aryan makeup of the lower social classes of Italy and Spain, the consequences are racial as well as national.

Many racially conscious Swiss citizens have long been aware of the dangers inherent in this flood of southern immigrants. Early in June they had an opportunity to act, when a referendum was presented to the Swiss electorate which, if accepted, would have resulted in the expulsion of a substantial portion of the alien population.

The liberal and Jewish press launched the expected hysterical campaign against the referendum, warning of the horrors of "racism" and "Hitlerism."

The press poison did its work, and when the votes were counted enough were found on the "respectable" side of the issue to defeat the referendum by a narrow margin. The flood of aliens into Switzerland will continue.

British Race Woes Growing

"This is no longer England, sir; they're taking over." This poignant comment by an English shopkeeper in Wolverhampton, a formerly English city in the Midlands now swarming with Indians, Pakistanis, and Jamaicans, expresses the feelings of every true Englishman today.

In Wolverhampton there are already schools which are 80 per cent colored, with English children unable to gain admission because of overcrowding by immigrants. Educational and moral standards are falling and crime is rising. And what is true in Wolverhampton is also true in a dozen other cities.

The response of Prime Minister Harold Wilson and the Labor Party to these problems has been what one would expect: they have chosen a Negro to represent Labor in one racially mixed urban district which will be voting in the Parliamentary elections June 18. If Labor wins in that district, as expected, the House of Commons will have its first Black member. He can then hold hands with the West Indian cricket player who was made a baron of the realm and appointed to the House of Lords last year by Queen Elizabeth.

A Black baron may sound like a sick joke, but even sicker is the British ruling class which has made grim reality of such jokes.

"...Not until the international world view - politically led by organized Marxism - is confronted by a racial world view, organized and led with equal unity, will success, supposing the fighting energy to be equal on both sides, fall to the side of eternal truth."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, II, I.

Editorial

In establishing the World Union of National Socialists ten years ago this August 5, Lincoln Rockwell created the means for the forging of a pan-Aryan world organization which would follow the guidelines that the Leader set down in Mein Kampf as being essential to the success of the Movement.

Five years ago, on 25 August 1967, Lincoln Rockwell fell to the bullets from a Marxist assassin's gun. This black deed was a shattering blow not only to the National Socialist White Peoples' Party, but it also reverberated through the Movement around the world.

What certainly seemed at the time to be cruel fate was, seen from the perspective of time, much, much, more. Like the early Christians, we had lost our Peter. We now had to walk alone. Yet the Movement was dynamic enough to maintain the momentum so necessary for its continuance and growth. The forceful and steady leadership of Matt Koehl assured a smooth transition during those critical times.

In losing a giant like Commander Rockwell, many, who before were content to see him and a handful of brave men carry the burden of the struggle, now realized that all National Socialists - to be really worthy of the name - must become involved in the fight.

The building of a National Socialist New Order which was envisaged by Lincoln Rockwell so many years ago proceeds, in spite of obstacles, in spite of often heart-breaking reversals, in spite of the loss of this great Apostle of Adolf Hitler.

Today the Movement is making significant strides in many Aryan lands around the globe. And the role of WUNS increases accordingly. In spirit and purpose, WUNS is the creation of Lincoln Rockwell and the small band of National Socialists who assembled in the Cotswolds, England, on that warm August day in 1962. Today WUNS belongs to all National Socialists who share their vision of a global organization striving for the cooperation and universal interests of Aryan mankind.

Australia

The National Socialist Party has begun campaigning for the federal elections this fall. Dr. E. R. Cawthron, WUNS representative in Australia, reports a very satisfactory electoral effort.

National Socialist candidates are contesting 10 seats in the Australian House of Representatives. Victoria is the major area of effort, where NSPA candidates are running in Latrobe, Maribyrnong, Lalor and Melbourne. Other National Socialist candidates have been fielded in Queensland, New South Wales and South Australia.

The major issue which the NSPA is presenting before the public is the "White Australia" policy. This has become a central issue with the average White Australian. A recent Gallup poll revealed that White Australians are opposed by 60% to a proposal, sponsored by the Australian Labor Party, that 25,000 non-Whites be allowed into the country annually. Another 10 per cent are undecided. The present rate of non-White immigration into the country is about 10,000 per year. Thousands of handbills and posters have been distributed by the NSPA with the slogan: "If you want a Nigger for a neighbor, vote Labor."

The 5th annual congress of the NSPA was held at the Emerald Hall in South Melbourne on June 11. Approximately 60 delegates attended from across Australia. While Mr. Cass Young, NSPA National Organizer was attending the congress, a mob of 100 Jewish terrorists attacked and ransacked his home in St. Albans.

Comrade Young's house was systematically wrecked. All the windows were smashed, doors broken down, furniture, bedding, and electrical appliances destroyed, and the stove was ripped out. Fires were set in the house with debris. Numerous items were also stolen, including some loose cash. Neighbors put the fires out after the mob left.

The mob — consisting mostly of anarchists and Communist members of the Marxist-oriented Worker Student Alliance — all admitted to being Jews. Police authorities have so far done little in the matter. Several Australian National Socialists, both men and women, have been the victims of physical assaults by Red-Zionist thugs. The Australian authorities seem more concerned with NSPA camps in Victoria and New South Wales. National Socialists and members of the Eagle Corps, NSPA Stormtrooper arm, are being trained at these camps in methods of self-defense to protect themselves from the growing Jewish violence which the police seem unable or unwilling to prevent.

The first issue of the new NSPA publication, The Stormtrooper, has been released and is available at: P.O. Box 317, Manly, N.S.W. 2095, Australia.

Perseverance is a monthly magazine published by Bela Kantor which contains many articles of interest to National Socialists. The publication

Austria

The third successive acquittal of cases concerning alleged "Nazi atrocities" has raised a furor among Jewish and leftist circles. In the most recent cases, a two-month trial in which a pair of SS commandos were accused of having murdered and tortured Jews at Ansbach, the jury dismissed the charges.

Biting criticism of the jury's verdict came from Simon Wiesenthal, the director of the Vienna-based Jewish Documentation Center, which has provided much of the "documentation" for many of the "war crimes" trials. Wiesenthal complained, with typical Jewish candor, that the Austrian people were sick and tired of the trials.

The Jewish Week-American Examiner (February 17, 1972) noted:

"A recent Gallup Poll showed that 58 per cent of those Austrians questioned did not like Jews and 27 per cent would not willingly shake hands with a Jew.

"There are some 10,000 Jews left in Austria today and one of them is the Prime Minister. Presumably people have to shake his hand, from time to time. And Israel and the Jewish people do have many genuine friends in Austrian political life.

"Anyway," a Viennese lady informed a diplomat's wife, "It was never as bad as the Jews make out. And many of the Jews who were killed were really horrible people..."

Many Austrians undoubtedly recognize the hypocrisy in the self-righteous super-hunt for so-called "Nazi criminals." The Jews are, of course, silent over the 100 million souls offered on the bloody altar of Communism or the sanguine activities of Israel's Haganah, Irgun and Stern execution squads which murdered thousands of British soldiers and innocent Arabs, as well as the special UN representative to Palestine, Count Folke Bernadotte, in the '40's.

Britain

There has been a stir in the press and Parliament recently over widespread National Socialist activities in the United Kingdom.

In Whitley Bay, England, a special leaflet bearing the international address of WUNS HQ in Arlington, Virginia, was widely disseminated via the mails. The leaflet was a call to arms for Britons to rally around the banners of National Socialism in defense of their race and culture.

Despite the natural outburst of fury on the part of the Jews over this type of political action, many Aryan Britons received the National Socialist message with welcome. A letter appearing in the local newspaper, the Whitley Bay Guardian, on 10 March 1972, reflects the opinion of an ever-growing number of Englishmen: "... I do agree with their (WUNS) suggestion that we must do everything possible to protect the White man and our civilization."

Giant white Swastikas have been reported appearing on many buildings throughout the island nation.

Denmark

Over 100 Danish National Socialists and comrades from other countries attended the dedication of a park built in memory of the 6,000 Danes who gave their lives in the struggle against Communism during the Second World War.

Paul Sommer, a Danish captain in the Waffen SS, was the featured speaker at the special opening ceremonies for the park. He reminded the gathering that the park was also built in tribute to those National Socialists who were killed for their beliefs in Denmark during and after the war.

Members of the Danish National Socialist Youth (Danmarks National-Socialistiske Ungdom) laid out the park near the banks of the Gudena River, outside the town of Kjellerup, in Jutland. The town's mayor immediately protested against the memorial for the fallen members of the Frikorps Danmark, a unit which had served with distinction alongside contingents from other European nations in the great struggle against Marxism during World War II.

Unknown vandals attacked the new park at night, with the apparent connivance of local authorities. They desecrated the memorial plaque erected in honor of those Danes who, true to their Aryan blood and Viking forbears, stood, fought, and died for their convictions in the bright light of day.

On April 20, a special birthday celebration in honor of Adolf Hitler was held in Copenhagen at the headquarters of the Danish National Socialist Workers' Party (Danmarks National-Socialistiske Arbejder Parti). Comrade Sven Salicath, leader of the DNSAP, presided over the special ceremonies which attracted delegates from all across Denmark.

The official organ of the DNSAP is Fædrelandet, a quarterly publication available at: DNSAP, Sct. Knudsvej 5, København V, DENMARK.

France

An astonished French public is just now beginning to learn about the true role that France played during World War II.

The release of several books and the movie "Le Chagrin et la Pitié" (The Sorrow and the Pity) have exploded the carefully nurtured myth that the vast majority of Frenchmen were anti-German and fought National Socialism during the war.

The movie carefully records through interviews and film of the period that the French people were strong supporters of Marshall Pétain and the Vichy government. DeGaulle was regarded by most Frenchmen as a quixotic figure, while the so-called resistance, which was a stronghold of Jews, Communists and criminals, was looked upon with disdain.

While DeGaulle was still struggling in 1941, trying to organize a "Free French" organization that not even Churchill took seriously, French combat units had already departed from Paris to participate in the anti-Communist struggle on the Eastern Front.

The new French generation is only now beginning to learn about their country's own recent history - 27 years after the war! With the myth about the "French Resistance" now refuted, it remains only to expose the myth of the Six Million.

Greece

Jewish circles in Greece are concerned over the growing anti-Semitism that is developing in many quarters.

George Papadopoulos, Greek government leader, recently declared: "The Revolution must purge anti-national organisms from the body politic. It must expel those cells which act in an anti-national manner."

A high-ranking ecclesiastic, the Bishop of Chios, accused Greek Jews and Zionist organizations of corrupting Greek youth in an address made on Greek Orthodoxy Day before an audience of government officials. He warned against the growing threat which the Jews and organized Freemasonry (which has shown itself to be intensely pro-Israel) present within the country.

In the audience were the Regent of Greece and many prominent ministers. International Jewry has condemned the Greek government for failing to deny the Bishop of Chios his freedom of speech and suppress the growing popular resentment against Jewish machinations.

La voie des soldats européens. Comme le font ces Français, des volontaires s'engagent partout dans les légions.

Germany

Chancellor Willy Brandt's campaign to formally give official West German government approval to the dismemberment of the German nation which occurred at the end of WWII has aroused militant opposition among large sections of the German people.

Brandt has renounced the German eastern territories which were occupied by the Communist armies at the end of the war and were later incorporated into the newly established Communist dictatorships in Eastern Europe. The territories included: Danzig, East Prussia, Pomerania, Silesia and the Sudetenland.

During the Second World War, Brandt, a confirmed Marxist, had fled to Norway where he worked with the Communist underground—killing many of his own countrymen in his service to the Kremlin. Earlier, he had fought in Spain on behalf of the Bolsheviks. After the war, he was installed by the American authorities as a "leader" of the German people.

An interesting insight into how many Germans remember what real leadership was like occurred with a Swiss-born actor by the name of Billy Frick. Bearing a remarkable resemblance to Hitler, Frick has been working in Munich on an American television special called, "The Plot to Kill Hitler."

During the lunch break, between shootings, Frick entered a local restaurant still dressed as Hitler. Frick recounted later, "The moment we walked into the restaurant, everyone stopped eating."

Bob Guenette, Frick's director, added, "No one in the restaurant said a word. They just gaped. Frick was with several actors dressed as SS men and they kept cycling him all through lunch. When we got up to leave everyone in the restaurant jumped to their feet and applauded wildly. Some of them sobbed out loud and tears rolled down their cheeks."

"Everyone wanted to shake my hand," Frick said, "and many of the women actually cried for joy at the thought that Hitler was still alive."

Frick reports that not one single German has objected against his resemblance to Hitler or reproached him for "Nazi streetlies."

"It strikes me as funny," Frick concludes, "that people think the Germans have changed. . . My experiences in Munich have proved that Hitler is still in the heart of Germany or people wouldn't have acted the way they did."

OLD WOMEN and war veterans surrounded Frick when he wore his Hitler costume on the streets

Ireland

Comrade Terence Byrne, leader of the National Socialist Irish Workers' Party, has experienced new acts of Red terrorism since he suffered grievous gun-shot wounds last summer at the hands of political opponents.

After making several threats upon his life in an unsuccessful attempt to intimidate the National Socialist leader, cowardly terrorists killed his dog and family pet by poisoning the unsuspecting animal.

A very successful celebration of the Leader's 83rd Birthday was held at NSIWP headquarters in Dublin on 20 April. Over 75 National Socialists participated in the event. The predominantly youthful gathering pledged to increase their efforts towards establishing a National Socialist New Order of social justice and progress on the Emerald Isle.

The Michael Collins Youth Movement is the new youth organization of the NSIWP. Named after the Irish patriot, all young Irish comrades are encouraged to join this National Socialist action group. Information on the Michael Collins Youth Movement, as well as the official publication of the NSIWP, The Irish Worker, is available at: 6 Brendan's Cotts, Irishtown, Dublin 4, EIRE.

Italy

Italian politics is witnessing a remarkable growth of neo-Fascism which is sweeping the peninsula from the Alps to the Straits of Messina. The most successful of these groups is the Italian Social Movement (Movimento Sociale Italiano or MSI).

The MSI surprised its political opponents in 1968 when it achieved 4.3 per cent of the national vote. The party advanced even further in the elections of May, 1972, when it acquired 8.7 per cent of the vote. It now has 56 seats in the 630-member Chamber of Deputies and 26 senators in the 322-seat upper house.

Part of this success is due to the abandonment of the more conservative wing of the party and a closer identification with Italy's Fascist tradition. The MSI is now co-operating closely with other neo-Fascist groups. The militant New Order movement (Ordine Nuovo), a National Socialist oriented group, has merged with the MSI.

Neo-Fascists, many with blackshirts, rally in Rome.

Neo-Fascists, wearing crash helmets and even the blackshirts which are proscribed by government decree, have effectively swept Italian streets of the militant Reds who but a year ago arrogantly boasted that the streets belonged to them. Over 20,000 men have joined the MSI's Public Defense Committee which, in co-operation with Prince Valerio Borghese's Italian National Front, has wrought fear into the hearts of once self-confident Marxist terrorists.

Borghese was the World War II commander of the famous Decima Mas torpedo boat flotilla. He remained faithful to Mussolini and went to northern Italy in 1943, where he and his naval crews organized Fascist units which fought alongside the German forces against the Communist partisans and the advancing Allied armies.

The MSI claims over 400,000 card-carrying members, 30 per cent of whom are below the age of 20. It has its own labor organization, the Italian Confederation of National Labor Syndicate, which claims a million members. The Communist and bourgeois labor unions, totalling a membership of five million, refuse to recognize the growing neo-Fascist labor organization.

A literal revolt developed last July, in which 15,000 troops were required to restore the situation. The trouble began when Communist government officials in Rome tried to switch the provincial capital of Calabria from its traditional site, Reggio Calabria, with a population of 150,000, to Catanzaro, population 75,000 — a much smaller city but a center of Marxist strength in the south.

The neo-Fascists, with the avid support of the entire populace, seized and barricaded Reggio Calabria, driving the Reds out of the city. This brought back many unpleasant memories to the leftists of the squadrist seizure of most Italian cities during the early 20's, an event which led up to the March on Rome.

It's clear that the Marxist-oriented government in Rome can not rely very heavily upon the armed forces. The 500,000-man military favors the upsurge of neo-Fascism. The former Italian Chief-of-Staff, General de Lorenzo, is an MSI Minister of Parliament. Admiral Birindelli, present commander of the NATO naval forces in Southern Europe, has announced that he too will become an active supporter of the MSI once his tour of duty is concluded. General Francesco Meru, present Army Chief-of-Staff and a favored candidate for the soon to be vacant position of Armed Forces Chief-of-Staff, is known to be very sympathetic with the neo-Fascist cause.

There have been calls from certain quarters — mostly Marxist — for government suppression of the MSI and other neo-Fascist organizations. A 1952 law makes it a crime punishable with up to five years imprisonment to organize a Fascist party or for anyone to "extol the exponents, principles, facts or methods of Fascism."

A mere "manifestation of Fascism," such as wearing a blackshirt or giving the Roman salute could result in three months imprisonment for the offender. That these laws are not being rigorously enforced by the government is indicative of the changing mood of the public. The growing popular support of neo-Fascism is creating the greatest crisis of the post-war Italian political system since it was established under the protection of Allied bayonets 27 years ago.

New Zealand

The New Zealand parliament has passed a "Race Relations Bill" which becomes effective in April.

National Socialists have been vigorous opponents of this anti-White legislation which is designed to outlaw White racial self-defense and encourages miscegenation. A contingent of National Socialists counter-demonstrated in Auckland recently against a march of 700 Reds who were protesting against South Africa's apartheid policy.

The New Zealand government has for many years winked at the illegal immigration into the country of Polynesians and other non-Whites. Many White New Zealand workers have been thrown into economic hardship by such mercenary capitalist policies.

North America

The National Socialist White Peoples' Party has witnessed new growth and ever increasing street activism. A new unit has been established in the Jewish-stronghold of Philadelphia, where 500-600 White citizens in the suburb of Kensington (location of the new NSWPP unit), rallied behind the Party and drove 30 members of the Jewish Defense League, who had shown up to "shut down the Nazis," out of the neighborhood.

On June 25, Commander Mate Koehl led a contingent of 50 National Socialists, accompanied by the White Power bus, to an outdoor rally on Grandfather Mountain in North Carolina. The National Socialist group was well received by the approximately 5,000 people attending the country-style affair and much information was disseminated on the Movement.

Miami Beach, Florida, U.S.A. — NSWPP Stormtroopers capture Marxist platform.

An outdoor rally was held at the Washington Monument grounds in Washington, D.C., on 2 July. The rally attracted around 1,000 onlookers, made up mostly of tourists. Towards the latter half of the rally, as Commander Koehl began to speak, several disorders broke out between Stormtroopers and some local hippies and leftists who tried to stop the rally. The leftists and a couple of Blacks were quickly dealt with by the Stormtroops. The police authorities became uneasy, however, and the rally was cut short upon their instructions.

For the first time in recent American history, both major political parties held their nominating conventions in the same city - Miami Beach, Florida. Miami Beach has the highest percentage of Jews of any American city - 90%.

Grasping at this golden opportunity, Commander Koehl led a group of Stormtroopers to this Jewish metropolis to protest for the forgotten White American. Activities started with a bang when the troopers in civilian dress, entered the Marxist stronghold of Flamingo Park. In the midst of 2,000 Reds, the National Socialists stormed the main speakers' platform and held it for two hours. Commander Koehl demanded that all Red flags be removed before they would give up the platform. Naturally the Reds finally refused and a battle broke out in which one National Socialist and four Reds were hospitalized for serious injuries.

Additional activities included picketing in front of Key Biscayne, President Nixon's Southern White House, and in front of the Fontainebleau Hotel, scene of a ball for Republican delegates. Toward the end of the convention, Commander Koehl personally challenged the constitutionality of an anti-Swastika ordinance and was arrested. He was found guilty in court the next day and fined $500 and sentenced to 90 days in jail. He is appealing the sentence and is now free on $1,000 bond.

The fourth annual Congress of the World Union of National Socialists will be held in Arlington, Virginia, on September 2-4. It will mark the 10th anniversary of the founding of WUNS in the Cotswolds, England, on 2 August 1962. The Congress will also pay tribute to Lincoln Rockwell on the fifth anniversary of his martyrdom.

Spain

It is with profound sorrow that we bid farewell to Comrade Friedrich Kuhfuss, who passed away in Barcelona. Comrade Kuhfuss was a member of the World Union of National Socialists.

Before and during the war, Kuhfuss was head of the Labor Front organization in Hamburg. During the height of the Allied terror bombings, Comrade Kuhfuss and his family elected to stay in the beleaguered city. As a National Socialist and a labor leader he felt it was his duty to share the fate of the millions of workers and civilians who suffered agony and death at the hands of Allied fire bombs.

As a result, Comrade Kuhfuss lost his entire family in such a bombing raid. Despite this terrible personal loss, Kuhfuss continued his duties and served National Socialism and the population of Hamburg until the end of the war, when he was forced to flee to Spain because the Allies wanted him as a "war criminal."

Comrade Kuhfuss continued his National Socialist work in Spain, where he made many good friends and comrades. Friedrich Kuhfuss' example of selflessness and total commitment to National Socialism stands as an inspiration to us all. We salute him. Heil Hitler!

Norway

An excellent publication which may be of interest to Scandinavian National Socialists is Folk og Land, a bi-weekly newspaper in the Norwegian language. A serialization of Commander Koehl's treatise, "America: A Racial Mission," was begun in Folk og Land beginning with the 20 May issue. The address is: Boks 3214, Sagene, Oslo, NORWAY.

Growing unrest continues in Spain in light of General Franco's measures to re-install the monarchy in the person of Prince Juan Carlos de Bourbon. In recent years, the Franco regime has worked closely with technocrats and followers of the Opus Dei in an effort to completely neutralize Falangist influence within the government.

The mass rally last November of 3,000 blue-shirted Falangists at El Escorial, a mountain-top shrine outside of Madrid built in memory of the Falangists who fell during the Spanish Civil War, was the first public demonstration expressing opposition to the proposed institution of the unpopular royal house.

The large gathering, strongly represented by young Falangists, waved red and black Falange flags and large pictures of Falangists chanted, "Falange yes, monarchy no!" and "Falange yes, idiot kings no!" Many shouted against the Opus Dei, a liberal Catholic lay organization which has achieved much influence within the Franco government in recent years.

Carlos Ruiz, a Falange leader, told the assembled blueshirts that the government had tried to prevent their meeting. "Now comrades," he assured them, "we are going to continue the struggle." Larger Falange rallies of upwards of 20,000 people protested this spring against the Bourbon pretender.

On May 19 a special mass was held at the Catholic Church of San Ildefonso in Madrid to commemorate the 27th anniversary of the death of Adolf Hitler.

Some 1,500 persons attended, including many decorated veterans of the Spanish Blue Division which fought on the Eastern Front during World War II. Many youths attending the service wore Swastika insignia in their lapels.

The congregation sang war songs outside the church under the eyes of the police. As the crowd began to sing the National Socialist anthem, Die Fahne Hoeh! (Raise the Banner) and the Falangist hymn, Cara al Sol (Face to the Sun), a sea of arms went up in the Aryan salute.

According to a special prepared notice, the service was organized "by a group of grateful Spaniards to pay homage to Hitler and all those who died with him in the defense of Christianity and Western Civilization."

Yugoslavia

Some 20-30 Croatian freedom fighters have been killed or captured during the month of June by Communist troops and police of the Tito regime. The anti-Communist Croatian forces, known as Ustashi, have infiltrated into Croatia from Austria and Italy. The Ustashi have been using the forests of western Bosnia as their base of operations.

The Ustashi receives training in non-Communist countries and is supported by Croatian communities around the world. The Croatian communities in countries like West Germany, Spain, Argentina, Australia and the United States have been instrumental in causing the Tito government much discomfort.

Mr. Fabian Lovokovic, secretary of the central council of the Croatian Association of Australia, which represents 100,000 Croatian immigrants in that country, declared at a recent public rally in Melbourne: "We are demonstrating against Croatia from President Tito's repressive Communist rule."

The Communist Yugoslav government has applied pressure in countries like West Germany and Australia in an attempt to have the Ustashi and anti-Tito demonstrations suppressed. In West Germany, these efforts have met with some success. Anti-Tito meetings and demonstrations have been banned in Frankfurt.

Closer to home, however, the Belgrade government has been treading a more cautious path. In Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, its, the 40,000 students, faculty and staff of Zagreb University have rallied to the support of the Croatian independence movement. Zvonimir Cisek, a non-Communist who was recently elected the university's first student deputy rector, described the growing current in Croatia as a revolt "directed against the intentional or unintentional genocide practiced against the Croatian nation. . . ." The Zagreb University student board, originally dominated by Communists, now has only four out of 19 members who are Marxists.

Croats demonstrate in Sydney

The second most populous of the six republics comprising the Yugoslav state, Croatia by history and tradition has been the most Western-oriented. During the war, Croatia was a member of the Axis. Its leader, Ante Pavelic, was the founder of the anti-Jewish and anti-Marxist Ustashi organization. The Ustashi government was a bitter opponent of the growing Communist terrorist forces which were growing more powerful in Yugoslavia thanks to the money and supplies provided it by Western Allies.

December 20: In 1924 the Leader leaves Landsberg Prison to start the task of rebuilding the Movement.

IN MEMORIAM:

Comrade Erhart Reinhardt was a relentless fighter for the National Socialist Cause. His death is a loss not only to our German brethren but to National Socialists everywhere.

A member of WUNS for ten years, Comrade Reinhardt served 15 months imprisonment for his opposition to Germany's puppet Bonn government.

During his cruel confinement in poor surroundings, Reinhardt's spirit was irrepressible. He re-entered the political struggle upon his release. Disgusted by the armchair strategists and their defeatist bromides, Reinhardt declared, "The future does not belong to the devilry of Jewish-Bolshevik slavery, but to the great idea that fights deception and idiocy — National Socialism."

Comrade Reinhardt was taken to Munich-Schwabing hospital in critical condition after being jumped and almost beaten to death. Despite his multiple skull fractures, Reinhardt related to a National Socialist comrade who visited him in the hospital who his assailants were. He died on the following day.

Comrade Reinhardt's dedication, loyalty, and perseverance stands as an inspiration to all Aryans. Let no one call himself a National Socialist who fears his example.

A native of Australia, Comrade Eric Wenberg was a world-wide representative of WUNS. He was establishing important contacts for the Movement at the time of his death in Rhodesia.

The cause of death was officially cited as an automobile accident. But evidence indicated that Wenberg may have been the victim of foul play.

Comrade Wenberg visited the United States in 1967. It was at that time that he met Commander Kochl.

Wenberg received international headlines when he courageously denounced the Marxist assassin of Lincoln Rockwell in the courtroom. He was deported from the U.S. and returned to Australia, where he dedicated himself to developing a strong National Socialist Movement.

Despite repeated threats and violent attacks on himself, Eric Wenberg continued in his determination to bring the truths of National Socialism to his fellow White Australians. On one occasion while trying to speak in Brisbane's Centennial Park, Wenberg and a handful of Stormtroopers battled with 200 Jews.

All National Socialists mourn the death of Comrade Eric Wenberg and share with our Australian comrades the loss of this proud son of our race.

"... We must not allow the greater racial community to be torn asunder by the differences of the individual peoples. The struggle that rages today is for very great aims. A culture combining millenniums and embracing Hellenism and Germanicism is fighting for its existence."

ADOLF HITLER, Mein Kampf, II, I.

Editorial

A number of inquiries have been received from comrades in different countries concerning the role of the World Union of National Socialists. What is its scope and its relation to the National Socialist parties in the various countries?

WUNS was formed with the purpose of uniting all National Socialists around the world in one universal, common Cause - greater than any of its parts. Affiliation is not only through local parties, but directly with individuals as well. The original Cotswold Agreements, formally establishing the World Union in 1962, were regarded by Lincoln Rockwell as tentative, and subject to future modifications which might enhance the role for which it was constituted.

Recognizing the organic principle of National Socialism that the whole is greater than any of its parts, the authority of WUNS must exceed that of any party which wishes to be a part of the universal Movement of Adolf Hitler. As a practical matter, WUNS has always allowed a maximum degree of local autonomy to enable the various parties to best deal with the political realities of their respective countries. But this is a matter of tactics; WUNS remains a monolithic organization based upon the totalitarian principles of a disciplined, centralized, revolutionary movement.

Representatives duly appointed by WUNS in various countries are directly responsible to the Commander of WUNS, and not to officials of any local party. As the supreme organization of the Movement, WUNS is charged with defending the fundamental National Socialist axiom that the common racial will has precedence over secondary considerations. National Socialists recognize that the logical corollary to a close identification of common purpose is a common direction.

WUNS exists as the superstructure for a future new world order - an Aryan Imperium - based upon the immortal principles of Adolf Hitler. Lincoln Rockwell laid the foundations for the great edifice that will one day stand as a monument to the racial idealism and good will of Aryans everywhere. It is the task of each of us to devote our energies towards the realization of that common goal by vigorously supporting a united National Socialist world movement as embodied in the World Union of National Socialists.

HEIL HITLER!

Argentina

Juan Peron's return to Argentina in November, 1972 after 17 years of exile was the cause of much speculation from both friend and foe concerning the future of the man and the political movement in Argentina which bears his name. Like its founder, the Peronist movement has been under strict political ban for 17 years. The movement continued to grow in numbers and influence despite the persecution, however, and it is now by far the largest political party in the country.

Peron's return brought Argentina's problems into sharper focus. His enemies hoped that the return of the 77-year old Argentine leader would precipitate disillusionment and destroy the great affection held for him and the "golden age" of his rule by the masses. Since Peron's ouster in late 1955, the powerful Peronista labor unions have viewed each succeeding military government as reactionary, hostile satraps of foreign interests to be fought at every turn.

During the nine years of the Peron regime the working classes received more social and economic benefits than they had ever received before or since. Most important of all, a new dignity was brought to the workingman and a recognition of his important role in the national community.

The foreign-controlled railways and transport industries were nationalized under Peron and their owners compensated, as were the foreign meat-packing plants. This quickly aroused the wrath of foreign speculators — many of them Jews — who resented this assertion of Argentine economic and political independence from Wall Street and London.

On the domestic scene Peron soon brought the powerful Argentine beef and grain barons to heel. They were punished for the economic excesses they committed at the expense of the nation by strict controls and taxes. The Peron government periodically announced big wage increases to the working classes. Today these great achievements have been buried in 17 years of increasing inflation and political incompetency. When Peron was overthrown by a military coup in 1955, the Argentine peso was 46 to the dollar; today it is 1,200. The cost of living in Argentina rose by 70% in 1972, while wages increased only 35%. Even the middle classes, who originally opposed Peron's national reforms out of self-interest, have changed their views and also demand a return to "the golden age."

The Argentine military leaders and reactionary circles hoped that the elections held in March, 1973 would destroy Peron's popularity once and for all by a defeat at the polls. But Dr. Hector J. Campora, Peron's choice as presidential candidate on the Peronista ticket, swept the opposition aside and presented the Argentine government with an undisputed Peronista election victory.

The election success did not come cheaply. Julian Moreno, an Argentine labor leader and Peronist candidate for Congress, was assassinated less than 24 hours after his party had opened its campaign for the general elections in March.

Mr. Moreno was about to get into his car, parked in Lanus, a suburb of the capital, when a small truck rammed his vehicle. A man and a woman with machine guns jumped out of the truck and fired, killing Mr. Moreno and fatally wounding his chauffeur, Leopoldo Deheza.

The assassins then fled in cars waiting nearby. Mr. Moreno, the secretary general of the Lanus local of the Metalworkers Union, was a candidate for Congress for the Justicialist Liberation Front, which was formed by Juan D. Peron.

It remains to be seen whether the reactionary military government will acquiesce to the mandate of the people, as they agreed to do before the election, or undertake new machinations to circumvent and thwart the establishment of a legally-elected Peronist government.

Australia

The National Socialist Party of Australia surprised the liberal and Jewish power structure in the federal election last November by receiving an overall average percentage of .5% of the votes cast. The Communist Party, long established in Australia and drawing considerable support from some unions and financial circles, received 1.8% in comparison.

The breakdown of the votes received by NSPA candidates are: Cass Young (Lalor constituency) 415 votes, or .7%; Katrina Young (Maribymong constituency) 144 votes, or .3%; Peter Wilkinson (Sturt constituency) 272 votes, or .5%; Les Leisenmann (Wide Bay constituency) 164 votes, or .4%.

The Jewish community became so alarmed at the votes received by the National Socialists that they are pressing the Australian parliament to outlaw the NSPA. This would be a blatant violation of the Australian constitution and there is little chance that the Jews will succeed in their efforts.

Dr. E. R. Cawthron, WUNS representative in Australia, reports a marked increase of interest in the National Socialist racial program by White Australians. The WUNS address in Australia is:

Belgium

Controversy still surrounds the erection some months ago of a memorial to Belgian volunteers who joined the SS and were killed on the Eastern Front during the Second World War.

The memorial, built in the community of Stekene-Waes west of Antwerp, takes the form of a small park with a center stone bearing the inscription: "On the Eastern Front, at the side of thousands of Flemings, there also died many volunteers from other countries. Their graves disappeared. This memorial garden has been created in their memory."

When the proposed park was announced three years ago a loud outcry against the project was heard from leftist and Jewish circles.

AN DEN OOSTERSE FRONT
VEEL BELGISCHE VOLKSVRIJERS
DIEDEN OM HET VERBODEN
WAPEN DER DUITSE SS
OM HEN TE VERANTEM
WIJEN OM GERECHT SANCEREN

The memorial plaque at Stekene dedicated "to the thousands of Flemish and numberless volunteers from other countries who died on the East front and whose graves have disappeared."

Several veterans organizations complained that the park was "unpatriotic." Most of these "veterans" sat the war out, Belgium having ceased hostilities in May, 1940.

Tens of thousands of Flemings and Walloons, meanwhile, became fighters for the new National Socialist order in Europe and volunteered as combatants against Bolshevism. They fought and died to protect Belgium and the rest of Europe and the West from the ravenous Red hordes that were to descend over much of eastern and central Europe in 1945.

The National European Congress, which is scheduled to meet in Flanders this year on 29-30 June, has declared 1 July as the annual memorial day for all those Europeans who lost their lives in the struggle against Communism.

Britain

The administration of York University in England has become alarmed over the appearance of a National Socialist student group on the campus. Public attention was first brought to the existence of the National Socialists when cars belonging to non-White aliens attending the institution were daubed with "Keep Britain White" stickers.

Since then a number of Marxist Jews have complained about the National Socialists shouting anti-Jewish slogans at them. Several of the National Socialist students have been required to appear before a disciplinary committee for evidencing their racial patriotism.

A member of Parliament revealed in early April that the government has been deliberately misleading the British people as to the real number of non-Whites in Britain. Government statistics were doctored to show that many of inner London's suburbs now have between 25 and 30 percent non-White children. The figures were misleading as the government counted only those children of non-White immigrants who entered Britain less than ten years ago.

With the true figures in evidence, it was emphasized that within a generation inner London will be predominantly colored.

Chile

The Marxist government of Chile's President Salvador Allende has been increasing his suppressive measures against the Partido Nacional Socialista Obrero (National Socialist Workers Party) and its leader, Comrade Franz Pfeiffer. The increasing shortages of food and gasoline, the rising cost of living, and the unemployment have created widespread dissatisfaction resulting in anti-Communist and anti-government riots.

Comrade Pfeiffer reports that the National Socialist movement is gaining significant support in Chile. Several meetings have been held and have met with great success despite increased government harassment. A Marxist publication, Mayoria, carried an "expose" of several pages concerning the growth and danger that the PNSO presents to Allende's "workers utopia."

Last September 3, the annual commemoration was held in Santiago cemetery for the 68 National Socialists who fell in a revolt in 1938. Over 500 people attended the ceremony. On 5 September, the actual anniversary day of the attempted revolt, Comrade Pfeiffer conducted a memorial service in front of the building where the 68 National Socialists were massacred in 1938. Two hundred people participated, raising their arms in the Aryan salute and singing "Raise the Banner" in Spanish.

France

Members of the New Order movement (Ordre Nouveau) have clashed with leftist students in Paris and other French cities. The cause of the clashes has been the stepped up attempts by the French Communist Party to dominate and incorporate socialist and new left groups by a display of force against anti-Marxists. Fierce counter-measures by French anti-Communists played havoc with the Communist plans for a new "Popular Front," both in the streets and at the election polls.

Over 100,000 reprints of the 31 January 1933 issue of the Völkischer Beobachter in commemorating the National Socialist revolution, were sold on the streets of Germany within a few hours when they hit the stands in January, 1973. They were offered as an "historical" item of study.

In East Germany thousands of political and criminal offenders were freed recently and allowed to flee to the West. But imprisoned National Socialists were excluded from the sweeping amnesty marking the 23rd anniversary of the East German Communist dictatorship. It is believed that the amnesty is related to East Germany's desire for reconciliation with West Germany's Social Democratic regime and their aim of membership in the United Nations.

In a dramatic effort to halt further Communist victories in Germany and Europe, the first National European Youth Congress was held near Munich on 16-17 September 1972. Many National Socialists attended incognito. After the public meeting of bourgeois-front groups, many National Socialists who attended the congress met privately to discuss the problems of Aryan Europe and the one and only true solution for its ills: National Socialism.

Fearing complications of the upcoming federal elections, Willy Brandt attempted to suppress National Socialist resistance to his Red policies before the elections. Shortly after the National European Youth Congress, infiltrators and agents reported to Brandt's special political police, the Verfassungsschutz, concerning activities of the underground National Socialist organization known as the German National Socialist Battle Corps (National-Sozialistische Kampfgruppe).

So far, 12 Germans have been accused of participating in illegal National Socialist activity (all National Socialist activity is illegal in West Germany). One American National Socialist, a member of WUNS serving as a soldier, in the U.S. Army in West Germany, was also accused in the case and was transferred back to the U.S. at the demand of the Bonn government.

Wilhelm Baier, a 22-year-old student from Munich, has been imprisoned since 5 November 1972, without trial, for his National Socialism. Legal action is pending against all the German comrades accused. Despite Brandt's terroristic methods, the German National Socialists are determined to continue the fight. Their tenacity serves as an inspiration to us all.

Germany

On May 10, 79-year-old Comrade Rudolf Hess completes his 32nd year in prison. On this date in 1941, Rudolf Hess flew alone from Germany to Britain in an heroic attempt to end the fratricide and establish peace between the two Aryan countries. But Churchill, the lackey of international Jewry, would not have it. Germany's peace proposals were spurned and the Leader's deputy was held prisoner until the war's end.

Hess was tried by the victorious Allies at Nuremberg for unspecified "war crimes" and sentenced to life imprisonment. He has remained in confinement behind the grim walls of West Berlin's Spandau Prison ever since. Since 1966, he has been the sole inmate of Spandau, a prison designed to hold 600. It is operated and guarded by the armies of Britain, France, the Soviet Union, and America at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars a year.

Britain, France, and the U.S. have agreed to release Hess. But the Soviet Union has vetoed the attempt, determined to see Hess die alone in prison for trying to end the war between the Western Powers and attempting to induce Britain to join Germany and the other Axis nations in a common struggle against Communism.

The unshaken refusal of this courageous comrade to repudiate his belief in Adolf Hitler and National Socialism serves as a burning example of loyalty and sacrifice to every National Socialist in the world today.

In East Germany thousands of political and criminal offenders were freed recently and allowed to flee to the West. But imprisoned National Socialists were excluded from the sweeping amnesty marking the 23rd anniversary of the East German Communist dictatorship. It is believed that the amnesty is related to East Germany's desire for reconciliation with West Germany's Social Democratic regime and their aim of membership in the United Nations.

Italy

The shaky new combination of the political left and center, which its creators hoped would serve as an effective block against the ever-growing neo-Fascist movement in Italy, provides clear evidence of the increasing fear by Marxists and reaction that the enfeebled political system which has burdened the Italian nation for the past 18 years is approaching the end of its tether.

The result has been stepped-up violence against the Fascists by Red terrorists. The "responsible" political leadership in the Italian government deliberately ignored Fascist protests about the Red violence, insisting that the Communists and Socialists involved were "extremists" and that the acts were not condoned by their political party and party leaders.

The deaths of two sons of an MSI party official in Rome as the result of a leftist arson attack outraged the Italian public, finally forcing the government to take positive action. The two brothers, Virgilio and Stefano Musi, died on 16 April when Marxist terrorists fire-bombed the home of their father, who is a branch secretary of the Italian Social Movement.

Thousands of mourners crowded Rome's streets in the funeral procession under a forest of Italian flags. Fascists carried flags draped in black ribbon, with the initials of the dead youths painted over them.

With the 50th anniversary of the March on Rome celebrated last October 12, Italians are particularly conscious of the similarities between the early twenties and the early seventies. The MSI, now the third largest political party in Italy, points out the growing chaos domestically and the lack of national purpose. Italians have enjoyed the benefits of a prosperous economy for some years. The price for these material advantages has been the growing alienation and disintegration of the national community.

North America

The National Socialist White People's Party has received much nation-wide coverage in recent months as a result of a federal court victory in Cleveland, Ohio. The mayor of that city forbade the wearing of the Swastika in City Hall. This arbitrary action was challenged and quickly won. Shortly thereafter it was disclosed that a considerable number of White patrolmen in the Cleveland police department wore Swastika pins, armbands, belt buckles and White Power tee-shirts on the job, a matter of much embarrassment to anti-White Mayor Perk and his city council.

Elsewhere, a confrontation with the Jewish Defense League in Los Angeles, California, in January, 1973, resulted when a column of 25 Stormtroopers was attacked by JDL thugs throwing bricks, bottles, and other missiles. The National Socialists quickly retaliated and gave the JDLers a severe trouncing save their leader, who ran away at the beginning of the fracas.

Commander Koehl's appeal against the city of Miami Beach's anti-Swastika ordinance was won in February, knocking down that unconstitutional anti-Aryan statute. The NSWPP also won a suit against the county school board in Arlington, Va., in which the federal court ruled that National Socialists were entitled to use public school facilities for meetings and rallies. Commander Koehl has announced that the 15th annual North American congress of the NSWPP and the World Union of National Socialists will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, this year over the Labor Day weekend, 1-3 September.

Sweden

The Swedish National Socialist Party, the Nordiska Rikspartiet, has made important strides in its campaign of familiarizing the Swedish public with its political program. The NRP has been devoting much of its attention to the 1973 elections for the Riksdag, the Swedish parliament. Several NRP candidates will be in the running.

Comrade Göran Oredsson, the leader of the NRP, appeared on Swedish television in a lengthy interview for the first time and explained the National Socialist program to millions of his fellow citizens. Swedish television is owned and controlled by the state. The appearance of Comrade Oredsson was an important achievement for the NRP.

Posters have appeared across Sweden advertising the NRP and exhorting Swedes to support it in the upcoming elections. The NRP's monthly publication, Nordisk Kamp, has been changed to a new newspaper format and is being produced with the Swedish voter in mind. The address of the NRP:

EZRA POUND 1885 - 1972

Two days after his 87th birthday, Ezra Pound passed away, leaving behind him an artistic career which made him one of the literary giants of the twentieth century. Born in Hailey, Idaho on 30 October 1885, of a prominent American family, Pound first achieved fame in his twenties, when he produced two groups of his poems: Hugh Selwyn Mauberley and the Cantos. These works were quickly recognized as among the masterpieces of the English language.

Many young writers such as William Butler Yeats, James Joyce, T.S. Eliot, and D.H. Lawrence were inspired by Pound. He was Yeats' secretary and literary guide during the Irish poet's most productive period. Pound discovered T.S. Eliot as a young poet and helped him shape the poem for which Eliot became famous, The Waste Land. James Joyce's Ulysses—generally considered to be the greatest English novel of the century—was promoted and published through Pound's efforts.

Although Pound was soon singled out by the Jewish establishment because of his political awareness, many of his students were alert to the Jews and their machinations. Wrote D.H. Lawrence in his novel, Kangaroo: "If a man is brought to my heel, better a spurred heel than the heel of a Jewish financier." T.S. Eliot summed it up best, however: "The rats are underneath the piles. The Jew is underneath the lot."

Pound set up permanent residence in Italy in 1924, where he became an enthusiastic supporter of Benito Mussolini and his new system of government. During the thirties Pound was quickly labeled a "black sheep" by much of the Jewish-dominated Western literary world for his ever-growing vociferousness against the Jewish hydra of capitalism and Communism. Pound was especially aware of the Jewish role in modern capitalism and spoke and wrote prolifically against its corrupt economic practices.

When war broke out in 1939 Pound accepted an invitation from the Italian Fascist government to take to the air waves, Europeans and Americans tuned in Radio Rome in ever-increasing numbers, attracted by the diversity of Pound's broadcasts, which incorporated political, economic, literary, and philosophical topics in a style that he became famous for.

As an American, Pound was especially concerned about the ignorance of his fellow-countrymen over the new political systems established by Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini that were revolutionizing Europe. With America's entry into the war in late 1941, Pound addressed himself increasingly to the traditional America which he knew was being cruelly deceived and exploited by Jewry for its own malevolent ends.

In May, 1945, Pound was arrested by American authorities in Italy. Irreverent of his captor's authority, his reply to an interrogator about his admiration for Hitler and National Socialism was uncompromising: "He was a martyr." Pound was put in a concentration camp at Pisa, Italy, where browbeaters, rapists, killers and other incompables from the American armed forces were confined. He was kept in solitary confinement in a cage made of corrugated metal air-strip planking. The cage was kept in a yard with little shelter from the sun and rain. The 60-year old Pound slept on a cement floor with bright lights trained on him at night. Kept incommunicado, he was told that nobody knew where he was. After three weeks of this physical and mental torture Pound collapsed, suffering from partial amnesia and claustrophobia as a result of his brutal treatment.

He was then flown to Washington, D.C., and arraigned for trial in 1946 for "treason." Upon viewing the physical and mental wreck that was Pound after the inhuman treatment he received at the hands of his captors, the poet was certified "insane" and confined in St. Elizabeth's mental hospital for 12 years.

But despite the attempts by Jewry and the liberal establishment to discredit, humiliate and destroy the man who remained unbowed in his beliefs, the world could not forget the poet and the powerful verses which had so dramatically influenced Western literary development. In 1949, Pound's Pisan Cantos was awarded the first Bollingen Prize for poetry by vote of the Fellows in American Letters of the Library of Congress.

Pound concluded his private affairs and returned to Italy upon his release from St. Elizabeths and took up residence in Venice, where he returned to his life's work amid the Renaissance surroundings he had come to love. He appeared indifferent to the public debate that developed in July, 1972, when a recommendation that he be awarded the annual Emerson-Thoreau Medal of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences was denied because of his political and racial views.

Just as Pound knew his beliefs to be right, so he knew that his place in the history of literature was secure. He died on 2 November 1972. He had outlived his detractors and events had proven his values to be correct. Marxist-dominated academic circles could deny him recognition but they could not deny him greatness. "If a man isn't willing to take some risk for his opinions," he told an interrogator in 1945, "either his opinions are no good or he's no good."

"Only a united White Race, supremely conscious of its natural destiny, a destiny bequeathed it in the gift of superior birth, as a master race, a noble race able to create the wonders of Western Culture — only such a united race can muster the will and the strength to restore order to a world in the process of suicide and disintegration."

The author of this pamphlet is a well-known English Zionist. He was Hon. Secretary of the Joint Zionist Council of the United Kingdom in 1912, Joint Editor of the "Zionist" in 1913-14 and Author of pamphlets on "History of Zionism" and "Zionism, Its Organisation and Institutions" published during the war. From 1917 to 1922 he was Solicitor and Secretary to the Zionist Organisation. He is now Legal Adviser to the New Zionist Organisation.

MARCH, 1936

GREAT BRITAIN, THE JEWS AND PALESTINE

S the Balfour Declaration originated in the War Cabinet, was consummated in the Foreign Office and is being implemented in the Colonial Office, and as some of those responsible for it have passed away or have retired since its migrations from Department to Department, there is necessarily some confusion or misunderstanding as to its raison d'être and importance to the parties primarily concerned. It would, therefore, seem opportune to recapitulate briefly the circumstances, the inner history and incidents that eventually led to the British Mandate for Palestine.

Those who assisted at the birth of the Balfour Declaration were few in number. This makes it important to bring into proper relief the services of one who, owing above all to his own modesty, has hitherto remained in the background. His services however should take their proper place in the front rank alongside of those Englishmen of vision whose services are more widely known, including the late Sir Mark Sykes, the Rt. Hon. W. Ormsby Gore, The Rt. Hon. Sir Ronald Graham, General Sir George Macdonagh and Mr. G. H. Fitzmaurice.

In the early years of the War great efforts were made by the Zionist Leaders, Dr. Weizmann and Mr. Sokolow, chiefly through the late Mr. C. P. Scott of the Manchester Guardian, and Sir Herbert Samuel, to induce the Cabinet to espouse the cause of Zionism.

These efforts were, however, without avail. In fact, Sir Herbert Samuel has publicly stated that he had no share in the initiation of the negotiations which led to the Balfour Declaration.* The actual initiator was Mr. James A. Malcolm and the following is a brief account of the circumstances in which the negotiations took place.

* "England and Palestine," lecture delivered by Sir Herbert Samuel, published by the Jewish Historical Society, London (February, 1936).

During the critical days of 1916 and of the impending defection of Russia, Jewry, as a whole, was against the Czarist regime and had hopes that Germany, if victorious, would in certain circumstances give them Palestine. Several attempts to bring America into the War on the side of the Allies by influencing influential Jewish opinion were made and had failed. Mr. James A. Malcolm, who was already aware of German pre-war efforts to secure a foothold in Palestine through the Zionist Jews and of the abortive Anglo-French démarches at Washington and New York; and knew that Mr. Woodrow Wilson, for good and sufficient reasons, always attached the greatest possible importance to the advice of a very prominent Zionist (Mr. Justice Brandeis, of the U.S. Supreme Court); and was in close touch with Mr. Greenberg, Editor of the Jewish Chronicle (London); and knew that several important Zionist Jewish leaders had already gravitated to London from the Continent on the qui vive awaiting events; and appreciated and realised the depth and strength of Jewish national aspirations; spontaneously took the initiative, to convince first of all Sir Mark Sykes, Under Secretary to the War Cabinet, and afterwards Monsieur Georges Picot, of the French Embassy in London, and Monsieur Goût of the Quai d'Orsay (Eastern Section), that the best and perhaps the only way (which proved so to be) to induce the American President to come into the War was to secure the co-operation of Zionist Jews by promising them Palestine, and thus enlist and mobilise the hitherto unsuspectedly powerful forces of Zionist Jews in America and elsewhere in favour of the Allies on a quid pro quo contract basis. Thus, as will be seen, the Zionists, having carried out their part, and greatly helped to bring America in, the Balfour Declaration of 1917 was but the public confirmation of the necessarily secret "gentleman's" agreement of 1916 made with the previous knowledge, acquiescence and/or approval of the Arabs and of the British, American, French and other Allied Governments, and not merely a voluntary altruistic and romantic gesture on the part of Great Britain as certain people either through pardonable ignorance assume or unpardonable illwill would represent or rather misrepresent.

Sir Mark Sykes was Under-Secretary to the War Cabinet specially concerned with Near Eastern affairs, and, although at the time scarcely acquainted with the Zionist movement, and unaware of the existence of its leaders, he had the flair to respond to the arguments advanced by Mr. Malcolm as to the strength and importance of this movement in Jewry, in spite of the fact that many wealthy and prominent international or semi-assimilated Jews in Europe and America were openly or tacitly opposed to it (Zionist movement), or timidly indifferent. MM. Picot and Gôit were likewise receptive.

An interesting account of the negotiations carried on in London and Paris, and subsequent developments, has already appeared in the Jewish press and need not be repeated here in detail, except to recall that immediately after the "gentleman's" agreement between Sir Mark Sykes, authorised by the War Cabinet, and the Zionist leaders, cable facilities through the War Office, the Foreign Office and British Embassies, Legations, etc., were given to the latter to communicate the glad tidings to their friends and organisations in America and elsewhere, and the change in official and public opinion as reflected in the American press in favour of joining the Allies in the War, was as gratifying as it was surprisingly rapid.

The Balfour Declaration, in the words of Professor H. M. V. Temperley,* was "a definite contract between the British Government and Jewry." The main consideration given by the Jewish people (represented at the time by the leaders of the Zionist Organisation) was their help in bringing President Wilson to the aid of the Allies. Moreover, officially interpreted at the time by Lord Robert Cecil as "Judea for the Jews" in the same sense as "Arabia for the Arabs," the Declaration sent a thrill throughout the world. The prior Sykes-Picot Treaty of 1916, according to which Northern Palestine was to be politically detached and included in Syria (French sphere), was subsequently, at the instance of the Zionist leaders, amended† so that the Jewish National Home should comprise the whole of Palestine in accordance with the promise previously made to them for their services by the British, Allied and American Governments and to give full effect to the Balfour Declaration, the terms of which had been settled and known to all Allied and associated belligerents, including Arabs, before they were made public.

In Germany, the value of the bargain to the Allies, apparently, was duly and carefully noted. In his "Through Thirty Years" Mr. Wickham

† Franco-British Convention, December 1920 (Cmd. 1195).

Steed, in a chapter appreciative of the value of Zionist support in America and elsewhere to the Allied cause, says General Ludendorff is alleged to have said after the War, that: "The Balfour Declaration was the cleverest thing done by the Allies in the way of propaganda, and that he wished Germany had thought of it first."^{*} As a matter of fact, this was said by Ludendorff to Sir Alfred Mond (afterwards Lord Melchett), soon after the War. The fact that it was Jewish help that brought U.S.A. into the War on the side of the Allies has rankled ever since in German—especially Nazi—minds, and has contributed in no small measure to the prominence which anti-Semitism occupies in the Nazi programme.

An outstanding consideration, though not forming part of the bargain, was the great potential value of Zionism in future as an instrument of British foreign policy. (In 1917 a Jewish Department was opened in the Ministry of Information and several Zionists were in its service.)

But Zionism in its second stage continued to be under the Foreign Office only till 1921, when the Cairo Conference, under Mr. Winston Churchill, transferred the care of Palestine to the Colonial Office, no doubt because that Office is the only Government Department with experience of controlling overseas Colonies and fostering their development. It is worth noting here that this is the concern of Great Britain only and the views, if any, of foreign countries in regard to such colonial development are of no great moment. The case of Palestine, however, differs entirely from that of any British Colony, or even of other British Mandated territories. Firstly, by its historical associations, Palestine is of interest to all foreign countries. Secondly, its growth is at all times of intense interest to the Jewish inhabitants of the countries of the world. To-day, in view of what is happening to Jews in Central and Eastern Europe, the speeding up of Palestinian development is of poignant necessity in almost all foreign countries, which the Foreign Office would obviously be better able to appreciate. Thirdly, the constitution of Palestine is sui generis in that Great Britain is the trustee appointed by the League of Nations to administer Palestine for the benefit, not only of the present population, but of the Jewish people as a whole, who are to "reconstitute their National Home."[†] There is no precedent in Colonial Office experience for the case of Palestine, and what happens in

ORIGIN OF THE BALFOUR DECLARATION

Sir.—Dr. Chaim Weizmann's autobiography, Trial and Error (reviewed in your columns on April 23), contains a rather surprising error about an important matter of history; an error which seems rather surprisingly to have been widely overlooked.

The winning of the Balfour Declaration from the British Government in November, 1917, was the decisive achievement of Dr. Weizmann's career. It opened the way for the establishment of the new State of Israel, and made Dr. Weizmann's life story a vital chapter in world history. How the Declaration was secured is therefore a matter of front-rank historical moment. Now, the facts about the negotiations have during the past thirty years been correctly set out without challenge by men of unquestionable authority in various publications. Thus, in his monumental history of Zionism, Die Zionistische Bewegung (Vol. I, p. 656), Dr. Adolf Boehm says that when the U.S.A. had turned down the Sykes-Picot proposals for partitioning the Near East, "Mr. Malcolm, President of the Armenian National Committee in London, advised Sir Mark Sykes to influence Wilson through Brandeis, and to guarantee Palestine forthwith to the Jews, in order to gain their support. After discussion with Lord Milner, Sykes begged Mr. Malcolm to put him into touch with the Zionist leaders, because Sir Edward Grey and Mr. Balfour were convinced of the justice of the Zionist demand for Palestine. Through Greenberg, Malcolm made contact with Weizmann." Mr. Samuel Landman tells the same story in the Essays presented to J. H. Hertz, and these facts are also recorded in a number of other publications.

I myself, when writing the biography of the late Earl Lloyd George, studied the mass of documents dealing with the affair, and independently reached the same conclusion. In brief summary I noted how, when earlier efforts of Dr. Weizmann and his friends had failed to influence the Government to support their Zionist programme, Mr. James A. Malcolm suggested and initiated, on the ground of Zionism's potential value to the Allied war effort, a fresh approach to Sir Mark Sykes, the Under-Secretary to the War Cabinet; put him in touch with Dr. Weizmann and his associates; and was a member of the deputation that visited the Quai d'Orsay to win over the French to the proposal, after it had found favour with the new Coalition Cabinet under Lloyd George and the Foreign Office had sent word to Brandeis and through him had worked on Wilson, in Washington.

Curiously, in the account which Dr. Weizmann gives of the Balfour Declaration in chapters XV-XVI of his autobiography he makes no mention of Mr. Malcolm's vitally important intervention, and attributes his own introduction to Sykes to the late Dr. Gaster. I have communicated with Mr. Malcolm, who informs me that Dr. Gaster was only brought in some months after the negotiations had commenced, in February, 1917, on a single occasion—no doubt the one described by Dr. Weizmann on page 230 of his book. Dr. Weizmann's omission is the more surprising, because he wrote to Mr. Malcolm on 5th March, 1941, saying: "You will be interested to hear that some time ago I had occasion to write to Mr. Lloyd George about your useful and timely initiative in 1916 to bring about the negotiations between myself and my Zionist colleagues and Sir Mark Sykes and others about Palestine and Zionist support of the Allied cause in America and elsewhere." The omission in Dr. Weizmann's autobiography was no doubt due to a lapse of memory; but in view of the historical importance of the matter and in justice to Mr. Malcolm, I feel that the true facts should be clearly stated.

MALCOLM THOMSON.

THE BALFOUR DECLARATION

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES

Sir,—The issuing of the Balfour Declaration by Mr. Lloyd George's Cabinet on November 2, 1917, was a notable event in world history, because it opened the way for the establishment of the new State of Israel. This thirty-second anniversary of that declaration seems a suitable occasion for stating briefly certain facts about its origin which have recently been incorrectly recorded. When writing the official biography of Lloyd George, I was able to study the original documents bearing on this question. From these it was clear that although certain members of the Cabinets of 1916 and 1917 sympathized with Zionist aspirations, the efforts of Zionist leaders to win any promise of support from the British Government had proved quite ineffectual, and the secret Sykes-Picot agreement with the French for partition of spheres of interest in the Middle East seemed to doom Zionist aims. A change of attitude was, however, brought about through the initiative of Mr. James A. Malcolm, who pressed on Sir Mark Sykes, then Under-Secretary to the War Cabinet, the thesis that an allied offer to restore Palestine to the Jews would swing over from the German to the allied side the very powerful influence of American Jews, including Judge Brandeis, the friend and adviser of President Wilson. Sykes was interested, and at his request Malcolm introduced him to Dr. Weizmann and the other Zionist leaders, and negotiations were opened which culminated in the Balfour Declaration.

These facts have at one time or another been mentioned in various books and articles, and are set out by Dr. Adolf Boehm in his monumental history of Zionism, "Die Zionistische Bewegung," Vol. I, p. 656. It therefore surprised me to find in Dr. Weizmann's autobiography, "Trial and Error," that he makes no mention of Mr. Malcolm's crucially important intervention, and even attributes his own introduction to Sir Mark Sykes to the late Dr. Gaster. As future historians might not unnaturally suppose Dr. Weizmann's account to be authentic, I have communicated with Mr. Malcolm, who not only confirms the account I have given, but holds a letter written to him by Dr. Weizmann on March 5, 1941, saying: "You will be interested to hear that some time ago I had occasion to write to Mr. Lloyd George about your useful and timely initiative in 1916 to bring about the negotiations between myself and my Zionist colleagues and Sir Mark Sykes and others about Palestine and Zionist support of the allied cause in America and elsewhere."

No doubt a complexity of motives lay behind the Balfour Declaration, including strategic and diplomatic considerations and, on the part of Balfour, Lloyd George, and Smuts, a genuine sympathy with Zionist aims. But the determining factor was the intervention of Mr. Malcolm with his scheme for engaging by some such concession the support of American Zionists for the allied cause in the first world war.

1140 THE TRUTH ABOUT PEACE TREATIES

millions of leaflets were circulated in every town and area throughout the world where there were known to be Jewish communities. They were dropped from the air in German and Austrian towns, and they were scattered throughout Russia and Poland. I could point out substantial and in one case decisive advantages derived from this propaganda amongst the Jews. In Russia the Bolsheviks baffled all the efforts of the Germans to benefit by the harvests of the Ukraine and the Don, and hundreds of thousands of German and Austrian troops had to be maintained to the end of the War on Russian soil, whilst the Germans were short of men to replace casualties on the Western front. I do not suggest that this was due entirely, or even mainly, to Jewish activities. But we have good reason to believe that Jewish propaganda in Russia had a great deal to do with the difficulties

~~created for the Germans in Southern~~

Russia after the peace of Brest-Litovsk. The Germans themselves know that to be the case, and the Jews in Germany are suffering to-day for the fidelity with which their brethren in Russia and in America discharged their obligations under the Zionist pledge to the Allies.

we informed the Arab leaders, King Hussein and his son, Feisal, of our proposals. We could not get in touch with the Palestinian Arabs as they were fighting against us.

There is no better proof of the value of the Balfour Declaration as a military move than the fact that Germany entered into negotiations with Turkey in an endeavour to provide an alternative scheme which would appeal to Zionists. A German-Jewish Society,
